

By Their Fruits Ye shall Know Them. A few Democratic families reside in that classic locality commonly known as "Texas." These faithful few are daily and nightly insulted by the children of the Abolition residents of that neighborhood, who utter the most profane and obscene language, stone the houses of the Democrats and do every thing they can to annoy and outrage these peaceable and inoffensive people. Several of these families are composed exclusively of ladies, and upon these the civility of "Texas" specially pours out its violence. Now, we do not blame the children; the fault rests with the parents (who, we are told, encourage them in their vile conduct) and with the moral laxity which they receive at church and Sabbath-school. We call the attention of the "Texas" people of Bedford to the conduct of the "Texas" children and ask them to note the church and Sabbath-school which they attend. Their devilish behavior is the fruit of false teaching. Let those who have their moral culture in their hands, be held responsible. But the diabolical spirit which urges children to such outrageous acts, must and shall be quelled. The Democrats of "Texas" must and shall be protected. If they are molested, in the future, the law will be enforced against their assailants; and if their rights cannot be asserted under the law, a little moral suasion will soon bring some of the hypocrites and blackguards of that neighborhood to their senses.
