OILERS HIT HARD, BEAT SIOUX--OMAHA GOES INTO LEAD

Boehler Goes in, Saves Game As Packers Rally in Seventh

Haugland Goes Great for 6 Rounds, Then Blows; Pruitt Is Wild

BIG BATS ON THE JOB

Davis, Todt, Brannon and Parker Ruin Tesar, Beating Him 9 to 4.

By H. A. BRIDGEWATER

Jack Tesar, the elongated lox star of the Sioux City Packers, failed against the Tulsa Oilers yesterday for the first time this year. The Clymers, smashing under the sting of a series of defeats at the hands of the big Packer righthander, released the floodgates of their resentment against him and gave him a thorough drubbing. They touched him for 15 solid hits, including three doubles and two home runs, and won the opening game of the series by 9 to 4.

At that the Packers threatened to walk off with the ball game in the seventh inning when they jumped on Oscar Haugland, who had blanked them for six innings, and batted him out of the box. The Sioux had pushed in a run and had the bases full and one out and three balls and one strike on Robinson when Haugland was yanked in favor of Lefty Pruitt. Pruitt walked Robinson, scoring Kearns, and sent Tesar across the plate with a wild pitch. He then walked Metz, filling the bases, and Marr sent a sacrifice fly to Davis, scoring Leard. When Manager Metz sent Graham, a right-handed hitter, in to bat for Query, Manager Clymer used strategy against strategy by jerking Pruitt and sending his star righthander, George Boehler, to the firing line. Boehler quelled the rally and held the visitors safe in the next two innings, thus giving the Oilers the jump in the series.

"Wrecking Crew" Gets Busy.

Yank Davis, Phil Todt, Dudley Brannon and Roy Parker were the stellar performers against Tesar for the day. Yank, while getting but one hit, reached first four times in five, being passed his first trip, taking a fast one on the shoulder to second, reaching the bag on a fielder's choice the next time and hitting a home run on his last attempt. Todt collected three singles and was hit once. Brannon got two smashing doubles and sent one line drive over the fence. Parker collected a double and two clean singles.

The pitchers worked much faster than in the last few series here, the heat not being nearly so oppressive. There was a refreshing breeze from the south sweeping the field all during the game, and ball tossers and fans alike enjoyed the afternoon's pastime much more than for the last week.

The Oiler wrecking crew, Davis, Brannon and Todt, took after Tesar in the very first inning after the first two men were out. Davis worked Tesar for a base on balls and Todt was hit in the back. Brannon sent Yank home with a double to the leftfield embankment.

Fifth Big Oiler Inning.

Parker doubled in the second and Todt singled in the third but the Oilers couldn't increase their lead until the fifth when they scored a trio. Erwin opened this session with a lucky bingle through the box and Gleason beat out a roller to deep short. Davis rapped what looked like a sure hit between second and third but Kearns speared the grounder with his bare hand and forced Erwin at third. Todt's infield hit filled the bases. Gleason scored while Kearns was retiring Brannon at first and McGinnis' pinch single sent Davis and Todt across. The Oilers added another in the sixth on Parker's single, a passed ball, an infield out and Erwin's sacrifice fly.

In the seventh came the Packer rally that menaced the five-run lead the Oilers had piled up. Singles by Fox, Kearns and Tesar started it and bases on balls to Leard, Robinson and Metz helped it along, the flurry subsiding as heretofore described when Boehler went to the rescue.

Ice the Game in Eighth.

In the last of the seventh Brannon helped the Oilers along a little by poling a homer with none on and in the eighth the Oiler ice wagon rolled up and the game was put in the well known cooler when a flock of five hits, including a homer by Davis, gave the Oilers their last three runs. With two down and after Davis' homer had wrecked what hopes the Packers had left, Todt started a new rally with a single to right. Brannon shook the centerfield fence with a line double, but Todt was thrown out at the plate, Robinson to Graham.

The same teams play here Tuesday and Wednesday, and then both go north, the Packers to their own lot, where they are to be hosts to the southern clubs, and the Oilers to Des Moines to pen an invasion of the northern half of the circuit.

Grace M. E. Wins Again.

Grace M. E. defeated First M. E. yesterday by the score of 15 to 4 on the Lee stadium grounds. Carnihan, pitcher for First M. E., pitched steady ball and pitched a better game than the score indicates. The large score made by Grace M. E. was due to erratic playing. Price for Grace M. E. was steady at all times with the exception of the third inning when First M. E. got to him for three hits with a hit batter which netted them four runs.

Savoys Finally Beaten.

The strong team of the Savoy cafe was defeated yesterday afternoon for the first time this year when the Holy Family church team trimmed the restaurant squad, 7 to 4. The game, which was played at Sand Springs, was a hard fought battle all the way.

Thanks, Boehler

Dundee Outpoints Chaney.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Johnny Dundee, New York, outpointed George Chaney, Baltimore, in eight rounds of fast fighting tonight. The New York boxer had the better of every round. Both weighed in at 134 pounds. Willie Jackson, New York, gave Jimmy Hanson of Denver, a bad beating in the window. The fight was fast, but one sided.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Cincinnati took both ends of a double-header from Philadelphia today by the same score, 9 to 5. Peter Donahue, a recruit from Christian Brothers college, Texas, received Marquard in the first inning of the first game after the Phillies had scored four runs and held the locals to four scattered hits for the remaining eight and two-thirds innings. Eller was the winning pitcher in the second game though he was taken out of the box in the seventh inning when the Phillies staged a brief rally. Peters, the recruit catcher, who won the second game on Saturday with a home run, had another circuit drive today in the second game.

