Want Budget of $50,000 for Maintenance for Present Year

Forty to 50 team captains appointed in the Y. M. C. A. budget campaign for $50,000 to be held next week are today organizing teams of five to 10 men each. The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday announced the appointment of the following team captains to date:

G. E. Bennett	Max May
Orin E. Hipp	W. M. Hutson
C. R. Blake	Dalton Tallo
O. P. Brown	A. S. Harrison
J. H. Wisner	Shepherd Boys
J. E. Duffield	Orval Woodward
Lee Lanning	J. M. Chandler
E. D. Sparks	E. T. Dickerson
E. F. Brandes	Ralph Wadsworth
Harry L. S. Haller	Everett Manning
John B. Davenport	H. P. Carter
H. E. Jennings	C. L. Meiner
John Rogers	Ike Graves
Otto A. Biewer	Rex C. Palmer
Paul S. Reed	Louis Lerles
A. D. Pickering	Merle Francis
Billy Tyson (Hickey)	R. C. Jones
Edgar Allen	H. H. Hall
H. Wise	Charles Robbins
Howard Meyer	G. L. Chancellor
W. H. McGearing	H. V. Tyson (Hickey)

The first meeting of the team leaders will be held at noon on Thursday in connection with the regular weekly meeting of the board of directors, where detailed plans for the campaign will be discussed by the workers. Friday evening at 6 o'clock all captains and workers will meet at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium for the distribution of cards and final instructions for the work which will begin next Monday.

Everything is in readiness for the annual campaign, said President H. C. Tyrrell of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. Team leaders have responded with enthusiasm and if we are as fortunate in securing the team workers in the next three days we will have a perfect organization to leave the mark next Monday morning. We are just a little behind schedule time we contemplated on account of a desire not to overlap the Young Women's Christian association campaign which has just closed, but by Thursday noon the finishing touches will be put on the organization. The budget for 1921 is considerably less than that of last year and we are confident that if we can secure the workers we will secure the money.

HARDING STILL BUSY ON HIS MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—President Harding's message to the special session of congress, to be delivered in person at 1 p. m. tomorrow, had not been completed tonight and he remained at work on it in his study throughout the evening.

Preparation of the message occupied virtually all the chief executive's attention during the day. As it took form tonight the manuscript covered a long list of questions and threatened to run several newspaper columns in length.

Besides making specific legislative recommendations on various subjects, the message is expected to serve as a broad declaration of administration policy on most of the country's foreign and domestic issues.

In order not to be interrupted, Mr. Harding remained away from his office during the day. He wrote his manuscript in longhand, following a custom he acquired as a newspaper editor, and turned it over to stenographers, several pages at a time, for transcription. At dinner time little more than half of the document had been put in typewritten form.

Burglary Is Charge Against Men Caught in Chase Over Roofs

Ray Clayton, alias Devaul, and Frank Eaties, arrested early Monday morning after a chase in which police officers and merchant police pursued the pair through several buildings between Second and Third street on Main, entered pleas of not guilty at their arraignment on a burglary charge before Justice S. C. Maxey Monday afternoon and were committed to jail under bond of $2,000 each for preliminary hearing April 22. The prisoners are accused of entering the Model Clothing company store, 212 South Main street and attempting to steal about $2,000 worth of goods removed from the shelves. Access to the building was gained through a skylight.

Grant Tucker, merchant police, caught Clayton on the top of the Model building after knocking the glass out of the locked door leading to the roof, and after being shot at by the robber, W. D. Biles, working with Tucker, caught Devaul who had already gone into the store with a partner, and who when he heard the noise on top, broke the glass in the front of the store in an effort to make his escape. He was pursued by Biles, followed east on Third street and north on Boston avenue. He was caught on top of the March hotel at 218 1-2 South Boston avenue.

Tucker and Biles were making an investigation of the building on their rounds, and their suspicions were aroused when they found the door at the head of the stairs in the Model building locked. They broke out the glass with the butts of their revolvers, and it was when Tucker was crawling through the broken glass that he was shot at by the robbers. He returned the fire and went on to the building and sent Biles to the front of the clothing store when he heard the other pair of robbers going out the front way.

TO GRADUATE 240 AT CENTRAL HIGH

Largest Class in History of City Completes the Course Next Month

Dr. Samuel S. Watson, DD, for nine years rector of the American Episcopal church in Paris and now with the University of Chicago, will deliver the commencement address this year to the largest class that Central high has ever graduated. Approximately 240 students, an increase of more than 60 over last year, will receive their diplomas from Central this June.

A precedent for commencement exercises will be set this year when the graduating class holds its exercises Thursday, instead of Friday night as has always been done heretofore, in Convention hall. The first event of commencement week will be Friday, May 20, when seniors having made scholastic records during the four-year period in school will be formally recognized. From 15 to 25 per cent of the class is usually recognized in this way, Merle C. Prunty, principal, said yesterday. The class sermon will be preached Sunday night, May 29, at Convention hall, and Wednesday, June 1, the annual class day exercises will be held at the high school. The closing event of the week will be the farewell assembly the morning of Friday, June 3, when memberships in the T club will be presented. The senior play, which has not yet been selected, will be given two nights, May 26 and 27, under the direction of Miss Isabel Ronan.

Dr. Watson's theme for the commencement address will be "The Master American."

DISTRICT HAS RECORD

Federal Vocational Training Board Says District No. 14 Is Most Satisfactory in Country.

Eleven million dollars is expended each month for the rehabilitation of soldiers by the federal board for vocational education, according to figures brought back by W. B. Disney, Tulsa district supervisor, from a conference of the local supervisors of Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas in Oklahoma City Friday and Saturday. There is a possibility that, after the report of an investigating committee now at work, the federal board, public health service and bureau of war risk insurance will be combined in the interest of economy.

District No. 14 composed of the three states, is performing its work in a manner more satisfactory to the national headquarters than any other district in the country, was the compliment of V. Brunson from the headquarters at Washington repeated by Mr. Disney. There are now 3,294 ex-service men in training in the district, of whom 1,415 are in institutional training and 1,143 in placement or job training. Of the total of 5,360 who have been put into training since the establishment of district 14, 530 have discontinued service, one in every ten has been rehabilitated and 712 transferred to other districts.

A doctor and a nurse will be connected with every office hereafter, it was announced. Attention was called to the new general training school at San Antonio, Texas, where disabled men may be under medical care and take training at the same time. Every local supervisor in the district attended the meeting, with four from the national office.
