

What They Promised.

THE FRIENDS OF GOV. CURTIN PROMISED THE PEOPLE THAT IF THEY WOULD RE-ELECT HIM, THE WAR WOULD END IN 30 DAYS AND THERE WOULD BE NO MORE DRAFTING. HOLD THEM TO THEIR PROMISES.

Wood, Flour and Pork wanted in payment of subscription.

What is the Republic?

A strange hallucination seems to have possessed the minds of some people, to the effect that the "Union" is the parent, master and ruler of the States, that the States exist only by virtue of powers granted them by the "Union" and that when the "Union" ceases to be, the States are obliterated and "chaos is come again."

Now, if this were true, the State Government of Pennsylvania would, even at this day, be a nullity, for it is admitted, by the very men who hold the views just referred to, that the "Union" no longer exists, nay more, it is stoutly maintained by them that the "Union" can never be restored.

DEATH OF BEDFORD COUNTY SOLDIERS.—We regret to learn that a son of Samuel Whip, Esq., of Cumberland Valley, and Sergeant Simon Stuckey, both of the 138th P. V., who were wounded during the recent advance of Meade, have died of their injuries. We believe their remains have been sent home to their friends.

MAJ. JOHN H. FILLER.—We believe it is not generally known that this officer is a prisoner at Columbia, S. C. He was taken at one of the unsuccessful assaults on Fort Wagner. Maj. Filler certainly showed great bravery in that desperate struggle.

ADJUTANT GUMP.—Lieut. John A. Gump, of the 138th, has for some time acted as Adjutant of that regiment, receiving the commendation of his superior officers for his gallantry and good conduct. Adj't Gump is a true man and one whom we shall be glad to welcome home, "when this cruel war is over."

SOME PIGS.—Mr. Joseph D. Sleek, of St. Clair tp., butchered, a few days ago, one hog, 17 months old, weighing 457 pounds, another 11 months old, weighing 326 pounds, another weighing 203 and another weighing 298. Who owns the "piggies" that will beat them?

FRESH OYSTERS.—All who want a good dish of fresh oysters, please call at John Harris', at the Old Rising Sun Corner. Mr. Wm. Earnest will wait upon you in his usual accommodating and agreeable manner.

THE WAYNESBURG MESSENGER.—This excellent Democratic paper has done a new suit of type and looks as bright as its senior editor on a certain morning after being shampooed as to his head, and trimmed as to that grand and flowing beard. We are glad to see this evidence of the Messenger's prosperity.

SAVING MONEY.—It would be well for farmers to remember that in every ton of hay saved, from $15 to $25 are made. We are glad to see that the farmers of this and adjoining counties are "waking up" and learning that often $100.00 may be made by spending $50.00.—Our friend, Wm. Hartley, seems to exercise excellent judgment in his selection of labor-saving machines, and without saying one word to disparage his Gum-spring Seeder, Iron and Steel Mower and other useful machines, we must say that nothing could be better adapted to its purpose than the "Eureka Hay, Straw and Stalk Cutter and Crusher." Hartley, we understand, is selling hundreds of these Cutters and Crushers, in this and adjoining counties, and we hear nothing but praise from all who use them.

THE COMING DRAFT.—It will be well for parents having two or more sons subject to the draft, to remember that they are entitled to elect one of them to be exempted from the operation of the next draft. But this must be done before the drawing takes place. Parents who are thus situated and who desire to exempt one of their sons, should at once have the proper papers drawn up and make their application.—We believe it is not necessary, in this case, that the parents must be dependent on the labor of the sons for support.

THE PROVOST MARSHAL requests that the names of such persons as are known not to be enrolled to be forwarded to him. We hope this matter will be attended to so that the enrollment will be full. As it stands at present it is quite imperfect, many persons subject to draft not being enrolled, and what is queer about it, nearly all of them belonging to the Abolition party. Let the people of the county see to this, as every man liable to the draft is interested in it.

