INDIANS WERE LEADING, 8-7 WHEN DALY FORFEITED GAME

It was the holiday game on the afternoon of May 30, Decoration day, that Umpire Daly forfeited to Tulsa. The forfeiture came in the sixth inning when, with Oklahoma City leading 8-7 and Tulsa at bat with two on bases and one out and three balls and no strikes on the batter, when an altercation arose between Umpire Daly and Pitcher Mitchell of Oklahoma City. The pitcher's request for a new ball, based on the claim that the one in play was rough, was turned down. Mitchell was ordered from the field and Manager Breen of the visitors interceded. Breen and the umpire had words and when the Indians manager failed to have a new pitcher in the box in the time fixed by Umpire Daly, the game was forfeited.

Dempsey Battles Leo Houck

This photograph gives an excellent idea of the famous Dempsey attack. The champion is shown pounding the midsection of Leo Houck, sparring partner. The latter, cornered, is unable to protect himself from the punishing body blows of the champion. The photograph was made at Dempsey's training quarters, Atlantic City, N. J.

Todt Hits Safely 18 Games In Row for Average of .468 Since Return to the Line-up

St. Louis Youngster Benched for Slump Early in Season Sets Terrific Pace With Warclub; Probably Through With Bench-Warming Now.

It begins now to look like the respective managers of the St. Louis Cardinals and the St. Louis Browns knew what they were doing when they put up such a hard fight over Phil Todt, the one-time phenom of the St. Louis city league and now clean-up hitter for the Oilers.

Fandom will recall that Todt's case was the first passed on by Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the supreme commissioner of baseball, who awarded the regular boy-slugger to the Browns last winter. Todt had the reputation of being a combination left hand pitcher and fence buster on the Browns management, feeling that the youngsters potential strength was in his ability to clout the ball more than to twist it over the plate, sent him to Tulsa for a year in lieu of season-long.

Developing an acute and persistent stomach ailment after his arrival in Tulsa, Todt was benched a couple of weeks after the season opened. And there he sat, warming a seat among the pickets until May 21, when Vern Davis, our regular Oiler right-fielder was laid down with illness. Suffice it to say that the team has not felt the loss of Davis, reliable clean-up batter that Vann is.

Now He Has Batting Streak.

Beginning Monday's game with Wichita Todt has been in the line-up for 18 games since his return.

He has gone to bat in 77 times at bat, an average of two for the game, for a batting percentage of .468.

He has crossed the plate 18 times himself, an average of once each game.

His batting has been directly responsible for several games won, and he has contributed to the winning of others.

In addition, he has fielded perfectly.

During the 18 day period Todt's best run came in the eight days from May [illegible] to June 3, inclusive, when in nine games he made 21 hits in 23 times at bat for a percentage of .913.

His hits are usually of the low, crashing sponge that makes the opposing pitcher feel nervous and brings the fans to their feet with a cheer.

There's one thing sure, Phil's not due to take up any space on the bench for some time to come.

His record since getting back in the game:

Georges Runs Down a Rabbit After Chase Through Bushes

Jack Has Frenchman Bested Here, With Three Police Dogs and a Bull Pup, and Won't Have to Capture Hares Himself; Champ Takes a Hot Workout.

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 7.—Georges Carpentier engaged in a game of tag with a wild rabbit today and won.

Off to an early start to the woods this morning with his sparring partner, the challenger climbed a few trees, then started across country in search of new sports. He jumped a rabbit, gave a polo battle cry and started in pursuit.

Across fields and through briar patches the rabbit led him. It doubled and started into the woods and Georges pounced upon it. Picking it up by the ears, he said: "That was a good workout; I will be just as elusive as you on July 2."

This afternoon Carpentier spent an hour in the gymnasium, shadow boxing, rope jumping and bag punching. Carpentier believes he is in better condition for a championship battle than at any time in his career.

"I could be ready for Dempsey in a week," he said.
