D. W. AMOS' PATENT HORSE RAKE.
This rake combines greater improvements, and more effective capabilities, than any ever before offered to the agriculturist.
As the teeth are elevated and depressed by the foot of the driver, his hands are left free to guide his team with precision, and keep it under perfect control. As each rake-tooth is capable of an independent vertical movement, the rake will operate perfectly over the most uneven surface with a uniform pressure, and will, consequently,
RAKE MOW GRASS PERFECTLY CLEAN.
As the teeth of the rake have two movements, they ground well and do not obstruct its progress, nor stir the several teeth, and it will rake without injury to the heaviest grass.
As the teeth form their own springs, the cumbersome, costly, and complex springs, heretofore used, are entirely dispensed with, and in case of breaking any Farmer can at once replace the broken tooth.
As the rake-teeth are lifted automatically by mechanism, controlled by the foot of the driver, he is enabled to operate the machine with very little fatigue and without using his hands at all. As the driver has both hands with which to manage his team, he can START, TURN, or go FORWARD with precision and at the proper moment; and as the movement of the teeth are controlled by his foot, he can, at the proper moment, elevate them to discharge their load, and instantly drop them at the exact moment and place to commence raking without loss of time.
This rake is solidly constructed of durable materials, and is so simple and direct in its operation, that any boy who can manage a horse in harness, can use this RAKE, to perfect work.
All persons wanting a good RAKE will please give me a call in due time, as I will make a great many in this season.
For further information as to license, sale, or use of this Patent, address

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.
Just published, a new edition of Dr. C. W. Feltwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (with-out medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, and all the Diseases of the Genitals, and those induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife—pointing out a mode of cure, at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

The Rev. Jacob Sechler.
Well known and much respected among the German population in this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted.
Haverhill, Pa., Feb. 16, 1859.
Dear Sirs—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefited by it.
JACOB SECHLER.

From Jesse Smith, Esq., President of the Morris County Bank, Morristown, New Jersey.

From Hon. John E. Smith, a Distinguished Lawyer in Westminster, Md.

By the Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pomeroy, Pa., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have seen them used by many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,
LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, and Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.
Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.
I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. J. C. Hoofland, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by giving me a trial, and for encouraging me to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN, Philad'a.

From Rev. Jos. H. Kennard, Pastor of the 10th Baptist Church, Germantown, Penn.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding this practice as not my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaints, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may not be usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above cause.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD.
Eighth below Costes st, Phila.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Germantown, Penn.
Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir—Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefited by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects on others. Yours truly, WARREN RANDOLPH, Germantown, Pa.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding, M. E. Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir—Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it is the best of general service.
Yours respectfully,
J. H. TURNER,
No. 726 N. Nineteenth Street

From Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Millstown (Pa.) Baptist Churches.
New Rochelle, N. Y.
Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir—I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. J. M. LYONS.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks Co., Pa.
Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir—I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. Yours, with respect,
J. S. HERMAN.
