SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

Grand Ratification Meeting!

BEDEFORD COUNTY AROUSED!

Unbounded Enthusiasm!

Last Thursday the nomination for President and Vice President of the United States was made in New York. The spontaneous endorsement, by the people of the platform and nominees, is truly wonderful. From Maine to California the shout of the multitude rent the air.

Section 2.—That no person shall make, build or construct, any blind, screen, or cover, within said county, either for himself, or other person, or take advantage of any blind, screen, or cover, which is, or may hereafter be, constructed, expressly for the purpose, and with the intention, of shooting wild turkey therefrom, or shall entice and allure by repeated calling, to a particular place, for the purpose of luring in concealment and killing, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 3.—That no person shall shoot, or otherwise catch, or destroy, any game birds, squirrels, or wild turkeys, within said county, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of October; nor shall any person trap, pen, or snare, any wild turkey, or moose, the nest thereof, or build any pen, or set any trap, or snare, with the intention of catching any wild turkey, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 4.—That the possession, by any person, of any wild turkey, or squirrel, killed out of the season allowed thereof by this act, shall be prima facie evidence to convict, under this act.

Section 5.—That any person offending against any of the provisions of this act, and being thereof convicted, by the testimony of one, or more, witnesses, or the confession of the party, before any justice of the peace in said county, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the penalty, or penalties, attached to the same, one-half to the complainant, and the other half to the use of the informer; and if the offender shall refuse to pay the said penalty, or penalties, he shall be committed by the justice, to the county jail, for the space of one day, for each and every dollar of the penalty imposed upon him according to this act.

Section 6.—That for the purpose of further protecting game and insectivorous birds, whenever any person, after the passage of this act, has killed any fox, wild cat, pole cat, mink, or owl, within said county, he shall be held to the case of a fox, or wild cat, or pole cat, or owl, and in the case of a hawk, or owl, and the seal and the exact measure, from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, before any justice of the peace in said county, it shall be the duty of said justice to examine such person, on oath, or affirmation, touching the time when, and the place where, such fox, wild cat, pole cat, hawk, or owl, was killed; and if the same shall be found to have been within said county, it shall be the duty of the said justice to give an order to the treasurer of said county, for the sum of two dollars for each and every scalp of a full grown fox, or wild cat, and for the sum of one dollar for each and every scalp of a fox, or wild cat, less than full grown, and every hawk, or owl, exceeding three feet in length, and every hawk, or owl, less than three feet from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, and the sum of fifty cents for each and every pole cat, and each and every hawk, or owl, less than three feet from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to pay the amount of such order.

Section 7.—That the constable of each respective township and borough in said county, having knowledge of any offence against this act, shall inform any justice of the peace in said county, of the name of any person, or persons, who may be tried agreeably to the provisions of this act, under a penalty of ten dollars, to be sued for and appropriated, as other penalties mentioned in this act are directed to be sued for and appropriated.

Section 8.—That any act, or acts, or part of any act, or acts, conflicting with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

GAME LAW.—Considerable difference of opinion having prevailed among our people as to the character of the game law passed by the last legislature for this county, we have made application at the Executive office, at Harrisburg, for information upon the subject. Through the kindness of B. F. Chandler, Esq., of the Executive department, we are enabled to lay before our readers, the only law in regard to game that was passed last winter, for this county. It is an act extending the provisions of the following act to the counties of Bedford and Fulton, and, as will be seen, applies to wild turkeys and squirrels:

AN ACT for the protection of wild turkeys and squirrels, and for other purposes, in the county of Huntington. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot any wild turkey, within the county of Huntington, in said Commonwealth, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of October; nor shall any person trap, pen, or snare, any wild turkey, or moose, the nest thereof, or build any pen, or set any trap, or snare, with the intention of catching any wild turkey, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars, with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 2.—That no person shall make, build or construct, any blind, screen, or cover, within said county, either for himself, or other person, or take advantage of any blind, screen, or cover, which is, or may hereafter be, constructed, expressly for the purpose, and with the intention, of shooting wild turkey therefrom, or shall entice and allure by repeated calling, to a particular place, for the purpose of luring in concealment and killing, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 3.—That no person shall shoot, or otherwise catch, or destroy, any game birds, squirrels, or wild turkeys, within said county, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of October; nor shall any person trap, pen, or snare, any wild turkey, or moose, the nest thereof, or build any pen, or set any trap, or snare, with the intention of catching any wild turkey, at any season of the year, under a penalty of ten dollars with costs of prosecution, for each and every offence.

Section 4.—That the possession, by any person, of any wild turkey, or squirrel, killed out of the season allowed thereof by this act, shall be prima facie evidence to convict, under this act.

Section 5.—That any person offending against any of the provisions of this act, and being thereof convicted, by the testimony of one, or more, witnesses, or the confession of the party, before any justice of the peace in said county, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the penalty, or penalties, attached to the same, one-half to the complainant, and the other half to the use of the informer; and if the offender shall refuse to pay the said penalty, or penalties, he shall be committed by the justice, to the county jail, for the space of one day, for each and every dollar of the penalty imposed upon him according to this act.

