'MEXICAN PETE' IS BACK TO TOP

Absence of Reported Corner Sends Oil Stock to Leadership

NEW YORK, June 26.—Reports that the stock exchange had found no proof of an attempted "corner" in Mexican Petroleum today sent that stock back to its recent leadership, to the utter demoralization of the shorts.

That faction covered frantically at the outset, the stock soon advanced in comparatively small lots to 124 1-4, against last week's closing prices of 181 1-4. At midday, after several moderate reactions, it rose to 204 1-2. In the latter part of the session selling for profits caused a more substantial setback to the final price of 195, a net gain of 13 3-4 points and 9 points over the year's previous maximum.

Pan-American Petroleum "A" and "B" shares made extreme gains of 6 1-2 and 7 1-2 points, respectively, joining the greater part of their adherents, but others, especially domestic group, derived little benefit from further price advances in crude and refined products.

Several of the investment rails were disposed to add moderately to the week's general advance, but gave way to the realizing of the later dealings when call money rose to 5 1-2 per cent, after opening at 4 per cent. In view of the actual cash holdings reported by the clearing house banks last Saturday and preparation to meet July interest and dividend payments, today's hardening of call loans occasioned little surprise. Time rates were unaltered, but the supply of such funds was visibly smaller.

Foreign exchange conditions were very confusing, but the trend of leading remittances was firmer. French bills providing the only noteworthy exception, Sterling rose fully 3 cents over last week's low quotation, marks rallied a large fraction and most other continental rails rallied 2 to 10 points.

Dullness was the chief feature of today's bond market, dealings being lighter and more contracted than at any recent period. Gains outnumbered recessions, but changes in the more important issues were nominal.

The Liberty group with one exception again sold well over par, but no records were established, despite heavy operations in the several 4 1-2 per cent issues.

British loans hardened slightly in response to the better tone of sterling exchange, but French loans continued to ease on the backwardness of the local Paris rate. Mexican government's made up more of their recent reaction and Cuban Cane 7s improved. Gains averaging 1 point were registered by many rails, especially those of the investment type. Among these were Central Pacific first 4s, Pennsylvania general 5s, St. Paul refunding 4 1-2s, Kansas City Southern 5s, Missouri, Kansas & Texas 5s and Chicago & Eastern Illinois 5s. Total sales, par value, aggregated $14,733,000.

New corporation offers of the day included Wabash railway $4,500,000 of 5 per cent equipment trust certificates, which were immediately disposed of, and New York Steam corporation's $5,000,000 first mortgage bonds.

American Grain.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The visible supply of American and bonded grains shows the following changes: Wheat, decreased 2,612,000 bushels.

Corn, decreased 1,066,000 bushels.
Oats, decreased 1,269,000 bushels.
Rye, decreased 911,000 bushels.
Barley, decreased 276,000 bushels.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, June 24.—Declines prevailed throughout the session in cotton today, although in the late trading the tone was much steadier and the market made partial recoveries on covering by realizing shorts so that last prices were at net declines of but 26 to 32 points after the market had been as low as 80 to 96 points down. July closed at 20.95c after trading as low as 20.55.

The selling of the session was due in large measure to the continued highly favorable weather over the belt and reports that hot and dry weather was causing marked improvement in the crop. Poor cables helped to make a lower opening and the issuance of July notices increased the pressure against the market. Notices called for the delivery of about four thousand bales and were not stopped until after they had done considerable circulating and had brought out much liquidation of long contracts.

WEATHER BEARISH, WHEAT GOES DOWN

Misgivings Regarding German Crisis Also a Factor

CHICAGO, June 26.—Rains and cooler weather preventing crop damage had a bearish effect today on the wheat market, and so did misgivings in regard to the German political crisis. Wheat closed heavy, 1 5-8 to 2 1-4c net lower, with July $1.11 1-8 to 1-4 and September $1.12 7-8 to $1.13. Corn finished 1 3-8 to 1-2c down, oats off 1-4c and provisions unchanged to 17c declined.

