A Dublin solution of an arms cache captured a town in the county district under martial law, was reported. A heavy battle is said to have occurred at Ballina, County Mayo, between Sinn Feiners and British forces after several days of bitter fighting.

LONG FIGHT SEEN IN BOUNDARY CASE

admission into the union made no claim, the answer today said. Oklahoma first asserted and attempted to exercise jurisdiction over the land in and around Vinita, January 1, 1915, when a civil field deputy U. S. Marshal sought to arrest a Mr. Hall, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, residing on a portion of said land.

Setting up that the Texas courts had exercised civil and criminal jurisdiction over the land, that the state had policed it and that the United States treaties with the Indian tribes recognized the Texas ownership of the land in controversy, it had become, if it had not always been, a part of the state of Texas.

The Texas answer today contained about eight thousand words, mostly devoted to answering the government's amended petition recently filed by Special Assistant Attorney General John A. Fain.

Texas asserted that the south bank of the river with ordinary flow be fixed as the boundary, pointing out that the extreme bluffs which Oklahoma claims is the boundary are in many instances six miles from the ordinary channel of the stream.

Navigable Stream, Contention.

The Texas answer also made it certain that Texas will contend to the last that the Red river was a navigable stream at the time of the treaty of 1819 and that Texas, when it won its independence, came into all the privileges held by Spain at the time and is therefore entitled to use the waters of Red river, which it cannot do if the Oklahoma claim is upheld and that to uphold the Oklahoma claim would amount to bad faith on the part of the United States.

A conference between Oklahoma and Texas attorneys and Supreme Court Justices Vandeventer and Hitchcock will be held within a few days to decide on further procedure.

Attorney General Corwin, who has been ill since arriving here last week is recovering.

BOARD TO SPAVINAW

Non-partisan Water Commission Will Make Inspection Saturday; Water Bonds Will Be Sold.

Another visit to the non-partisan water commission to Spavinaw creek is to be made Saturday, it was decided after the meeting of the board Monday afternoon. The trip is to be made for further inspection of the proposed source of water supply for Tulsa.

The board officially accepted the 12,000,000 gallon water pump which was installed recently at the waterworks pump station. The pump is now in operation.

W. H. Hulsey, consulting engineer for the water department, is now preparing plans for the proposed filter extensions at the pump station and is to present them at the next meeting of the commission.

Negotiations are now in progress for the sale of $225,000 worth of water bonds which were voted at the bond election held a few weeks ago. Of this amount, $75,000 is to be used for starting an aqueduct survey of the Spavinaw project so the cost may be definitely determined.

J. J. Loughlin, chief clerk of the Pennsylvania system, appointed May 15 to remain in charge of the Tulsa office, has arrived here from Philadelphia, where he has been working since the beginning of the year as one of the general freight department. Mr. Loughlin was formerly of Tulsa and Muskogee.

IF YOUR EARS RING WITH HEAD NOISES

If you have roaring, buzzing noises in your ears, are getting hard of hearing and fear chronic deafness, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parmint (double strength). Add to it one pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will, in most cases, give relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing easy, and the nose should be free from mucus. It relieves catarrhal troubles of the nose, throat and tubes. Anyone who has Catarrhal trouble of the ears, is hard of hearing or has head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Adv.

Ad Club Is Guest of Telephone Company

Geo. F. Dell, local manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone company, is to be host to the Ad club Tuesday. The club last week accepted an invitation from him to eat luncheon at the telephone plant cafeteria, and afterward make a trip of inspection through the building. Similar invitations will be extended to other local civic clubs and organizations by Dell, he said yesterday, so the membership may become more intimately acquainted with the paraphernalia and the human element that is associated with the giving of telephone service.

JAPAN TRADING AGAIN

Want Control of Kamchatka, Offering to Call Off Troops at Vladivostok, Vanderlip Declares.

REVAL, May 23.—Japan has been negotiating with the Moscow soviet for several weeks in an effort to secure control of Kamchatka, and has even offered to withdraw Japanese troops from Vladivostok as a price for the concession, according to a statement made here today by Washington B. Vanderlip of Los Angeles, Cal., head of the American syndicate which has secured rich commercial concessions in Russia. Mr. Vanderlip said this information had been given to him by George Tchitcherin, commissar for foreign affairs of the bolshevik government at Moscow. The soviet, according to this informant, rebuffed the Japanese overtures.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and destroy every single germ and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and disease of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Adv.

MOONEY IS FREE FOR SHORT TIME

Is Taken From San Quentin Prison to Frisco for Court Case

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23.—For a second time within a few weeks, Tom Mooney, labor agitator under sentence of life imprisonment for the preparedness day bombing, received a brief respite from the adversity of prison walls and bars.

He was brought from San Quentin today on a writ of habeas corpus issued by the supreme court of California, and was released on his own recognizance until the court can hear his case, which has been set for June 6.

Mooney's release was granted on the ground that the state had failed to produce the evidence against him at his trial, it was stated.

This will give the labor people and prisoner's friends time to rally in support of the case, it was said.

Further efforts to vindicate the man for Mooney through presentation of affidavits from a score of witnesses who were unknown at the time of the original trial and the affidavit of an eyewitness to the bombing corroborating the alibi made by Mooney at the time of the trial that he was on the east side of the building across from the scene of the explosion at the time of the explosion, it was said.

Mooney's faithful wife and other relatives were on hand to greet him when he arrived from San Quentin in charge of deputy sheriffs.
