OILERS WIN DOUBLE-HEADER AND CLIMB INTO SECOND PLACE

BRILLIANT PLAYING WINS 2 FOR OILERS

Stonewall Defense and Determined Offense Factors in Double Defeat of Indians.

CLEVELAND-DENNIS STARS

Thirteen Victories, Six Defeats and One Tie Is Now Tulsa's Record; Bayne in Hole.

(Staff Correspondent.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Aug. 24. Brilliant offensive and defensive playing gave the Tulsa Oilers victory over their ancient Oklahoma City rivals here this afternoon, in two thrilling games before nearly 5,000 fans. The scores were 7 to 1 and 5 to 2.

To spectacular fielding, air tight in the second game and hard and timely batting, with good pitching by Dennis in the first contest and effective work by Shackelford in the second, is due the Oilers double victory.

Winning of these games is more impressive by a glance at the box score. Tulsa made only one error in both games, to three by Oklahoma City. Eighteen hits were made by Tulsa, 10 by Oklahoma City. Three of Tulsa's blows went for extra bases while all Oklahoma City hits were good for only one sack.

Hubert Dennis was sent to the mound in the first game by Manager Abbott and he twirled a brilliant game, permitting only six singles. With the exception of the sixth inning, in which Oklahoma City secured two singles, Dennis was never in danger. He was working for the outside corners and finding them with regular success. He gave three bases on balls but struck out 10 men. Dennis fanned five straight, settling down all three strikers in the sixth inning.

Jim Park, former St. Louis Brown hurler and who has been very successful in the Western league this season was touched for eight hits and seven runs. After the second inning Parks pitched good ball though was nicked for three additional scores.

Tulsa won the game in the fourth inning. Cleveland singled, Davis sacrificed, Tierney singled, Schmidt's sacrifice fly scored Cleveland. Tanner erred on Dennis' grounder, Burke doubled to center, clearing the bases and scored on Wuffli's single. Dilts singled and sacrifices by Slattery and Cleveland scored one in the third. Singles by Slattery and Cleveland, an error and Tierney's sacrifice scored Tulsa's finals in the ninth.

Oklahoma City counted its only run in the first, a pass to Pitt, Falk's sacrifice and Lindimore's single counting the former. The Indians threatened only once thereafter, that being in the eighth. Two singles were made with two gone, but Dennis tightened and retired the side.

"Moose" Vangilder pitched shutout ball for five innings, allowing only two singles in that time. In the sixth, successive singles by Park, Pitt and Falk and a base on balls to Tanner gave Oklahoma City a run and saw Vangilder's retirement in favor of Bayne. Lindimore's single and Griggs' sacrifice counted Pitt and Falk. Shackelford was sent to the slab and held Oklahoma City scoreless from then on.

Four runs in one inning again won for Tulsa; the Oilers got them in the first inning. Burke singled and Wuffli tripled, scoring Jimmie. Dilts walked, Slattery's single scored Wuffli. Cleveland flied out, Davis and Tierney were passed forcing in Dilts and Manion's single scored Slattery.

One more was made in the second, Wuffli scoring after he and Dilts had singled and Slattery had sacrificed. Meadows was taken from the rubber in the first inning with one out and Stoner was relieved with one gone. Park finished the game and was effective after the second frame.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Thirteen victories, six defeats and one tie is now Tulsa's record. Some record. Lefty Bayne probably will work for Tulsa today, with Salsbery or Applegate hurling for Oklahoma City.

The entire gang played great ball, but Barney Cleveland's batting was its feature. Barney secured five hits in seven trips, one a double and a sacrifice in his other times up. He drove in two runs and scored two himself. Colton Tierney's fielding was sensational. He handled 14 chances, many of them difficult, without an error.

Catcher Griffin of Oklahoma City suffered an injured finger in the sixth inning, first game, and was forced to retire. The Oilers made several brilliant fielding plays. Cleveland's stop of Griffin's hot grounder in the seventh inning of the first game, Wuffli's one-handed catch of Park's liner in the eighth inning of the same game and Burke's one-handed catch of Pitt's drive in the seventh inning of the second game all aided in winning.

LARRY DOYLE FEELS AGE IS GETTING HIM

Manager McGraw Is Casting About for Youngster to Take Place of Veteran of Many Big Battles.

Is the great Larry Doyle through as a major leaguer? Dame Rumor has it that Manager McGraw of the Giants is looking for a place to ditch Doyle for an ambitious youngster, because Larry cannot stand the pace of six or seven games each week.

It is charged that Doyle's legs have weakened and after each game he is obliged to submit to rather strenuous and electrical treatments to insure his being in shape for activities the following day. If father time has taken the power out of Doyle's running apparatus he certainly has not dimmed his batting optic, for the great infielder's job has been responsible for more than one game that ended in the Giants' favor this season.

The fractured leg which Doyle sustained as a member of the Chicago Cubs never has helped his leg troubles. The member that was fractured is said to be quite weak after a hard game, and at times causes Larry to limp noticeably.

That Doyle frees himself slightly is best attested in a bit of gossip given publicity recently by a New York sport writer, who declared Doyle had requested McGraw to replace him with a youngster before it was too late. Doyle is one of the smartest ball players on the New York roster, and along with his unusual baseball brain is a sensitiveness that will not permit him to regard others when he knows he cannot carry his burden as it should be carried.

The offer made recently to St. Louis, from which club he hoped to land Rogers Hornsby, included Larry Doyle, and the veteran could be proud proof of great value to the St. Louisians, even though he filled no other but a than that of a pinch hitter. Three weeks ago a trade was talked of between the Giants and the Braves, but as Doyle declared he disliked of playing with the Beanftown crew, negotiations were dropped by the master mechanic of the Giant machine.

RUTH SLAMS DETROIT FOR BOSTON VICTORY

Two Home Runs in Tight 11-Inning Battle By "Babe" All That Saved the Easterners.

NEW YORK IS EASY FOR CHI

Senators Beat St. Louis and Caldwell Defeats Phillies With First Cleveland Mound Duty.

DETROIT, Aug. 24.—Two bases on balls combined with three hits, gave Boston a victory over Detroit today after 11 innings of the greatest baseball ever staged at Navin field. Twenty-five thousand persons watched Babe Ruth add two more home runs to his total, and then drive over the run that won the contest.

Three runs behind, the Tigers tied the count by a rally in the fifth and then duels put them behind once in the next inning with his second home run. Detroit bunched three hits in the eighth and took another lead but the visitors tied it up again. In the 11th Shannon and Hooper walked and Scott singled. Both scored Shannon and Scott with a single to left and Ruth drove Hooper in with the winning run.
