Oilers Divide Independence Day Double-header With Oklahoma City Indians

TULSA SLUGGERS TAKE FIRST AND DROP 2ND GAME

Hollanders Shake Jinx in Final Session to Beat Oilers

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 4.—Oklahoma City and Tulsa celebrated Independence day by dividing a thrilling double-header, both games of which were hard fought, Tulsa took the first, 5 to 2, seven Tribe miscues aiding the invaders materially in the run-getting of the first game.

Payne and Black, both of whom had been taken out of the first game, also started the second, after Payne had been jumped for a pair of runs in the opener. Oklahoma City came back and made a brace off Black. Gingiardi's home run finding Pitt ahead of him.

Black was knocked out of the box in the next round but Payne stuck it out to the fifth, when he was hammered off the hill, Young relieving. Haugland and Young were also chased to the showers before the finish.

Bennett Hits Seven Times.

Pitt and Bennett, rival lead-off men had a little battle all their own for batting honors. Bennett got three hits in the first game and four in the second. Pitt hit safely his last two times up in the first and then four straight in the second, a consecutive run of six.

Tulsa broke ice in the third inning of the first game when Bennett slammed one third which hit the white chalk line and went for a two-bagger. Thompson grounded to McDaniel who shot the ball to Krueger in ample time to catch Bennett at third, but he dropped the ball and both were safe. Davis' single to center sent Bennett home.

Errors also were responsible for the two Tulsa tallies of the seventh. Crosby opened with a single to center. Black sacrificed. The bases were filled when Bennett singled to right. Thompson grounded to Felber who went home with the ball to head off Crosby. But his peg was bad and Crosby and Bennett both registered.

Black Is Chased.

In the home half of the same round, Oklahoma City knocked Black off the hill top and seemed headed for victory when Manager Lelivelt ran in George Boehler and the assault abruptly ended, the Tulsa ace fanning five of the seven men who faced him the remainder of the game.

McDaniel started the offensive with a two-bagger over Lamb's head in center, after Long had grounded out. Windle singled to left, Manager Egan holding McDaniel at third rather than have him take a chance of being thrown out at the plate, by trying to go home on a dangerous play. This proved a wise move for Eddie Moore came through with a single to left scoring him. The bases were filled when Fisher batting for Payne, lifted a Texas leguer back of first which Lelivelt could not quite reach. Pitt's single to center scored Windle and Moore was caught at the plate trying to register on the same wallop. This saw the departure of Black and the vent of Boehler.

Win in Eight.

Lelivelt's double, Crosby's single and Gingiardi's error enabled Tulsa to add one in the eighth and the final tally came in the ninth and on Bennett's single, Thompson's sacrifice and Stuart's single assisted by a kick by Gingiardi which prevented his try for an out at the plate.

The second was a more free-hitting contest. Four singles gave Tulsa a pair of markers in the first inning. Pitt came right back with a single and the score was tied when Gingiardi sent one sailing into Canadian brush.

For the second time during the day, Oklahoma City knocked Black off the hill when consecutive singles by Windle, Moore, Payne and Pitt counted two runs.

Tulsa put the same buzzer to Payne in the fifth, Bennett, Thompson and Davis having singled in succession when Young went to his relief. Davis' single had scored Bennett and Thompson. Stuart advanced Davis by a sacrifice and Lamb knocked him home with a double to left.

This put the Oilers one to the good but the tribe tied the count in the home half of the same round on Gingiardi's single, walks to Krueger and Felder and an infield out.

Won in Eighth.

Oklahoma City went into the lead in the next round when Windle doubled and Young singled only to have Tulsa tie it in the eighth on successive singles by Bennett, Thompson and Davis and an infield out.

Thus the score stood 6 all and one had been retired when Moore came up in the eighth. He smashed one into the center-field corner for three bases and registered on Pitt's grounder to Stuart who failed to catch the flying Moore at the plate.

Manager Lelivelt protested the Oklahoma City victory over an infield fly decision in the sixth inning which cost his team at least one run.

The Western league box scores will be found on page 18.

MORRIS HAMMERS DAYLIGHTS OUT OF JACK SMITH

Padgett Wins From Warnie Smith on Foul in Fifth Round of Battle

Special to The World.

OSAGE SPEEDWAY, Hominy, Okla., July 4.—Carl Morris, Sapulpa giant, knocked Jack "K. O." Smith of San Francisco down so many times in the first three rounds that Smith got discouraged in the third and slept through the fatal count of 10. Morris opened with a rush and had Smith running all over the ring. He hammered him at will, floored him in the first and second, and then staged a "Dempsey-Willard" finish in the third.

Approximately 9,000 people from northern Oklahoma attended the Independence Day celebration, which closes here tomorrow afternoon, with buffalo roping, bronc riding, roping and aerial attractions.

Motion pictures of the annual Frontier Day celebration were taken here today and will be shown over the country in the near future. More pictures will be taken tomorrow.

Cyle Horsman, daredevil of the air, will be the center of attraction in the aerial show. Horsman will execute a series of stunts, which include plane walking, acrobatics, flying up-side-down and scores of other stunts which will give the hundreds of spectators a whole sack full of thrills.

PADGETT IS WINNER WHEN SMITH HITS LOW.

BARTLESVILLE, July 4.—Cowboy Padgett of Denver, Colo., won from Warnie Smith of Bartlesville on a foul in the fifth round of a scheduled 12-round fight at the Dewey round-up this morning. The foul was clearly unintentional and the local scrapper had the best of the going by a comfortable margin up to the time the foul was committed, although Padgett was dangerous and effective at short range. They are welterweights.

Patsy Flannigan of Oklahoma City won a 10-round referee's decision from "Pup" Kenner of Bartlesville, leading the fighting all the way and landing almost at will. Tom Story of Oklahoma City and Joe Coleman of Bartlesville fought a six-round draw in the preliminaries.

Pat Walsh of Kansas City and "Curley" Smith of Bartlesville, middleweights, meet at the Dewey fair grounds in a 12-round affray tomorrow night following the round-up program.

JIMMY MURPHY WINS CLASSIC LATE IN RACE

Sensational Driver Sets Pace at 97.6 Miles an Hour

TACOMA SPEEDWAY, TACOMA, Wash., July 4.—Jimmy Murphy, sensational automobile race driver, added to his laurels here this afternoon by winning the eleventh annual speedway classic. Murphy covered the 250 miles at the rate of 97.6 miles an hour. Tommy Milton took second place after leading Murphy nearly all the way. Milton went into second place at the 226-mile mark when he was forced to go into the pits and change a tire. He was unable thereafter to regain the lead. Rosco Sarles took third place with Wunderlich fourth and Harry Hartz fifth.

Murphy's time for the 250 miles was 2 hours, 33 minutes and 55 3-5 seconds, while Milton was less than six seconds behind him.