THE EIGHTH CAMPAIGN towards Richmond, has just been concluded, and the Army of the Potomac is on the same ground occupied by it last year. But oh! to think how many lives have been lost, how many families bereaved and how much treasure spent in this treadmill "On to Richmond!" It is enough to make the angels weep.

GOODY'S LADY'S BOOK for December is a gem. The illustrations are very pretty and quite copious and the literary contents varied and excellent. Goody is a valde modum for the ladies.

COL. GATES OF THE U. S. ARMY, says that during his campaign in Mexico he would rather retire to his couch without his sword than a bottle of RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. It was the only medicine he used through the Mexican campaign. Gen. J. Hobart Ward, of the Army of the Potomac, first became acquainted with its virtues in Mexico, and always keeps it in his camp. In sudden attacks of Diarrhoea, Dysentery, pain in the bowels, head, stomach, or in cases of Rheumatism, Neuralgia or wounds, cuts, bruises, or sore throat, Influenza, Hoarseness, Radway's Ready Relief cures immediately. Let none who value health and safety be without it.

OLD ABE has refused to exchange white prisoners of war, because he thinks the nigger does not get his rights. Does any one suppose that he would refuse to exchange negroes if only white men were to suffer?

A WEEK or so ago, the Secretary of War announced to the country that he had reliable information that the rebels were about to invade the country from Canada. The Canadian papers only laugh at it, and say there is not a word of truth in the report.

Conservative Convention at Cincinnati.

The Conservative Old Line Whig Convention, at Cincinnati, on Thursday, was attended by a respectable and influential delegation from all parts of the North and Border States. Ex-Governor Campbell, of Tennessee, was chosen President. This Convention is deliberating with closed doors, and but little, thus far, has transpired of its proceedings. It is understood that the remarks of the delegates were of the strongest and most decided character against the policy of the Administration.

Senator Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, declared that military interference with elections was atrocious and infamous, and was sapping the foundations of American liberty. The platform of the Convention will probably be an appeal to the Southern States to return to the Union; in which contingency, they are to enjoy every right of personal property they had before secession. The war is to be prosecuted for that object and none other.

There are decidedly united feelings among the delegates. No Presidential preference will be avowed at present; that will be left to a more numerous and general convention to be held at some future day. The present Convention will only issue an address and resolutions. The Convention will probably continue two or three days.

Chief Justice Tancy.

Extract from a letter written by a distinguished gentleman to a friend in Boston, dated "Washington, Nov. 30, 1863":

"Yours of the 28th inst., is received. I see the Chief Justice often, and talk with him by the hour. He has no intention of resigning. His general health is good, and his mind is apparently as vigorous and clear as ever. His life is devoted to two leading objects—the performance of his duty to his God and his country. He worships the one and venerates the other, and desires to serve both in the best possible manner. He is rather amused than offended at the apparent wish of partisans who manifest such indecent zeal to have him vacate his seat. A more pure-minded or patriotic man never lived; and I have no knowledge of one more able or learned in all that concerns our institutions. In manner and thought Chief Justice Tancy has all the simplicity and directness of a child. But when you touch the Constitution and laws of our country—whether of the intercourse between nations, or matters on the sea, as in admiralty or on land, as in applying the common law, or the statutes of Congress or of the States—he has now no living superior. God grant that he may live long for the benefit of our country."

The Hartford Election.

The city of Hartford, Conn., elected town officers last week with a sweeping Democratic victory. The Hartford Times says:

"The Democrats elected their entire ticket, of forty men, by majorities ranging from 319 to 431 votes. This aggregate vote—3,919—is the largest ever polled at a full election in this town—it being larger by 379 votes than it was last year. The Democrats have increased their vote this year 213 votes; the Disunionists have increased theirs 166. The average Democratic vote on Selectmen is 2,068; the average Disunion is 1,749 and two-fifths votes. Democratic majority, 319. On Collector the Democratic majority is 434; on Town Clerk it is 379. The Times further says: 'Conservative men, who have become alarmed at the fearful course of events—at the great strides to despotism that are so manifest—came up nobly and assisted in putting down the disunionists in a handsome manner. The Democracy came out well, and still had a reserve of 700 voters, who were ready to leave their places of business the moment it should be found that the disunionists were endangering their ticket. But their help was not called for.'"

