MORNINGSIDE AND BROADMOOR

$10,500—This is a brand new six-room bungalow; modern in every respect, with good oak floors throughout, white enamel wood work, French doors, built-in features, attractive mantel and built-in kitchen cabinet; splendid bath; built-in linen cabinet, tub and pedestal in alcove; two-car garage and modern servants' quarters, basement. High slightly location, on the pavement, and at this low price it is $1,000 to $2,500 under anything in this addition.

$9,000—Six large rooms and breakfast room; oak floors throughout; ivory enamel work; extraordinary decorations; large kitchen cabinet with wood filler drain board, enclosed refrigerator room, new window shades, eight or ten electric light outlets, garage and servants' quarters. Full lot; situated in Broadmoor Addition. The best close-in district in town. Very attractive terms.

In our opinion, either of the above houses could be bought at this time and could be sold for a substantial profit in the spring. They are both undeveloped as you would be sure to admit. We are exclusive agents for these properties and many others, and if you are looking for a home, we are sure you could profit by calling on us for an appointment.
