NEGRO MURDERER IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 13.—It was learned today that George Cramer, the motorman on the car at the time Conductor Williams was shot and killed by a negro two weeks ago, positively identified the man Tilley arrested by police officers and now in the state penitentiary at McAlester, as the negro who did the shooting. The motorman identified the negro at the time he was arrested but refrained from saying so publicly to avoid the possibility of a lynching before the black could be rushed to the penitentiary.

MCALESTER, Okla., Oct. 13.—With every train bringing in more candidates, the largest in its history, the valley of South McAlester swung into the work of the opening day of the annual fall reunion of Scottish Rites bodies of Oklahoma. Four hundred and fifty-six men had enrolled at 8 this evening, and started on their way. This is 39 more than any other class enrolled. Many more are expected to join before the preliminary degrees have been finished. In addition to the record breaking class on hand, McAester is crowded with Masons from all over the state. RICHARDS' WITNESS HELD FOR PERJURY

Third Day of Sensational Suit for Alienation of Affections Sees More Lawyer-Judge Tilts.

Special to The World.

MUSKOGEE, Oct. 13.—The arrest of M. L. Huff, a witness for Eastman Richards, millionaire Creek Indian, in James J. Claxton's $150,000 alienation of affections suit, stood out as the feature of the third day of the sensational hearing before Judge H. H. Wheeler in district court. Morton Rutherford, attorney for Richards, announced that a similar charge would be filed Tuesday against Claxton and Mrs. Roscoe Winn, Claxton's sister-in-law and star witness for the plaintiff.

The perjury charge grew out of Huff's testimony Saturday to the effect that he had seen Claxton, Mrs. Claxton and Mrs. Winn together on a downtown street in Muskogee last Thursday night. The witness for the plaintiff denied this. Huff's bond was fixed at $1,000 by City Judge Zick and he was released when bail, signed by Richards and W. T. Wisdom, vice president of the Exchange National bank, was presented.

Court was opened Monday morning with another sharp argument between Attorney Rutherford of the defense and Trial Judge Wheeler in which the judge grew so heated that he shook his fist under Mr. Rutherford's nose and called in the sheriff. He did not again fine the attorney, however. The row took place in the judge's private chambers. It had been preceded by a number of clashes in the courtroom.