Liquidation sales on the part of holders of wheat took place on an extensive scale, whereas new buying in volume failed to develop. Besides, with apprehension relieved as to the crop outlook, speculative pressure to sell showed a noticeable increase, and except for a little hesitancy at the start the market was on the downgrade almost constantly throughout the session. It was a generally accepted opinion that the winter crop was made and that for the present the spring crop could be looked upon as in fine condition.

Heavy receipts of corn and slackness of shipping here, together with changed weather conditions, seemed to be chiefly responsible for sending corn lower in price.

Provisions were governed in the main by action of the hog market.

WANTED JOHNSON FOR PRESIDENT

Tulsan Declines Honor of Heading National Juniors

Privilege of participation in the contest for presidency of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce by Tulsa was refused on the floor of the convention in Indianapolis last week by the nominee, E. Fred Johnson, according to Phil Kramer, who returned Monday morning from Indianapolis. Kramer, president of the Tulsa chamber and Johnson were representatives from Tulsa.

Immediately after the report of the nomination committee, naming the present incumbent Ray P. Wilbur of Springfield, Mass., as presidential nominee was made, Elmira Ohio, nominated Johnson of Tulsa as president from the floor. The nomination was instantly seconded by Jacksonville, Fla.

"Sentiment was strong for Johnson," said Kramer yesterday, "and I believe that he would have been elected had he consented to run. But he withdrew immediately in favor of Wilbur, who has worked hard in the organization and whose efforts, Johnson believed, entitled him to the office."

Johnson was slated for first vice president on the nominating committee's ticket, an office he held last year and was reelected. Next year's convention went to Milwaukee, after the contenders, Cincinnati, Jacksonville and New Orleans had succeeded in creating a deadlock for more than an hour Saturday afternoon, the closing day of the convention.

Experiences of the Tulsa chamber were used by Kramer in his talk before the convention on the selection of civic activities for the year. Johnson was on the program and talked on "Finance." The Tulsa delegates were also active in transacting of the business of the convention, Kramer serving on the resolutions committee and Johnson as chairman of the credentials committee.

There were approximately 500 delegates attending the conference, Kramer said. Clarence O. Howard, president of the senior chamber of commerce of St. Louis and founder of the junior chamber of commerce was an honored guest and one of the speakers. For the first time, the United States chamber of commerce formally recognized the junior organization by sending a delegate from headquarters at Washington to attend the convention and assuring the junior chamber, through tha delegate, of its wish to co-operate with and be of assistance to it at all times.

The speech made by George Wilson of Dallas, outgoing president of the national organization was one of the features of the program, Kramer said. Hospitality of the city of Indianapolis, courtesy of its officials and its citizens in entertaining the junior men and their wives was a big factor in the success of the third annual convention, declared Kramer.

Hugh Ownby and Hubert Hausen, representing the newly organized junior chamber at Muskogee were the only other Oklahomans at the conference and they advertised the state as the wild and woolly by appearing in cowboy costumes. The Oklahoma men joined the St. Louis special train and made the trip from St. Louis with the Missouri men. Johnson will return home the latter part of this week.

INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

B. G. Whitestine Victim of Collision Between Cars on Fifteenth.

B. G. Whitestine, 1923 East Fourteenth, sustained several minor cuts and bruises when the Auburn roadster, which he was driving, collided with a Buick roadster at Fifteenth and Norfolk shortly after noon Monday.

According to witnesses the Buick struck the Auburn, upsetting it and pinning Whitestine underneath. He was removed to the Oklahoma hospital where his wounds were dressed.

Tariff Bill Schedules On Wood Imports Fixed

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Confining itself more closely to the tariff bill today than it has on any day since that measure came before it, the senate cleaned up the wood schedule by voting 49 to 18 to retain shingles on the free list and then disposed of all committee amendments to the tobacco schedule. Tomorrow it will come to the agricultural tariff schedule with its multitude of duties on farm implements.

Yeomen Have Picnic.

The Yeomen lodge had its largest annual picnic in a number of years Sunday on Mingo creek, about 200 members participating in the day's round of pleasures. A baseball game in which members of Rhadamanthus, a side order of the Yeomen, defeated Yeomen members by the score of 13 to 7, excited as much interest as a big league event and the swimming hole played to capacity the entire day. Wants of the innerman were satisfied with an abundance of good things to eat and drink.
