WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

LILIAN CRAWFORD PERKINS

Tell you what I like the best
Long about knee-deep in June,
'Bout the time strawberries melts,
On the vine some afternoon,
Like to jest go out and rest,
And not work at nothin' else.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

Young Artist Recital

John Knowles Weaver will present a group of artist pupils in recital at Kendall college, Friday evening May 7, at 8:15 o'clock. The program will be rendered by piano seniors and postgraduate students of 1920 and students who have won prizes in the piano department during the past several years.

Bridge Club

Mrs. Chester B. Elliott was hostess to the C. A. Bridge club at the Tea Cup inn Monday afternoon. The afternoon was devoted to auction in which Mrs. H. Hatter won high score, Mrs. J. E. McIntosh low score. A color scheme of pink was carried out in a delightful salad course which was served at the conclusion of the games.

Rommel-Macken

Miss Alice Macken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Macken of 120 North Nogales street, was married last Wednesday, April 28, Washington, D. C., to Lieut. Albert Rommel of the Signal corps, photographic section, U. S. A. The marriage occurred in the Holy Comforter church, and with high nuptial mass by Rev. J. E. Dillon. Lieutenant and Mrs. Rommel will reside in Los Angeles after their honeymoon trip to Chicago, Minneapolis and San Francisco. The bride formerly resided here and was associated with the postoffice department and also taught in the county schools.

Woman's Club

Mme. Henrietta Clopath and Miss Alma R. McGlenn were hostesses Monday to the Woman's club at the regular meeting. "Favorite Artists" formed an interesting topic for a response to roll call. Mrs. Yeftich made a talk on Siberian work after which Mme. Clopath talked on "Art Imitates Nature." During the social hour Mrs. W. E. Brown presided at the tea table. The club will hold its annual picnic in two weeks in Owen park.

ADMITS STEALING SHINGLES

Hopkins Fined $100 and Costs After Entering Plea of Petit Larceny

Charged with stealing 23 bundles of shingles, W. H. Hopkins entered a plea of guilty yesterday in district court to the charge of petit larceny and was fined $100 and costs by Judge Cole.

The shingles, stolen in the spring of 1919 from the Corgeshall Lumber company of this city, were valued at $20, but there being some question as to whether they were of this value, the minimum under a grand larceny charge, the lumber company officials were satisfied to allow the county attorney's office to reduce the charge to petit larceny.

Sentenced for Stealing Ring

Pleading guilty to the larceny of two diamond rings valued at $125, Pearl Barnett, a negress, was yesterday sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary by Judge Cole in district court. The woman admitted stealing the jewelry from Ellen Louis, 509 East Easton on April 29.

Sues for $23,342

Damages of $23,342.09 were asked in a suit filed in district court Monday by the Magna Oil & Refining company against the Western Petroleum company, for alleged failure the latter to deliver fuel oil under a contract entered into in July of 1919.

Advises Ordinary Buttermilk for Wrinkles and Enlarged Pores

This Good Looking Young Woman Uses Old Time Recipe of Buttermilk Cream in a new Way—A Gentle Massage With Fingers Before Retiring All That Is Necessary

The old-time application of Buttermilk and Cream to whiten and preserve the skin and remove harsh little wrinkles and ugly sallowness is grandmother's recipe and women throughout the country are again using it to ensure a beautiful complexion and snow-white hands and arms.

Buttermilk, however, is not always obtainable, but a specialist has at last perfected a method of concentrating buttermilk and combining it with a perfect cream, which you can buy in small quantities ready to use at Quaker Drug Store or any first class drug store by simply asking for "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream.

There is no secret about it nor is there any doubt about the result—it's just common ordinary buttermilk in the form of a wonderful cream, gently massaged with the finger tips around the corners of the eyes and mouth. Howard Bros. Chemical Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.
