FAST FINISHES MARK PROGRAM OF DOG RACES

Jadda Takes Measure of Fast Hounds; Many Upsets Recorded

Brilliant finishes were the order of the day at Mid-Continent park last night when a margin of inches determined the winners in many of the races. Soberhead took the feature race from Mikes Anna by a head while Goldy Moon, Half Hidden and Rainbow Cannon finished in a bunch close behind. Jadda walked away from Betty J. and Peerless Hare in the third dash, but the field finished in a scramble eight lengths behind. Cruta Foda led Dutch Bergman, favorite, over the route by a bare length. Cruta Foda turned onto the stretch a full length in the lead but Dutch Bergman was never able to cut down the distance.

BATHTUBS SENT BY AIR

Those Used by Harding at Gettysburg Sent Back on Two Planes.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Eight bathtubs used by President Harding and his party at Gettysburg, arrived here today via air, bound for Quantico, Va.

Because it was feared the bath tubs, if hauled in trucks would be damaged, they were securely strapped to two big airplanes and sent on their way.

It is the first instance on record of bathtubs being transported by air.

Raw Fish, Rain Water Save Fishermen's Lives

MONTREAL, Quebec, July 5.—Raw fish and water wrung from fog-soaked garments saved the lives of two fishermen while they were adrift for four days and four nights in a dory, off the Newfoundland banks, it was revealed when the steamship Childon docked here today with the men on board. They had been picked up at sea just in time to prevent insanity and death. A third fisherman was lost overboard from the dory.

CLINCH HITTING COST GEORGES HIS BIG BATTLE

New York Boxing Chief Thinks Frenchman Was Under Handicap

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, July 5.—Indirectly William Muldoon, bluff, plain-spoken chairman of the New York State Athletic commission, may be said to look with no marked disfavor upon the proposition to bring Dempsey and Carpentier together for a return engagement. Directly he will tell you that he will comment on no prospective match, being a supervisor, not a match maker.

However, he doesn't mind leaving something for your imagination to play with. As for example:

During a recent conversation with the writer Muldoon remarked that it wasn't so much Carpentier's lack of weight as Descamps' lack of foresight which made the Dempsey-Carpentier affair as one-sided as a pro-German viewpoint. Under certain conditions, he avers, Carpentier would have made a much better fight of it.

"I blame much of Carpentier's failing on Descamps' shortsightedness," Muldoon declared. "What could the Frenchman have been thinking of to sign up for what was actually a handicap match without getting an even break on the handicap allowance? Descamps should have insisted that the articles of agreement call for no hitting in the clinches. Then Carpentier weighing under 170 pounds, would have had a man's size chance with Dempsey, weighing close to 200.

Says Clinches Beat Carpentier.

"As it was, what happened? They met in the center of the ring, immediately went into a clinch and Dempsey cuffed his man at will about the head and body. When they were pried apart the Frenchman was already wobbly on his pins and unable to think clearly. He was beaten then and there.

"Suppose, however, the men had been forced to break without hitting. Carpentier then would have been as fresh as Dempsey, and when he landed three two right handers in the second round, he would have had all his power behind them. It is a question whether Dempsey would have remained on his feet under those conditions. I don't say he would have been knocked out, only that the punches in question would have hurt him a great deal more.

Praises Carp's Speed.

"Another thing: If hitting in the clinches was barred it is doubtful if Dempsey would have been able to corner his man before the end of 12 rounds. Carpentier's speed might easily have kept him out of range for the scheduled duration of the bout.

"That being the case, what about another bout, Mr. Muldoon, with hitting in the clinches barred? It sounds like a more humane, not to say interesting proposition than the proposed pole-axeing of Brennan, Willard and the other former members of the Piano Movers' association.

Paderewski Goes to Ranch.

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—Ignace Paderewski, famous pianist and former premier of Poland, accompanied by Mme. Paderewski, passed through Los Angeles yesterday on their way to the ranch at Paso Robles, Cal.

They plan to sail from New York for Europe July 15.

10,000 See Leonard Give Kansas Lesson

MICHIGAN CITY, July 5.—Check of the attendance at the lightweight championship contest between Benny Leonard, title holder and Rocky Kansas of Buffalo, N. Y., revealed today that the crowd was just above the 10,000 mark, with receipts of $59,830. While no official announcement was made, it was reported Leonard received $25,000 for his eight-round technical knockout over the Buffalo challenger and Kansas received $15,000.

Leonard, with Billy Gibson, his manager, left today for New York, to prepare for his championship engagement with Lew Tendler, the Philadelphia lightweight, to be decided at Jersey City, N. J., July 27.

Kansas, badly upset by his defeat, will return home tonight.

He planned to have an X-ray picture made today of his broken arm. The arm was encased in splints after two physicians examined the injury, said to have been suffered in the third round, when Kansas blocked a fast right-hand chop by Leonard.
