Mrs. W. F. Evans of North Smith street Wednesday afternoon entertained the members of the Womens Bible class of the Congregational church.

The small Misses Betty and Helen Briant returned Wednesday night from Tulsa, where they visited their cousins, Elizabeth and Paul Mahaffey.

Henry Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morrison, living southeast of this city, is one of the university graduates at Norman this spring.

Mr. Herbert Hartman, who has been taking a course at Peoria, Ill., in watch making, is back home and at work in the Hartman jewelry store.

Miss Sadie Cass of this city, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cass, and Mr. Owen Witt of Afton were united in marriage Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hassler and son Max, former residents of this city, visited Tuesday at the home of Mrs. S. L. Smith on South Foreman street.

Mrs. Emma Hoskins, Mrs. Jesse Baird and Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed and little daughter motored to Columbus, Kan., Monday to spend Memorial day.

Mr. C. H. Spencer is expected next week for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Willis F. Allen, and family of 328 North Miller street. He comes from Sawtelle, Cal.

Mrs. T. C. Collins and family have been receiving a visit this week from Mrs. L. K. McGuffin of Shreveport, La., and Mrs. W. K. West and little son of Oklahoma City.

Lloyd W. Evans Monday morning returned to Skiatook after a visit with his wife's parents in this city. Mrs. Evans and little daughter remained for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Gardner and Mrs. Bill of Pryor, who were on their way from Oklahoma City to their home in Pryor, visited Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. E. Amos.

Mrs. E. Kapp of Chandler, who has been visiting her son, Mr. M. R. Kapp, and family, left Wednesday for a trip to Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Williams of South Thompson street, returned Wednesday to their home in Locust Grove.

Miss Winna Miller, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Carter, 227 South Gunter street, Wednesday morning returned to her home in Sweet Springs, Mo.

Mrs. James Denton of Tulsa, who came to attend the commencement exercises of Sacred Heart institute, was the guest of Mrs. C. V. Malson. Her daughter accompanied her home.

Miss Marguerite Allen, who graduated this week from Stephens college at Columbia, Mo., was accompanied home Tuesday evening by her father, W. F. Allen, who attended the graduating exercises.

Mrs. H. R. Warner of South Gunter street expects a visit in a few days from her sister, Miss Bertha Purcell of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright Dupree are attending the Northwestern State normal at Alva this summer.

Miss Nellie Hathaway left Wednesday for Bartlesville, where she has taken a position as stenographer with an oil company. Her sister, Mrs. W. J. Noyes, and Miss Lucile Yates motored to Bartlesville with Miss Hathaway and returned Thursday evening.

Mrs. L. D. Butler was leader at the Methodist Missionary society meeting Thursday at the church, those taking part in the program being Mrs. S. S. Williamson, Mrs. James McConnell, Mrs. F. G. Owens, Mrs. C. N. Martin, Mrs. O. V. Holmes and Miss Lilian Stephens.

Thirty members of her Sunday school class were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. F. Evans. An indoor track meet was the principal attraction for the young folks. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lloyd Evans of Skiatook and Mrs. Nettie Grimes of Kansas City.

The regular meeting of Mrs. S. S. Williamson's division of the Methodist Missionary society was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Stephens on South Smith street. After the business session orange ice and wafers were served by Mrs. Frank Haymes and Mrs. Lee Kenrigh. It was Mrs. Stephens' birthday.

Rev. W. O. Leach, former pastor of the Baptist church here, was called to this city from Bristow to conduct the funeral of Mrs. Thomas S. Heady Wednesday. His son Russell accompanied him and they spent Thursday visiting old friends here. Leaving Thursday evening for Adair for a visit of several days with Mr. Leach's brother, Mr. Riley Leach and family.

Miss Louise Dickerson of Chelsea, but for two years teacher in the high school here, was united in marriage Sunday afternoon to Mr. Arthur Newman of Columbia, Mo., Rev. James L. McConnell saying the ceremony. The two met when attending the Williams Wood college at Fulton, Mo., and the acquaintance was renewed again last summer when Miss Dickerson attended the university at Columbia. Mr. Newman is in the hardware business in Columbia. They left immediately after the ceremony for a two weeks' trip to Kansas City, after which they will be at home in Columbia.

HOLDENVILLE.

Miss Neal Templeman of Tulsa is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clark Stanford, this week.

W. R. Scott and wife "week-ended" in Henryetta, guests of J. H. Wise and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Frost left Tuesday for Norman, where they will probably spend the summer.

Mrs. Bertha Crump and daughter Anis of Nowata are the guests of Judge and Mrs. George C. Crump.