Notes of the Game

By "BRIDGE"

Wray Query was given a nice hand when he came to bat for Sioux City in the second inning yesterday. Query is being used behind the bat every day by Manager Metz except when a lefthander is on the mound for the opposing team. Evidently the change in uniform has done Query good, for he takes a much nicer cut at the ball than he did for the Chicks, and seems to have a lot more life while receiving.

Manager Clymer didn't send Spellman, who was secured from Sioux City for Query, in to catch against his old teammates. John Heving is going so good right now that Clymer wants to let him do the bulk of the backstopping.

Spellman, prior to coming to Tulsa, caught nearly every game for Sioux City this year. Since joining the Oilers he is getting a much-needed rest.

Spellman has been called on to take part in a game just once, appearing in the role of pinch hitter Sunday. He drew a base on balls that trip.

That was a mighty pleasant feeling experienced yesterday by the fans when George Boehler went in to save the game which appeared to be fast slipping out of the Oilers' clutches in the seventh inning when the Packers scored all four of their runs. George certainly had the Sioux City batsmen wrenching their backs at his curves and shoots in the 2 1-3 innings he worked.

Young "Lefty" Pruitt appeared to have a lot of stuff on the ball, but the pinch seemed too tight for him. But Lefty looks like a mighty sweet southpaw at that and our money is on him when he starts his next game for the Clymers.

Oscar Haugland was absolutely invincible for the first six innings and it looked as if he might add another shutout, but the Sioux solved him in the seventh. Prior to the fatal seventh he never was in trouble but once, in the fourth when two hits and an error to start the inning put men on second and third with none out. Tight pitching and tight defense by McGinnis and Gleason saved the day.

Graham, who went into catch for Sioux City after batting for Query in the seventh, had the liveliest line of gab that any backstop has uncorked here this season. The fans kidded Graham for his noisy chatter, but at that they liked the pepperbox stuff and if a home catcher had been pulling it they would have thought it great.

Dudley Brannon certainly had his eye on the ball. He hit a double to the left field embankment in the first, cracked a line homerun over the right field fence in the seventh and shook the boards in right center in the ninth with a whistling two-bagger. His hit in the ninth was the hardest hit ball of the day and would have been a cinch homerun had the fence not been there to stop the pellet in its flight.

Speaking of batting and batters, the Oiler wrecking crew—Davis, Todt and Brannon—will bear watching. It's a mighty tough combination for any righthanded pitcher to face, and in the last week has been just as troublesome to lefthanders. Davis, Todt and Brannon are due to cause pitchers a lot of grief on the Oiler road trip to start this week, unless we're greatly mistaken.

Roy Parker seems a greatly improved hitter since recovering from his recent illness. Saturday Parker got two of the Oilers' four hits. He got a bingle Sunday and yesterday he got three out of four, one of them a double against the centerfield fence and the other two clean singles.

Gleason and McGinnis are working like clockwork in the infield. A ball hit through the Oiler infield now has to be a real hit to get by.

Only one error was chalked up against the Oilers. Yank Davis mussed up a ground ball in right, letting Wray Query get all the way to second on a single.

The Packers played errorless ball behind Jack Tesar, so he had no alibi.

Ray Richmond ought to beat 'em today. Then Boehler to wind up the home stay with a victory.

Bobby Jones Hangs Up New Mark for Course

WASHINGTON, July 18.—Bobby Jones, the "Boy Wonder" of Atlanta, is today's golf hero.

Bobby is being congratulated on all sides by the stars of golfdom who are gathered here for the open golf championship which starts on the Columbia Country club course here tomorrow.

A new course record is the reason. On Saturday Ford McLeod, who is considered something of a golfer and who plays the Columbia course constantly, turned in a card of 69 for 18 holes, hanging up a new course record. Yesterday Bobby went around the 18 holes just to get the lay of the land. He turned in a card of 68, one stroke below McLeod's new low score record.

"Chick" Evans is the only golf star who has thus far failed to appear for the tournament. Jock Hutchison, Jim Barnes, Emmett French Pat O'Hara, Willie Ogg, George Duncan Abe Mitchell and 200 more of the golf elite are playing over the course, learning its tricks.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—International interest in golf, which was at fever heat during the recent British championships on English and Scottish links, will be renewed tomorrow when several prominent professionals entered from Great Britain and all of the leading American "pros" as well as a few of our best amateur players begin the qualifying round in this year's open championship tournament on the links of the Columbia Country club, Chevy Chase, Md. Last year this event was decided over the course of the Inverness club, Toledo, Ohio, and Edward Ray representing the Oxhey club of England, was the winner with a score of 295 for 72 holes. There were 265 entries last year but this record mark will not be touched so far as entrants go in numbers for the 1921 title as the field may not exceed 220 players.

While Ray has not come to defend his title George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, the British professionals will endeavor to duplicate his victory, while Joe Kir
