Police Quell Fight In Quebec Walkout

QUEBEC, Canada, June 27.—Troopers broke up a fresh riot today in the strike of city police and firemen over a wage dispute and a mob attempted to march upon the city hall, but was dispersed.

A crowd, which gathered to inform a deputation sent out from the town hall of the city to assure the city hall. The royal, loyalty and patriotism of soldiers which is flooding the city, was hastily called from the barracks. The mob took refuge at the approaching soldiers and fled.

An attack was made upon a police station but the rioters were quickly driven off.

'Get-Acquainted' Talks Before New Civic Club

In taking suggestions made to the speaker at its regular weekly luncheon Monday, the Civitan club has decided to have one of its members make a talk each week about his own particular line of business. In accordance with this policy a program will be mapped out immediately for the next few weeks and the speakers informed of the dates assigned them for speaking.

Congratulations and congratulations of business concerns and industries for the making of a real town was the theme for the talk made before the club by R. C. Chambers, Tulsa attorney. It was Chambers' suggestion upon which the club acting in regard to the program for its luncheons this summer.

Baby Elk Is Born.

Special to The World

PONCA CITY, June 27.—A baby elk spotted and about the size of a grown sheep, was born yesterday on the 101 ranch here, the first arrival since the success of an elk herd was established on the ranch about a year ago. The mother is one of the original ones at the ranch and weights between 700 and 800 pounds. This is the first elk to be born in captivity in this state, although in former years there were many of the animals in this country. The stork has been busy among the buffalo at the ranch, numerous calves having been born this season.

TRAPP SUES FOR MONEY ADVANCED

Cash Wanted by Lieutenant Governor; Cafe Is Robbed of Money

SAPULPA, Okla., June 27.—Jim Scott was seriously and painfully injured yesterday afternoon when a pistol he was handling accidentally went off and one of the bullets went through his left leg between the knee and the ankle. He was taken to the Sapulpa hospital.

M. E. Trapp has filed suit against the county commissioners of Creek county for the sum of $3,257.63. He states that at the request of the defendants he furnished supplies and materials for the issuance of $1,000,000 road bonds. He also states that he presented the bill for this sum when it was due and that it has not been paid.

The class in song leadership under the direction of H. H. Schaefer, community service organizer, will begin this evening at 8 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. club rooms. This is only one of the many things that community service is endeavoring to do. In this class will be representatives from the clubs and civic organizations of the city. Three men and women will be trained for song leaders and when this course is finished they will be able to lead the singing in their organization.

Sunday schools in the city were very well attended yesterday morning. Those that reported are as follows: Christian, 236; Presbyterian, 226; South Methodist, 269; First Baptist, 360; First Methodist, 235; Forest Park Baptist Mission, 101; Second Baptist, 101. Total 1,468.

The Liberty cafe on Dewey street was robbed of $60 last night. A man entered the cafe, sat down on one of the stools and told the waiter he wanted a cup of coffee. When the waiter went to the rear to get the coffee, the man opened the drawer of the cash register and took all the money in it, which amounted to $60. The waiter saw the man with the money just as he went out of the door. He pursued him, but the man disappeared down an alley. No arrests have yet been made.

In spite of the rain this morning, about 15 cars loaded with Sapulpa boosters started on their booster trip. The Sapulpa band was in the forward cars. Boy Scouts went along to aid in distributing advertising matter.

Editor in a Hospital.

FAIRLAND, June 27.—The editor of the Fairland News-Herald, John T. Newport, recently underwent an operation for ulcer of the stomach at St. Luke's hospital in St. Louis. A brief note received from him imparts the information that he is getting along nicely and that he hopes to be able to leave the hospital by the first of the coming month.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED

Three Tulsa Producers Named by Court to Reorganize Gilliland Oil Co., Stockholders Kick.

Charging mismanagement of the affairs of the Gilliland Oil company, in which the transfer of properties valued at $6,000,000 to the Foster Oil company by John W. Gilliland, president of the Gilliland company, is set out as a specific interest, petition asking a receiver was filed in district court Monday by the Liberty Central Trust company of St. Louis, Edward Cornell, Casimir I. Straley, Andrew V. Stout, and Herbert V. Southers. Judge Valjean Biddison before whom the case was brought appointed F. J. Hurley, Waite Phillips and John H. Markham, Jr., as receivers for the company.

The petition sets out that Gilliland, as majority stockholder, controls the company and that Texas properties of the Gilliland company were sold to the Foster company for less than one-half their [illegible] thereby prejudicing the rights of other stockholders.