Mrs. M. M. Kirksey and daughter Billie June returned to their home in Tulsa Saturday after a week's visit with relatives.

Miss Berry of Norman is a guest of Mrs. Russell Bibly. Mrs. Bibly entertained with bridge Wednesday afternoon in honor of her charming guest.

Miss Anna Rainbolt was called to Little Rock very suddenly last Saturday to attend the sick bed of her sister. Miss Rainbolt is the popular stenographer at the Farmers National bank and her friends here are legion.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Washington spent the first of the week in Tulsa, the guest of Miss Lottie L. Washington. Miss Washington expects to arrive in Holdenville about June 15 to visit with her many friends and relatives and be present at the Washington-Mullens nuptials June 21.

Miss Marian Washington spent the week-end in Norman as the guest of the Alpha Gamma Deltas. She attended the Founders' day celebration banquet, the "Feast of Roses," Sunday. Plates were set for 43. This is an annual celebration and alumni from all parts of the state attend each year.

Miss Grace Molonson was hostess to the members of the Criterion Bridge club Thursday afternoon in her beautiful home on East Eighth. The rooms were decorated throughout with baskets of colorful flowers. After a delightful afternoon of bridge a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess to Mesdames Minnie Shultz, Buttone Bennett, Fleet Bennett, Bill Tucker, Ralph Oliphant, Thomas E. Nox and Tom Horsley of Wewoka.

Miss Eula Roberts was offered the position as a member of the faculty of Southwestern normal at Weatherford this summer. However, Miss Roberts had already decided to complete her university course this summer, so felt impelled to decline the honor. She is a member of Kappa Delta Phi and has been chosen to address this body at its banquet this week at the Slavin hotel. Many of the most prominent men and women of the state are members of this society and will be present, and being as Miss Roberts is the only woman accorded the honor of being invited to address them, Holdenville feels "sorter chesty."

James A. Scott departed Thursday for a four months' trip, presumably to escape the warm weather, but he took his winter clothes. The trip Mr. Scott has planned will certainly be an ideal one. His first stop will be at Amarillo. Then Denver, where he expects to visit with an adopted son he has not seen for 20 years. His next stop will be at Salt Lake City, thence to Portland and Seattle where he will visit with his daughter, Mrs. Bertie McFarland, for several months. He will return via Yellowstone park, Niagara Falls, Long Island, where he will visit a week or so; then he will go to Canada, back to St. Paul, Chicago, Kansas City, then home. In view of the fact that Mr. Scott is almost 80 years young, this is quite a trip for him to undertake alone. The only thing that seemed to mar his trip was the fact he would not be here to exercise his franchise, so he left his proxy with Luther Harrison.

Mrs. Yandell Lain and Mrs. Henry Puckett entertained at bridge Tuesday morning at the home of the former, honoring their house guests, Mrs. J. F. Ausbury of Oklahoma City and Mrs. W. L. Stocker of Stigler. The guests included Mesdames N. V. Bilby, Russell Bilby, Harry Diamond, L. C. Lawson, Charles Orr, F. L. Warren, Bob Howell, W. T. Anglin, Bert Wallace, W. L. Hurgins, Tom Nix, Fleet Bennett, Stephen Campbell, William Smith, W. A. Matthews, Fred Ball, Wylie Ambrose, V. W. Snider, Harry Allen, J. T. Harmon, Roy Grace, Roy Smith, Clark Cordell, Lee W. Crutcher, Jesse Harris, Bert Leftwich, R. P. Welch, A. D. Boxley, Roddy Sturman, J. R. Kekles, Harold Bilby of Broken Arrow, Fred Cordell of Cherokee and the Misses Alice Means, Vivian Bilby, Opal Scott and Helen Berry of Norman. Mrs. Welch captured the favor for the highest score and the honor guests were presented with remembrances of the occasion. The house was artistically decorated in shades of orchid and yellow, the same motif being carried out in the beautifully appointed luncheon.

