

Bedford Borough Democratic Ticket.

Pursuant to previous notice, the Democrats of Bedford borough, met in the Court House, on Saturday evening, Feb. 25th, and placed in nomination the following ticket, to be supported by the party, at the election to be held on FRIDAY, MARCH 17th:

- Justices of the Peace, H. NICODEMUS, JOHN H. RUSH, Constable, SAMUEL J. McCAULIN, Assessor, JOSHUA M. GRIFFITH, Judge of Election, JOHN A. MOWRY, Inspector, HIRAM LINTZ, School Directors, JOB MASS, O. E. SHANNON, Town Clerk, AUGUSTUS CARVER, Chief Burgess, VALENTINE STECKMAN, Assistant Burgess, JOHN MILLER, Auditors, J. H. HUTTON, RICHARD R. SILL, Councilmen, A. W. MOWEL, JOHN BOOR, High Constable, JAMES CUNBOY.

After the nomination of the ticket, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the question whether the office of Wood Measurer shall be continued, is hereby submitted to the voters of the borough, at the ensuing election, and the Democratic candidates for Burgess, Assistant Burgess and Councilmen, are hereby pledged to govern their action in regard to this matter according to the decision of the majority of said voters.

Murder Justified.

The reader of the Abolition prints must have marked the stealthy efforts of those who write for them, to excite mob violence and to apologize for crimes committed by their partisans. No matter how flagrant the outrage upon the rights of the citizen, be it highway robbery, arson, or even murder, these incarnate devils are ready, with a hundred excuses, to screen the guilty scoundrels from the penalties of the law. An instance of this kind has recently been exhibited in our own county. As our readers are aware, Mr. F. C. Mock, of St. Clair tp., was shot, in cold blood, by a party of soldiers, whilst on his way home from the election in October last. There is not a decent white man in the county, whose indignation was not aroused by the perpetration of this foulest of murders and whose very soul did not turn with loathing from the heartless cruelty which, unprovoked and unjustified in the smallest degree, devoted to a horrible butchery, the life of an upright and respected citizen. Nevertheless, the Jacobin organ in this place is filled with apologies for this infamous deed, and abounds in prevarication and falsehood, in order to cover up the damning atrocity of the outrage. In last week's issue of that sheet, there appeared an article written by a pedantic pettifogger, who, after the most persistent importunity on the part of the putative editor, undertook the task of writing up the righteousness of the military proceedings which led to the murder of Mr. Mock. The sweatings of this scribbler's brains amount to so little that they are hardly worth a passing notice. But, he evidently thinks that he has given us "the words with the bark on." (Isn't that what his ponderous Latin quotation signifies—"Qui heret in litera, heret in cortice"?) Well, the "bark" shall be knocked off his words and in naked ugliness he shall stand before the world.

1. "The draft was pronounced unconstitutional," by the Democratic leaders, says our pettifogger, and thus, he argues, drafted men were induced not to report, which rendered necessary the presence of armed men near the polls, on the day of the election, for the purpose of arresting these "deserters" who might come out to vote. Now, this very hypocritical changeling, who reasons in this style, is the man who talked most of the unconstitutionality of the Conscription Law, when it was passed by Congress. Nay, he went so far as to say in a public speech, in Bedford township, in the Spring of 1863, that, rather than Pennsylvania should assist in the further prosecution of the war, he would have the State withdraw from the Union and set up for itself. Hence, if anti-war teachings produced the state of things which necessitated the presence of the military in this county, this newly fledged abolitionist had his full share in giving the lessons. Doubtless he would still be engaged in calculating his views of 1863, had not the Democracy of Bedford county repudiated him and his Secession doctrines and had there not appeared unto his eyes the enrapturing vision of a snug Raiment in the army.

2. The presence of the soldiers at, or near the polls, proved of no account in the way of arresting deserters. It only prevented several hundred men, who had as good a legal right to vote, as any yearly turn-out in the land, from casting their ballots at the election. The persons who had the soldiers sent to the election-places, knew that the drafted men would come out to vote, if they were not deterred by demonstrations for their arrest, and, therefore, they resolved to deter them. In this purpose they succeeded, but not a single deserter was arrested. Besides, it was not a matter of necessity that these drafted men should be arrested on election-day. The day previous, or the day after, would have answered the purpose just as well. No, no! The sending of troops to the polls, was a "partizan trick," intended to overawe not only the conscripts, but also the citizens opposed to the Administration. Frederick Mock was no deserter. Why did the "little soldier" level his musket at Mock, before the latter raised his gun? Why did the Sergeant order Mock's arrest? Ah! the soldiers knew what was their mission at the St. Clair polls! Frederick Mock was an opponent of the Administration and they had been taught by Abolition demagogues, that, being such, he was a traitor to his country. Hence, their conduct toward him. Hence his arrest and hence his most foul and cruel murder. The blood of poor Mock rests upon the hands of the vile tricksters, who, for partizan purposes, had bodies of armed men stationed at and near the polls on the second Tuesday of last October.

