ORDERS DAKOTA MINES RETURNED

District Judge Issues Injunction Favoring Owners.

OVERRIDES GOVERNOR

Court Takes Slap at Frazier in Directing Seizure of Property by Troops.

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 19—Judge W. L. Nuessle, in district court late today, issued an injunction directing Adjutant General Fraser and Captain L. B. Baird of the state home guard to restore to the Washburn Lignite company, not later than 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, the mining property at Wilton, N. D., seized last Thursday under orders from Governor Frazier.

"It seems to me that it amounts on one hand to confiscation and on the other to involuntary servitude," declared Judge Nuessle, in reviewing the action of Governor Frazier in taking over lignite mines in North Dakota, and in enforcing his proclamation by the use of available military resources.

OMAHA JURY INDICTS 128

Riot Causes Crimes Against Women and Undue Criticism of Officials

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 19.—The special grand jury investigating the courthouse riots of September 28, reporting today after returning 129 indictments, mostly in connection with the riot, said the cause of the riot was crimes against women and undue criticisms of public officials.

The police were blamed for not dispersing the crowd several hours before the rioting. The jury reported having been unable to find any witness to the lynching of Will Brown, a negro.

MRS. SHONTS IS REMOVED

Widow Is Not Allowed to Serve as Temporary Administratrix

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Milla D. Shonts, widow of the late Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company, was today removed as temporary administratrix of her husband's estate and the Guaranty Trust company appointed as her successor. Counsel for the executors yesterday alleged that Mrs. Shonts had deceived the court in making application for letters of administration when she declared she did not know the contents of Mr. Shonts' will, in which the bulk of his property was bequeathed to Mrs. Amanda C. Thomas.

"SAY UNCLE"
THAT'S what Louis Armsberg, pawn-broker, said to beautiful Annabelle Lee. And beautiful Annabelle Lee, having nothing but an artistic temperament and a lot of pawn tickets, called him uncle and had the time of her life!
Mercy no! nothing wrong at all. Just a little friendly partnership that landed Louis where he wanted to go socially and netted Annabelle big dividends in love from one Dicky Norton.
But the troubles they had! And the troubles they made! Wow! You'll gasp and laugh till your sides ache.
Added Features:
A Comedy and the Rialto Orchestra
Marguerite Clark's Slipper Given Away
Every person attending the Rialto during the showing of this picture will be given an opportunity of winning a dainty souvenir of Marguerite Clark—one of her slippers personally autographed by her.
Winning number will be announced in next Monday's Rialto ad
