OXFORD STUDENTS TULSA VISITORS

Came Here From New York by Auto on Their Way to California

Two young students of Oxford university of England who are "seeing America" by automobile were in Tulsa Thursday, pausing for a look about town, dinner and touring information from the Automobile club of Oklahoma. New York was their starting point and they were en route to California via such points as Denver and Salt Lake City. The two expected to return to England in the fall to continue his studies at Oxford. Both said that though of American parentage their families are now residents of England.

Two motorists by proxy also were callers at the Automobile club garage on South Denver. The young men have made their way in part on foot and in part in cars with friendly drivers from their home in Dayton, Ohio, to Yosemite and Yellowstone park and are now on their way home again. With faces almost as brown as their khaki and looking exceptionally fit, the young men said they had found the going good and motorists kind-hearted.

Asked what was the largest party that called at the club headquarters for motor information this week, W. D. Gunaseck, secretary, replied quickly: "The biggest party weighed about 575 pounds. He was the sole occupant of a Ford coupe and was bound from Chicago to Denver." The stream of traffic through Tulsa, road-bound and interstate, continue incessantly, Gunaseck said.

85 BOY SCOUTS AT LAKE SAPULPA

Camp Life Will Be Enjoyed for 10 Days by Tulsa Lads

A total of 85 Boy Scouts, from all over Tulsa county, together with 12 officers and 2 special instructors, left Tulsa Thursday morning at 8 o'clock for the 10-day camp on Lake Sapulpa, five miles northwest of Sapulpa. This is the first Tulsa summer scout camp to be established.

Next Sunday will be visitors' day at the camp at which time parents and boy friends unlucky enough not to be Boy Scouts, and scouts who did not go on the camp may visit between the hours of 9 to 9. Fred E. Woodson, scout executive of the Sapulpa council will be present throughout the 10-day camp. It was through Woodson and Harold Meyer, Tulsa county scout executive and supervisor of the camp, that many of the boys financially unable to attend the camp were given a chance to attend.

Special instructors in the persons of John L. Templeton of Muskogee and Professor Eli Foster of the geology department of the University of Tulsa will make the boys' stay an educational one as well as one of fun and play. Chief Templeton, as he is known, is an old scout camper, well known to all Tulsa scouts at whose urgent invitation he attends the camp this year.

Besides those already mentioned the following list of scout officers are attending the camp: Floyd Craft, camp director; W. W. Malone, assistant director; scoutmasters A. J. Sansome, H. G. Wiley, Francis E. Riley all of Tulsa; scoutmaster Howard Thomison of Claremore; assistant scoutmasters Raymond Fisher, Glen LaForge, Miles Savage all of Tulsa. Norman Drake of Tulsa will take along his radio set.

Very Next Dose of Treacherous Drug may Start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—Advertisement.