3. As to the charge of Judge King, we reiterate what we said in regard to it, in a former article, confident that we have not misrepresented it one jot or tittle. The petty fling at the Judge's noble vindication of the freedom of the ballot-box, contained in the article to which we refer, is worthy of the chagrined pettifogger whose views of the law the Judge had the presumption not to sustain. How badly the Judge must feel to be told by this refulgent light of the law, that the portion of his charge which related to the presence of soldiers at the polls, was a "mere dictum" and "exceedingly unprofessional and objectionable!"

In conclusion, we would say that so far as the murder of Mr. Mock is concerned, we harbor no feeling of revenge, nor have we referred to it, at any time, for the purpose of biasing the minds of the people upon the subject. It is the peace and good order of society which we desire to be maintained and the majesty of the outraged law vindicated, through the trial and punishment of the murderers of Frederick C. Mock. Who the guilty parties are, we have not said. That remains for a jury of their countrymen to decide. But whoever they are, we insist upon it that they shall not go unpunished; and the man who tries to screen them, or to excuse their crime, is no better than they, and ought to swing with them from the same gallows.

What Men are Arrested For. Mr. Joseph C. Miller, of Harrison township, this county, was recently arrested upon the following charges:

- 1. In that the said Miller declared that "Abe Lincoln was a fool and had no sense."
2. In that the said Miller wished that "lightning might strike the cabinet and knock them into along with Horace Greeley."
3. In that the said Miller is a sympathizer with the South and had declared that he would rather fight for Jeff Davis than Abe Lincoln.
4. In that the said Miller had "spoken disrespectfully of the Administration."

These grave charges were not sustained against Mr. Miller and he was discharged. We give publicity to this matter, merely to show by what uncertain tenure we hold our liberties. The idea of arresting a man because he has declared that the President hasn't good sense and for "speaking disrespectfully of the Administration," is decidedly refreshing. We hear every now and then, of citizens being arrested by the military and released upon examination. This is in direct violation of the Conscription law. That law provides that whenever a citizen shall have been arrested for an offence against the laws of the United States, he shall be immediately handed over to the U. S. Courts for trial. The officer who restrains a citizen of his liberty, contrary to law, is liable to prosecution and to a suit for damages. It is about time that the laws were observed in this country, and if they are to be trampled under foot much longer, we will see what virtue there is in the civil courts. If a citizen be charged with a violation of the law, let him be tried according to law. If found guilty, let him be punished according to law and if innocent, acquitted according to law. Shall this be the rule in the future, or must citizens be driven to seek a remedy in prosecutions for false imprisonment and suits for damages? We shall see.

SORGHO SUGAR AND MOLASSES.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of our friend J. Henry Schell, Esq., of Schellsburg, in this issue, by which it will be seen that he has for sale a quantity of Sorgho seed and also Cook's Evaporator and Cane Mills, for the manufacture of sugar and molasses from Sorgho. This plant is well adapted to the soil of Bedford county and its culture has been experimented upon in the neighborhood of Schellsburg and in Morrison's Cove, with great success. We have no doubt that it will soon become one of the staples of our county. From 150 to 300 gallons of syrup can be produced to the acre. This syrup sells for $1.50 per gallon. Our family have used it and have found it equal to the best New Orleans syrup. When properly manufactured, it is excellent for baking purposes. We would advise farmers to sow several acres in Sorgho and purchase a Cane Mill and Evaporator. There can be no failure in its returning a handsome profit.

As long as men smell of whiskey and tobacco, the women have a right to defend themselves with musk.

To the Abolition candidates at the Spring elections, greeting: Are you for Curtin and against the present draft, or for Lincoln and in favor of the draft? Where are you, gentlemen?
Rev. Wm. Conrad, an eminent minister in the Ger. Ref. Church, died at Berlin, Somerset county, a few days ago. He was one of the finest linguists and scientific scholars in the country.

The very fact that the Abolitionists went to the trouble to have a law passed enabling them to get the army vote, shows how important they consider the Spring elections. Let not the Democrats be caught napping.
How can any man who, last fall, told the people that there would not be any more drafts, if Lincoln were re-elected, look a voter in the face and ask him to vote the Abolition ticket?

The Abolitionists of this borough, at their nominating meeting, a few nights ago, adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That our (their) water-works are in a disgraceful condition," &c. Bad enough! Call on the apothecary!

Did you ever know a son who, after fattening upon his father's bounty, turned upon the old man and tried to kick him out of house and home? If you did, then you know the character of some men in this town, whom the Democratic party kept from starving, by electing them to office and giving them nice little appointments.

Don't you despise a fellow who is ungrateful? We do. Our "gorge rises" at sight of him. We always imagine we can see him picking the pennies off his dead mother's eyes. "Ingratitude! thou marble-hearted fiend!" The poet could have studied thee, to advantage, in this neck of the woods.

Upon the petition of a majority of the tax-payers of the Borough, the Burgess and Council have laid a tax of $1,000, to complete the Borough fund for the raising of twenty volunteers. The new term of Father Abraham opens promisingly.

Said Henry Clay in 1850: "I want to see no sacked cities—no smoking hamlets—no conquered armies—no desolated plains—no streams of American blood shed by American arms." Shoddy thinks Clay must have been a fool!