Section 6.—That for the purpose of further protecting game and insectivorous birds, whenever any person, after the passage of this act, has killed any fox, wild cat, pole cat, mink, or owl, within said county, he shall be held to the case of a fox, or wild cat, or pole cat, or owl, and in the case of a hawk, or owl, and the seal and the exact measure, from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, before any justice of the peace in said county, it shall be the duty of said justice to examine such person, on oath, or affirmation, touching the time when, and the place where, such fox, wild cat, pole cat, hawk, or owl, was killed; and if the same shall be found to have been within said county, it shall be the duty of the said justice to give an order to the treasurer of said county, for the sum of two dollars for each and every scalp of a full grown fox, or wild cat, and for the sum of one dollar for each and every scalp of a fox, or wild cat, less than full grown, and every hawk, or owl, exceeding three feet in length, and every hawk, or owl, less than three feet from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, and the sum of fifty cents for each and every pole cat, and each and every hawk, or owl, less than three feet from the extremity of one wing to the extremity of the other, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to pay the amount of such order.

Section 7.—That the constable of each respective township and borough in said county, having knowledge of any offence against this act, shall inform any justice of the peace in said county, of the name of any person, or persons, who may be tried agreeably to the provisions of this act, under a penalty of ten dollars, to be sued for and appropriated, as other penalties mentioned in this act are directed to be sued for and appropriated.

Section 8.—That any act, or acts, or part of any act, or acts, conflicting with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

MELANCHOLY SUICIDE.—We are pained to learn that on last Wednesday, the 8th inst., in the town of Woodbury, Miss Maggie Stover, aged 21 years, an exemplary and highly esteemed young lady, committed suicide by hanging. Our space will not permit the publication of the whole of our correspondent's version of this sad affair, which he says he has been requested to write us, to prevent erroneous reports. He says: "On the morning in question, she arose early, prepared the breakfast for her brother, did up the morning work neatly, as usual, and immediately afterward, went to the stable and committed the deed. She had been suffering from an indisposition for some time and was much depressed in spirit. None stood higher in society, or was more beloved than Maggie. She had no faults, was kind to all, and obedient to her parents. Her disposition was such as to make her a favorite with all with whom she came in contact. She left the following letter, which I give you verbatim:—

WOODBURY, July 9, 1868. DEAR MOTHER: I cause you trouble this morning, but I have come to the conclusion not to trouble you any more. Dear Mother, pardon me for what I have done. Dear Mother, do as you wish with my clothes, for I will not need them anymore. Father, don't take it hard for I am in a deep study. Brother Christ, hope God may be with you now and forever. People are getting down on me. May God ever be with you all now and forever more. May God be with the unknown friend. No more, but remain your true friend, MAGGIE, TO HER MOTHER. My love to Jennie N., Mary and Clara Lee. Good bye, mother, don't forget MAGGIE. The sentences are very much disjointed, and show great suffering of mind. Her remains were attended to the grave by a large concourse of our citizens, all eager to do homage to all that remained of poor Maggie. Her untimely death has cast a deep gloom upon our entire community. The bereaved friends have the sympathy of all. May God bless and comfort them in their deep affliction!"

WHAT WILL YOU HAVE TO DRINK.—Different people, in different places have different ways of expressing the same thing. For example, in Montana, when a man asks you to drink, he says: "Let's try some of the molten lead and brimstone." In Idaho, "Let's have a little extract Kansas." In Arizona, "Let's take a scalp." At Sacramento, "Let's reduce the flood." About the Mud Volcanoes on the Humboldt it's "Suppose we blaze?" At Fort Churchill they say, "Let's inoculate with the measles," and everybody is inoculated there. In Berlin, Somerset county, "Will you have the Manuel?" At Chicago, "Nominate your poison," and they pour it down and are poisoned. And in Bedford, thusly, "Let's mix," and verily they mixeth and get "mixed."

STORM.—On last Tuesday week, Bedford was visited by the most severe storm of rain and hail that we have ever seen. It raged with unabated fury for about two hours. Shade trees were torn up by the roots, and along the Juniata large sycamores were twisted off like saplings. Bedford street looked navigable, and at one time the low parts of town were threatened with more irrigation than is thought necessary to assist growing vegetation.

IN TOWN.—Col. J. H. Filler is in town on a short visit to his friends.—It is needless to say that the Colonel heartily endorses the New York nominees, and has no doubt of their triumphant election. During his stay he will address the Democracy, notice whereof will be given. May his shadow never grow less!

REMEMBER, that at the Regulator's, No. 2, Anderson's Row, (H. F. Irvine, proprietor), you can get the best makes of boots, shoes, gaiters, balmorals, slippers, &c., for ladies and gentlemen, misses and children.

TRY IT.—If our nominees for county officers are "wooden men" the Rads are not able to raise power enough to knock them off their "pins." Try it on!

THE Rads say that Grant will be elected beyond a doubt. We won't take that for Granted, but they'll Seymour about it after a while.

FINE SEGARS.—Where can I get a good segar at a moderate price, is a question often asked. We would say to all at G. R. Oster's new store. They have the best assortment of segars and chewing tobaccos in town.