The Gettysburg Ceremony.

We hope that we have no reader who will be able to read the official dispatches sent from Gettysburg without a blush of shame. The Governor, it seems, did not reach there in time to participate in the proceedings of Tuesday evening, which were of "a lively character." Mr. Lincoln made a joke or two; Mr. Seward, who has become nervously anxious as to his fame as a prophet, vindicated his pretensions by the assertion that forty years ago he had anticipated that the battle of freedom would be fought upon the field of Gettysburg; and Mr. Forney referred to the political aspect of the campaign. It is thus that the President of the United States and his confidential advisers deport themselves in the presence of the historic field where two hundred thousand of their countrymen, four months ago met in deadly conflict. It is thus that they render homage to the heroic dead. With the groans of the wounded still resounding in the air—the corpses of the slain still unburied—the bereaved still clad in the emblems of mourning, and their tears still flowing—these men meet to laugh and joke and electioneer.—Age.

The War.

We have received official intelligence that the siege of Knoxville is at an end. On last Friday Gen. Longstreet ceased offensive operations and marched with a cavalry rear guard towards Virginia. On Thursday Gen. SHERMAN'S expedition, sent from Chattanooga for BURNELL'S relief approached Knoxville on the west and formed a junction with the garrison. Longstreet, with all his trains and artillery, retreated past Foster's outpost on the Clinch, skirmishing with them as he marched along.—A junction was at once formed with Burnside, and his line of communication is now open with Cumberland Gap. Longstreet's progress beyond Foster's camp is not known.

There are Southern accounts of the retreat of Grant's army to Mission Ridge. No change has been made in the disposition of forces at Chattanooga since yesterday's advice. The Confederate Gen. Brant Knott, who was reported killed, is said at Beckton where he was re-wounded a few days since.

The Confederates claim to have captured five hundred prisoners from General Meade in his late expedition to Mine river. Among the captured is General Magruder, of New York.—They report that nothing was left behind by the Federal army in its retreat to the northern bank of the Rapidan. Gen. Lee has crossed several regiments over the Rapidan at each of the fords that occupy the ground to the north of them. The Federal lines do not now extend to the river; and the Confederate picket line is within a stone's throw of Culpeper. There is no expectation of any active operations. The newspapers are filled with harsh and ungenerous criticisms of General Meade, who certainly deserves praise for not wasting life in a foolish attempt to capture an impregnable position.—Age.

Meeting of the National Union Committee.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—The National Union Committee met, yesterday, at the Barnet House, Ex-Governor William B. Campbell, of Tennessee, acting as Chairman pro tem. Hon. Amos Kendall was chosen permanent President, and William C. Hand, of New York, Treasurer.—A public meeting of the Convention was held at 12 o'clock to-day, when addresses were made by Hon. Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, and others.

The subject of the next Presidency was fully discussed; and the nomination of General McClellan was urged upon the Advisory Committee; that Committee, at a meeting held this evening, postponed the subject until the 23d inst., at a meeting of the Committee in Philadelphia.

The Nation is Drunk.

The New York World says.—"We need no longer wonder at the Parisians who thronged the theatres during the worst excesses of the French revolution. In the midst of this terrible civil war, which is draining the best blood of the country and mortgaging its property with a debt our children will stagger under, we are spending more money in amusements and gaieties than ever before. Private balls and parties were never so numerous, and as for theatres they were never so thronged. It is quite safe to say that this winter will see twice the money spent on balls, parties, theatres, opera, and dresses to attend them, of any former season in the metropolis. This state of things cannot last always. The intoxication of the country is now laboring under will be followed before long by a season of profound depression."

Rebel Raid in the Cherokee Nation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Indian Superintendent Coffin has arrived in this city, bringing to the Indian Bureau an official report concerning a raid that was made several weeks ago into the Cherokee country, by, as was supposed, a party of Quantrell's guerrillas, who destroyed the public buildings at Talequah and the property of Union citizens, including that of John Ross. A son-in-law of the latter was murdered by the band.

