FOUR-ROOM house for sale by owner, cheap if sold at once. Inquire of C. F. Hock, Hunter St. Hunter addition.

FREE—$12,000 bungalow, one of the prettiest homes in Tulsa, free to the man who will it just want to give it way to somebody who will make good neighbors. Friend give it to me but I can't stay. Friend don't want it back, too busy to fool with it, says give it to somebody else, just so long as they are good people and make the good neighbors, as he lives next door and must be protected. Could of cashed it in last summer for $12,000, but we don't want the money; don't even want no interest. Rents for $100 per month worth it too. Located right close in, just 5 minutes walk from postoffice, has large size lot, large basement laundry, heating plant, streets all paved, new, two schools. Tell you what I'll do, pay one month rent and move in, stay there 29 months and pay the rent and taxes when due and the place is yours. Remember not even no interest and you couldn't buy the place for one dollar cheaper if you offered all cash. I have quite a lot of equity in the place, but will be easy to deal with. Will take a car or diamonds or most anything you want to give me. Drive by and look it over. 216 N. Frisco. Osage 4598-J.
