NEITHER SOONERS NOR AGGIES ON U. T. GRID SCHEDULE

Open Season Here October 1, Play Phillips on Turkey Day

Meet Texas Christian and Haskell Indians in Hard Out-of-State Games

BRYAN TO LEAD TEAM

Coach Schmidt Admits It's Too Early to Talk Football But Has High Hopes

Coach Francis Schmidt's University of Tulsa football team will meet neither the Oklahoma university nor the Oklahoma Aggies this season, according to the 1921 U. of T. football schedule announced yesterday.

This schedule, however, is a favorable one so far as local football enthusiasts go, as the opening game will be played here on October 1 when the Ada normalites will furnish the opposition to Schmidt's warriors and the closing game will be here on Thanksgiving day when Phillips university of Enid will appear in the city of oil money. The latter game could be the most important on the schedule and may settle the championship of the state unless the Aggies have in store much more formidable teams than last year.

The schedule as announced yesterday by Coach Schmidt follows:

October 1—Ada normal at Tulsa.

October 8—Chilocco Indians at Tulsa.

October 15—Alva Rangers at Tulsa.

October 21—Texas Christian university at Fort Worth.

October 28—Haskell Indians at Kansas City, Mo.

November 4—Oklahoma Baptist university at Shawnee.

November 11—(Armistice Day) Central Normal at Tulsa.

November 18—Kingfisher college at Tulsa.

November 24—(Thanksgiving day) Phillips university at Tulsa.

Harry Brian, all-state left half-back last year, will lead the University of Tulsa warriors in the coming season, and indications are now that he will have a strong team. Coach Schmidt declared it was entirely too early to talk football much yet, but he admitted he had high hopes of turning out at least a normally strong team.

American League Features

Manager Tris Speaker of the world champion Indians tops the hitters with a percentage of .415. Babe Ruth of the Yankees has scored the most tallies, 84, and is the leading homer-an hitter with 31 to his credit. John Tobin of the Browns has poled the most hits, 121, and his teammate, George Sisler, shows the way with 18 stolen bases. Al Schacht of the Senators, with five wins and one loss, is the leading hurler.

Joe Judge of the Senators was hulled in seven games on July 6 after a fine scoring streak. Joe pounded out 12 hits in 30 trips for .333.

A comparison of last year and of this season will show how many home runs have been made, including the July 8 games, of this year and same date last year as follows:

Frank O'Rourke of the Senators got to Bob Hasty of the Athletics on July 1 after seven games of safe hitting. He got 12 hits in 24 trips for an average of .417.

George Sisler of the Browns on July 1 was stopped by Ed Twombley of the White Sox. George had hit safe in seven games for .375.

Del Pratt of the Red Sox was halted after hitting safe in nine games by Ray Collins of the Yankees on July 2. Del had punched out 13 hits in 34 tries for an average of .382.

Manager Tris Speaker of the world champion Indians had scored seven runs in five straight games when the Tigers stopped him July 2.

Carl Mays, the Yankee twirler, has turned in five consecutive pitching victories.

Harry Heilman, the slugging Tiger, quit on July 2 to a trio of Indian twirlers after a streak of safe hitting which lasted eight games. Harry punched out 16 hits in 33 tries for a percentage of .485. This is his third streak of safe swatting, having had one of 16 games and one of 23 games which has only been equaled by Sam Rice of the Senators. In the same game he brought a run-scoring streak to an end, having scored 10 runs in eight games straight when the Indians stopped him.

Kenneth Williams quit to Urban Faber on July 3, after hitting safe in eight games pounded out 15 hits in 29 tries for .517.

An odd feature in the Johnson circuit on July 4 was that each club won both games they played with their opponents.

Eddie Foster of the Red Sox was stopped by Zachary of the Senators after seven games of hitting. Eddie got 11 hits in 25 tries for .440.

Leslie Nunamaker of the Indians had carried a hitting streak of 4 games straight when a trio of White Sox hurlers stopped him. He bagged 25 hits in 52 tries for a percentage of .481.