One of the most beautiful parties ever given in Holdenville was tendered Miss Marian Washington, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Washington, at the home of Mrs. M. E. Gilbert by Miss Jewel Brodie and Myrtle Barrett Friday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with roses and garden flowers, the two large rooms being thrown together and the potted plants and myriad colored candle illuminating the whole made a beautiful effect. After the guests had all arrived a boy delivered a special message, date-headed "Loveland," summoning the hostesses and their guests to repair immediately to the dining room, where the "mystery" was unraveled by the decorations apparent. Gracing the center of the table was a large Kewpie, holding in its hands 10 red and white ribbon ends which led to plates laid. Place cards were little Kewpies holding engagement rings. On the ends of the ribbons held by Kewpies were little red hearts which bore the following announcement: "Miss Marian M. Washington and Mr. Maurice Lee Mullens, June 21, 1922." While the guests were enjoying the announcement and extending to Miss Washington their good wishes, a miniature bride and groom, Miss Paula Lain and Master George Turner, entered the dining room, drawing a little white wagon upon which was loaded gifts for the bride-to-be. A more fetching sight could not be imagined than was made by this fair little bride, bedecked in her orange wreath and bridal dress and veil, and this gallant and proud little groom. The repast consisted of a two-course luncheon, in which the wedding scheme was carried out. The guests were limited to the members of the Pan-Hellenic club, consisting of Misses Ruth Cox, Rose Leake, Carrie Will Coffman, Lorna Robinson, the honored guest, and the hostesses, with but three invited guests, Mesdames Sydney H. Babcock, E. M. Washington and M. E. Gilbert. Miss Washington is one of the most popular girls of her set. She graduated from Holdenville high in 1917, spent four years at the normal university, after which she taught home economics in Holdenville high. Mr. Mullens is the popular young operator at the Frisco. He has been connected with this office for the past three years. His home is in Seneca, Mo. The young people expect to make Holdenville their future home.

TAHLEQUAH.

Thursday the West End club members and their families had their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ross. The Ross home is located on the grounds of the old Cherokee male seminary.

The day of picnics has arrived and Tahlequah is blessed with many beautiful spots where informal and joyful affairs are given. Wednesday the Fortnightly club gave its annual picnic on the knoll just above the college spring.

The friends of Miss Chloe Reid will be delighted to hear that she won the highest scholarship prize, the best essay, also music and art history prizes. Miss Reid's senior English grade was 100. This report comes from the Colonial school, Washington, D. C., and speaks for itself.

Wednesday Mrs. Percy Wyly complimented Mrs. George H. Prentiss of Kentucky at a luncheon. The invited guests were Mrs. Gilbert Thompson, Mrs. Maggie Starr, Mrs. C. D. Markham, Mrs. B. L. Keenan and Mrs. Ross Williams.

The normal and college students are beginning to "pour into" Tahlequah. The town is now better prepared than ever to take care of them, in the dormitory erected by H. M. Vance and Prof. John Hackler. Then the old Presbyterian mission building has been remodeled and refurnished by Messrs. Vance and C. F. Hiles.

Mrs. T. J. Treadwell was hostess to the Thursday Card club. Mrs. A. B. Cunningham won the club prize. Miss Beatrice Markham was given the guest favor, a beautiful piece of ivory and silver. Cunningham received the consolation. The guests were Miss Beatrice Markham, Mrs. J. T. Cunningham, Mrs. Roy Wiggins, Mrs. O. N. Goddard, Mrs. J. I. Conroy, Mrs. Thurman Wyly, Mrs. J. T. Attebery, Mrs. R. B. Cunningham, Mrs. Alvin Fletcher, Mrs. Hugh Gill, Mrs. Jimmie Guinn and Mrs. Bell.

Miss Madeline McSpadden entertained the Girls club Friday night at the McSpadden home on Shawnee street. Baskets of pink rambler roses in all of the rooms and gallery made such a lovely picture. Talented Girl to Present Moon Dance Monday Night

Miss Gertrude May Coulter.

One of the talented young dancers who will appear Monday night at convention hall in the Elks' first annual spring festival is Miss Gertrude May Coulter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Coulter, 1346 South Norfolk. Miss Coulter will dance the moon dance to the Liszt music, "Love's Dream," and will also appear in the Rainbow ballet. The little dancer is 9 years old.

THERE is no sympathy so helpful to a family that is bereaved as that of true friends and no help so reassuring as that of the good funeral director.

Acting in your stead, he understands that he must act in your spirit, performing each task with the reverence and tenderness with which your own hands would perform it if they could.

Sympathy which cannot be gracefully conveyed by words is revealed through his acts of service which bring the comforting assurance that every attention has been given with thoughtfulness and skill.

Tape-measuring Quality

It can't be done. Quality isn't the kind of thing that you can measure in inches and yards, or ounces and pounds.

Yet you don't have to guess about the quality of your shoes. There is a way you can measure it very accurately.

The Walk-Over trade mark on a pair of shoes assures you that you are getting quality, of the finest kind, because the 47-year reputation of Walk-Over stands back of that sign.