The New York City Election.

ELECTION OF GUNTHER, PEACE DEMOCRAT FOR MAYOR.
New York, Dec. 1.—Returns from the city, with the exception of one district, give the following vote for Mayor:—
For C. Godfrey Gunther, Peace Dem., 28,881
For Francis J. A. Boole, Dem., 22,478
For Orison Blunt, Union, 19,403
Gunther's plurality will be over 6,400.

ANOTHER STUPENDOUS FRAUD ON THE GOVERNMENT.

Another Stupendous fraud on the Government, amounting to over $640,000, has just come to light in the office of the Quartermaster at Alexandria. The fraud has been in the receipt and delivery of forage for the Army of the Potomac. Captain Stoddard, one of the parties implicated, is under arrest, and confined in the Old Capital Prison.

"BIG THING"—The "loyal" citizens of Allegheny county, that gave Curtin over seven thousand majority, furnished at the last draft 135 soldiers to "fight for the Union." All the rest of the draft, 4,068, were exempted! This is a picture of abolition "loyalty."

The woollyheads want to double the President's salary. That's right; don't mangle the ore that treadeth on the corn. Make it a million. Call it a millionary-necessity.
It was of such men as Beecher, Chivers, Tappan and Bellows that Isaiah said, "Your heavens are full of blood," and the Psalmist exclaimed, "Depart from me therefore, ye bloody men." "Continually are they gathered for war. They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips."

Formerly, men would say—"I am glad I was in church." Now, many say—"I am glad I was not in church," particularly, when, after an abolition sermon, it is asserted publicly, that "the copperheads got their bellies full."
"ON TO RICHMOND"—What has become of the note to Richmond of the abolitionists? It has not been used since McClellan was removed. He was "too slow." What rapid progress has been made since his removal!

The wife of Ex-President Franklin Pierce, died Wednesday morning, at Andover, Mass.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Attempt of the Rebels to pursue Gen. Meade.
HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, 1 Dec. 4, 1863.
Our Pickets Driven in at Germania by Rebel Cavalry.
Last night our pickets were driven in at Germania Ford by the rebel cavalry, and the long roll was sounded throughout the camp; but the enemy retreated back across the river before any damage was done, and the army soon regained its usual quiet.

Appearance of the Rebels on the opposite side of the Rapidan.
Last night the rebels appeared in force on the opposite side of the Rapidan and threatened to cross. Our baggage and trains were sent to the rear, the long roll was called, and our boys prepared for a fight; but the rebels did not come over, and we soon settled down into our usual peace and quietness.

Our Recent Losses.
Seven hundred and twelve men, wounded in the late campaign, are being sent to Washington to-day.
Our losses will exceed, rather than fall short of one thousand.

Gen. Foster Repulsed by Longstreet—Affairs at Knoxville—The Enemy Repulsed on Sunday.
CINCINNATI, Dec. 4.—The Commercial has a special dispatch from Cumberland Gap, dated Wednesday, stating that fighting was going on, on Wednesday, at Walker's Ford, twenty miles from the Gap, between General Foster's and Longstreet's cavalry. In attempting to cross the Clinch river, General Foster was met by the enemy and repulsed, with the loss of fifty men. They captured four pieces of artillery.

A LATER REPORT.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY POTOMAC, Dec. 4th, P. M.—A light division of rebel troops crossed the Rapidan, this afternoon, at some point above Raccoon Ford, probably on a reconnaissance.
Since this information came to camp considerable cannonading has been heard in that direction, and it is supposed that their advance has been checked by our light batteries, which have been attached to the cavalry arm of the service, in pursuance of Gen. Meade's orders.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

Our Losses in the Late Battles—Forty-Six Guns Captured.
CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 4.—Everything quiet along our entire line. Our casualties in the late battles foot up four thousand five hundred. The 4th Corps alone lost two thousand three hundred and fifty. The prisoners captured are six thousand four hundred and fifty. Guns captured, forty six.