ARREST OF AN EDITOR.—P. Gray Meek, Esq., editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, one of the oldest Democratic papers in the State, was arrested and sent to prison somewhere, on some sort of charges, preferred by somebody, somehow, and it is said he is to be tried by some kind of military tribunal. This is another violation of the conscription law. In the name of this gagged and manacled prisoner, as a fellow Democratic editor, we demand that he be handed over to the U. S. Courts for trial as the law provides. We know Mr. Meek well, and though a very young man, we know him to be a fearless and uncompromising friend of the Right, and his imprisonment will only render his work in the cause of Truth the more effective. "The blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church!"

A NUT FOR THE ABOLITION CANDIDATES AT THE SPRING ELECTIONS.—Do you approve of the murder of F. C. Mock, who was shot down in cold blood, on his way home from the election, on the night of the second Tuesday of October last? Your fuglemen here are apologizing for it. What say the Abolition candidates in St. Clair township to this foul murder, committed on account of the teachings and through the machinations of their party leaders?

REMOVED VICTORY BY GEN. SHERIDAN.—It is reported, on the authority of some deserters who arrived within Gen. Grant's lines, a few days ago, that Gen. Sheridan had captured Gen. Early and eighteen hundred prisoners, at Charlottesville, Va. This report is said to have been confirmed, but not having seen the confirmation, we cannot vouch for the correctness of the report. It will do, however, to rejoice over, for a few days.
Important to Everybody. The Commissioners of Internal Revenue have decided that on and after the 1st of February, 1865, persons executing receipts for the delivery of any property must affix a two cent stamp to such receipts and cancel the same, otherwise they will be presented for the penalty of $22, incurred under section 150 of the act of June 30, 1863. Receipts for the delivery of coal, wood, &c. will, it appears, require a stamp hereafter.

"Never Mind, the War Will Soon be Over!"
(IN A GREAT BIG HORN!)

We give below a list of the persons drafted in this county. We are sorry that our advice given to the people in November last, was unheeded. Had an effort been made, at that time, volunteers might have been obtained at $300 bounty, in sufficient numbers to have exempted our county from draft. But, through the false representations of political tricksters, who assured the people that there would be no more drafts, action was delayed until it was too late. All that can be done now, is for those who are drafted to report. If they do not, they will eventually be arrested, whilst other men will be drafted in their stead.

ARRESTED.—About ten o'clock A. M. on the 2d instat, a "pretty little sergeant" with two men, fully armed and equipped, entered the office and arrested the Editor, whom they kept in custody in town until four o'clock P. M., when he was sent under guard to Harrisburg. What his fate will be, of course, no one knows. GRAY MEER is brave enough, however, to submit without cringing to whatever the minions of despotism can inflict. The cause of the arrest no one knows, although it is generally supposed to have been instigated by a certain Captain A. B. Snyder, a long, lank, lank, slab-sided animal inhabiting this borough, who is entirely too brave to work for a livelihood, and decidedly too cowardly to expose himself to danger by going to the front. A communication in the WATCHMAN of a recent date exposed some of the villainy of this same Captain Snyder, therefore the present outrage.—Bellefonte Watchman.

The proposition to strike out the word "white" in the qualifications requisite to become members of the Missouri Legislature, has been defeated in the Constitutional Convention of that State, by a vote of twenty yeas to twenty-eight nays. A proposition to permit colored persons to vote was also lost by twelve yeas to thirty-two nays.

THE WAR.

We have already stated that as late as Monday last no Federal troops from Schofield's camp had been able to march from Wilmington westward towards Georgetown, the direct road to Sherman's camp. Several attempts had been made, but all had been checked by the Confederates. We now have advices as late as Wednesday last, from Layetteville, northwest of Wilmington. This town stands upon the other route to Sherman's camp. No Federal troops had at that time advanced from Wilmington towards Layetteville. In spite of reports from Wilmington, therefore, we cannot see how Sherman and Schofield can have formed a junction. Sherman is fast in the mud between Columbia and Cheraw. The rivers are swollen; the swamps impassable, and he seems unable to move in any direction. The Confederate steamer Chichamauga has been burned on the Cape Fear river, above Wilmington, to prevent her capture. There are curious reports from Wilmington and Washington that Sherman has reached Fayetteville, and that gunboats have been sent up the Cape Fear river to that town. These reports are at least premature. We print this morning an official gazette from Washington, and it says not a word on the subject. There is no cessation in Gen. Grant's preparations for a gigantic expedition from Hatcher's run, on the left of his line. He may be expected to march as soon as the freshets subside, and the roads are fit to bear artillery. Such a movement has become necessary to relieve Sherman; for no Federal troops from the east can get to him, and the Confederate army in his front is strengthening every day. General Sheridan's advance south along the Shenandoah valley began on Monday last.—General Hancock was placed in command of Winchester during Sheridan's absence. We have no news direct from Sheridan, but General Grant telegraphs from City Point that deserters say Charlottesville was captured on Thursday last, 1,800 prisoners, including General Early, being taken. Whether this is true or not cannot yet be decided.—Age.