Bob Veach of the Tigers quit to Palmero of the Browns on July 5 after a hitting streak of 13 games, in which he poled out 27 hits in 56 tries for an average of .482. Bob had two other streaks of safe hitting this season, one of 11 games and the other of 15.

Bryan Harris of the Athletics is on a winning streak, as he has turned in his sixth consecutive win.

The following players have each made four hits in a game since last compiling: Shanks, Mullinix, Tobin, Witt, Pekes and Johnston. Joe Sewell of the Indians and Kenneth Williams of the Browns scored four runs in a game.

Clyde Milan of the Senators on July 3 banged out five hits in a game. He was the fifth player to turn the trick so far this season.

Chick Fewster of the Yankees was stopped by Allan Russell, the Red Sox twirler, after his eight-game streak of hitting for .364. Chick banged out 12 hits in 33 tries.

Ben Karr of the Red Sox on July 2 stopped two Yankees on hitting streaks, Aaron Ward hit for .421 in six games and Walter Pipp in the same number of games and hit for .350.

National League Features

Rogers Hornsby of the Cardinals tops the hitters with a percentage of .328 and has made the most hits, 172. Dave Bancroft of the Giants leads the run scorers with 62 tallies. George Kelly of the Giants and Emil Meusel of the Phillies are in a tie with 12 home runs each and Max Carey of the Pirates shows the way along the base paths with 23 stolen bases. Charles Glazner of the Pirates leads the hurlers with seven wins and one defeat for a pitching percentage of .875.

Max Carey was stopped July 6 by a trio of Cardinal hurlers after hitting safe in eight games. Max pounded out 14 hits in 30 tries for .467 average.

Curon Richey of the Pirates is on an unbroken batting streak to date of 22 games, the longest in the league circuit. During this hitting streak he has hit all kinds of pitching, selling 44 hits in 97 tries for a percentage of .454 and scored 13 tallies. Charles Grimm, his teammate, is running him a close second as he has an unbroken streak of 19 games, poling out 28 hits in 71 tries for an average of .394.

Emil Meusel was halted on July 5 by John Watson of the Phillies after a hitting streak that endured for 10 consecutive games in which he poled out 22 hits in 42 trials for a percentage of .512. This is Meusel's third consecutive hitting streak, he having one of 18 and 11 games respectively.

Hallah Grimes of the Robins turned in his seventh consecutive victory when he beat the Giants on July 8, and is only one behind the best mark set by Wilbur Cooper of the Pirates, who ran his string of victories to eight straight before he was defeated.

The following players each got four hits in a game: Smith of the Cardinals, Johnston, Kelly, Flack, Kilduff, Nicholson and Cutshaw.

Walton Cruise also quit to Ring after six games of safe swatting. He pounded out 11 hits in 19 trials for .579.

Frank Frisch of the Giants, after ending the longest run-scoring streak of the year, was stopped by the Braves on July 3. Frank scored 26 runs in 14 consecutive games. George Burns, his teammate, has the record of 17 runs in 13 games. Frank heated him.

George Kelly of the Giants, after hitting all kinds of pitching, was stopped by Hugh McQuillan on July 2 after 17 consecutive games of safe ... during in which long George got 23 hits in 64 tries for an average of .359. This makes the second longest streak of the year, for George has had a previous one of 18 games.

Jackie Maranville of the Pirates ended Jim Ferrick of the Cardinals on July 4, after batting them safely in 14 games straight in which the Pirate poled 25 safe blows in 58 trials, a percentage of .431.

Jimmy Johnston of the Robins was stopped by Rosie Ryan of the Giants on July 4. After hitting safe in six games he got nine hits in 25 tries for an average of .360.

Jack Fournier of the Robins was halted by Ryan, after hitting in 8 games safely, getting 14 hits in 24 trials, for .583.

Giant Catcher Whips Booze Sleuth Who Wanted in Lockers

NEW YORK, July 9.—A police detective who attempted to search the private lockers of the New York Giants at the Polo grounds for liquor yesterday had his curiosity curbed by Earl Smith, catcher of the club.

The players found the detective in their dressing room after morning practice. Several