The expedition to relieve General Burnside is under General Sherman, who has doubtless reached Knoxville.
The most important work now is to reopen the railroad from Bridgeport to Chattanooga, and the work is being pushed with great vigor.

A FORTUNE FOR ALL!

EITHER MEN OR WOMEN! NO HUMRUM, BUT AN ENTIRELY NEW THING. Only three months in this country! No clap-net operation to gull the public, but a genuine money-making thing! Read the Circular of instruction once only, and you will understand it perfectly. A Lady has just written to me that she is making as high as TWENTY DOLLARS SOME DAYS! giving instructions in this art. Thousands of soldiers are making money rapidly at it. No person has to be urged to patronize it. It is a thing that takes better than anything ever before offered. You can make money with it at home or abroad—on steamboats or railroad cars, and in the country or city. You will be pleased in pursuing it, not only because it will yield a handsome income, but also in consequence of the general admiration which it elicits. It is pretty much all profit. A mere trifle is necessary to start with.

There is scarcely one person out of thousands who ever pays any attention to advertisements of this kind, thinking they are humbugs. Consequently those who do send for instructions will have a broad field to make money in. There is a class of persons in this world who think that because they have been humbugged out of a dollar or so, that every thing that is advertised is a humbug. Consequently they try no more. The person who succeeds is the one that keeps on trying until he hits something that pays him.

This art cost me one thousand dollars, and I expect to make money out of it—and all who purchase the art of me will do the same. One Dollar sent to me will insure the prompt return of a card of instructions in the art. The money will be returned to those not satisfied. Address WALTER T. TINSLEY, No. 1 Park Place, New York. Oct. 30, 1863—3m.

Something New in Philadelphia.

COOPER'S PHOTOGRAPHIC ART GALLERY.

No. 1338 CHESTNUT STREET. Opposite U. S. Mint. Gallery, Reception and Operating Rooms. ALL ON FIRST FLOOR. All styles and sizes of Photographs, Ivorytypes, Ferrotypes or "Tinypics" and taken at prices to suit the times. Pictures finished in Water Colors, Oil, India Ink and Pastil. Horses and other Animals, Equipages, Country Seats, Runs, Models of Machinery, &c., for painting accurately photographed. P. F. Cooper desires to call the attention of persons visiting Philadelphia to his new Grand Floor Gallery, where he has introduced newly patented cameras, capable of taking, in a few seconds, one hundred photographs, from the small stamp or autographic, to the Imperial and Life Size. After many experiments he has succeeded in placing his six-light at an improved angle, diffusing the light in equal proportions, and producing that soft gradation of tone which cannot be given by the side and sky-lights generally used, and which is of so much importance to the beauty of a picture. It is made of French glass, and is the largest in Philadelphia.

Mr. Cooper has been engaged more than twenty years in the study and practice of the Fine Arts. His long experience as a Miniature and Portrait Painter is a sufficient guarantee for the perfection of the pictures made at his establishment. The art of fleshing is well understood; none but the most skillful artists are employed in the respective departments. All Pictures Warranted.—The Ivorytypes will not change in any climate, and will stand the test of acids. Particular attention is paid to giving graceful and easy positions.

Daguerotypes and all other kinds of pictures copied, from small medallions, life size, and finished in colors or Indian ink, to look equal to pictures taken from life. This Gallery possesses rare facilities for taking Equestrian Pictures from life, in the rear building, where from one to fifty horses can be photographed at a time.

N. B.—TO PHOTOGRAPHERS, COLORISTS AND OTHERS. JUST ISSUED.—A NEW WORK ON Photographing Colored, Ivorytypes, Examining, Ivory Miniature Painting, &c. Complete instructions given for making Ivorytypes, with some valuable receipts, never before published, useful to all photographers, for one of which a large sum has been offered.

By following the directions contained in this book, even those persons with no previous knowledge of Painting cannot fail to color photographs in a beautiful and effective style. Price, One Copy, $5.00, Five Copies, $20.00. By remitting $12.00 one copy, with Box of Paints, Palette, Brushes, and preparation complete will be furnished free of charge.
