HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP R.R.—Summer Arrangement.—Time Table.—On and after May 24th, passenger trains will arrive and depart as follows:

AN APPEAL.—We clip the following "touching appeal" from an English paper, and commend it to our own subscribers, who are in arrears, for their consideration:

"We are greatly in need of money just now in order to meet our paper bills and other liabilities, and as there are thousands of dollars due from the office from subscribers, we would kindly, but earnestly, ask all who are in arrears to remit immediately, if possible, a part at least of their indebtedness."

"We would not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of these hands to do so."

"How much owest thou?"—The date opposite the name on the paper is the time to which the subscriber has paid; and means that the subscription year expired with that date (whatever the date may be), and as our terms are two dollars a year in advance, or within six months, and two dollars and fifty cents if not paid within six months, each one can thus easily determine the present condition of his account with this office. "How much owest thou?"

PRIZE FIGHT.—There was a regular pugilistic demonstration of the "manly art of self defense," at Bloody Run, last week. The affair grew out of a dispute about an old ram. It proved to be rather a sheepish fight.

The votes of the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church in this and other states, is now being taken on the question of lay representation. The church at this place will vote on the question on Friday of this week.

The Right Reverend Bishop Stevens, of the Episcopal Church will preach and hold a Confirmation in the Court House, on Thursday evening, the first of July. Service to commence at half past seven o'clock.

All the magazines and pictorial papers can be had at the Inquirer Book Store. The new York Ledger, New York Weekly or Saturday Night will be sent to any address post paid on receipt of eight cents.

DECLINED.—A J. Colburn and Valentine Hay, Esqs., have withdrawn from the canvass in this district, the former for the Senate, the latter for Legislature. J. B. Hicks and Abraham Wilson have been announced as candidates for Legislature—both from Somerset county.

TAN.—Tan may be removed from the face by mixing magnesia in soft water to the consistency of paste, which should then be spread on the face and allowed to remain a minute or two. Then wash off with castile soap suds, and rinse with soft water.

The Radicals have not only learned to "jump Jim Crow," but they have swallowed a full fledged "rebel" Crowe, and spit him on radical ground, and given him a fit office for his subserviency. Rather rough for radicals, but cunning in Crowe.

GONE TO CLEARFIELD.—Quite a number of persons from this place and Cumberland Valley started for Clearfield on Monday, as witnesses in the case of the bank robbers, whose trial takes place this week. District Attorney Kerr, Sheriff Steckman and Deputy Huzzard are with the party.

On the 7th inst., a little daughter of Mr. Robison, of Dunsmuirville, came to her untimely death from the effects of poison which had been mixed with butter and spread on bread for the purpose of killing rats. Two of the little girls found the bread and ate it— one died and the other is lying in a critical condition.

RADICAL RAFFLE.—The raffle for radical nominations in Somerset county came off on last Saturday week, and resulted as follows:—Senator, Alex. Stutzman; Representative, B. F. Long; Prothonotary, Dennis Myers; Register, D. J. Horner; Treasurer, W. B. Coffroth; Sheriff, Ex-sheriff Josiah Shaffer; Commissioner, John Dumbold; Poor Director, A. Woy; Auditor, H. Fox.

COMPLIMENT TO CANDIDATES.—The Indiana Democrat, after saying, "the democracy of Bedford county have nominated an excellent ticket," pays the following high compliment to our candidate for Sheriff:

The nomination of that unflinching Democrat, Wm. Keyser, for Sheriff, pleases us immensely. A better Democrat and a more honorable man does not live in that county, and we expect to hear of his election by a handsome majority. We congratulate Mr. Keyser on his good fortune, and the party that they have so worthy a candidate.

SENSIBLE SUGGESTION.—We read of a painter, who recently got off a good joke on the inquisitive, by putting a placard on a building which he was painting, with the following words:

Answers to all questions.—Building red. Sashes Blue. Bricks to be penciled if the money holds out. Only one coat. Hudson, painter.

As a joke, this is not bad, and something similar might relieve men of all pursuits from answering many inquiries.

MENGE HOUSE IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Isaac Mengel, the enterprising proprietor of the "Mengel House," on Juliana street, has made vast improvements to his well known public house. The outside of the building has received a coat of beautiful paint; two elaborate arched doorways have been put up, in which are hung lamps that are ornamental as well as useful. The interior improvements are of a superior kind. A new dining room has been fitted up which is a model of taste and convenience. The bar room has been remodeled, and the old dining room converted into a billiard room, and two excellent tables, one a carom and the other a four pocket, have been placed in it. The whole house has undergone a complete change, and externally and internally is scarcely recognized as the same old place. Mr. Mengel deserves the credit of the community, as well as that of the traveling public, for the spirit of enterprise manifested in the improvements made. We understand that Mr. Mengel is about erecting a new billiard room, as the present place proves too small for two tables. When the new building is completed, the bar room will be put in the present billiard room and the former will be fitted up for a gentlemen's reading room. The Mengel House will then be one of the best arranged and most comfortable hotels in the county.

DARING DASH OF DEVILTRY.—Cattle Captured by Cunning Cusses.—The Thieves Taken in Time.—On last Saturday evening the boldest piece of pilfering that was ever attempted in this county, was committed within three miles of this place. The facts as we can gather them are about these: On Friday, officer Debaugh received a telegram that two valuable horses had been stolen in an adjoining county, and that he should look out for the thieves. The next day two suspicious looking characters were seen loafing about town, and Mr. Debaugh watched their movements closely. He communicated these facts to Sheriff Steckman, who, together with Deputy Huzzard, kept an eye on the maneuvers of the strangers. Mr. S. S. Fleegel was employed by the officers to act as a decoy, and how well he managed his part of the business, the sequel shows. He got in with the strangers at once, and drew from them all their plans. Everything being arranged, the two with Fleegel, started in the direction of the Springs, a little before sun-down. When they got near the Arandale House, one of the strangers went into a field and caught a horse, but as the animal did not appear to suit his taste, he let him go again. The party halted at the Springs for a short time, and there Fleegel had the first opportunity to send word to the officers of the intentions of the scoundrels. From thence they proceeded to the farm of Mr. John Shoemaker, of this place, and took therefrom thirty head of cattle. One of the party espied a horse in a field close by and he at once captured him, made a hickory bark bridle, and rode him off. The horse belonged to Mr. Geo. A. Smith, of the "Grove." The cattle were then driven, at a brisk rate, in the direction of Cumberland, where they were to be sold next day, by a "pal" who was waiting for his thieving confederates. But their game was speedily spoiled. Sheriff Steckman having received the word sent by Fleegel, he, with deputy Huzzard, officer Debaugh, and others, started in pursuit and overhauled the party at Mr. Samuel Boor's, about eight miles from town, where they were luxuriating on a crock of milk stolen from the spring house. They were arrested, brought to town and lodged in jail. They had a hearing before Justice Nicodemus, next morning, and were remanded to prison, where they will in all probability remain till September sessions. These audacious adepts—for such they no doubt are—had various projects on hand. If they had not succeeded with the cattle, they had made up their minds to look after the interests of our banks and had a covetous eye on the County Treasury. Their nefarious business has been stopped for a while, we hope.

And he did many wonderful works, inasmuch that his name was pronounced in many tongues. And there came unto him, Judith, from the seaport of New Bedford, who has been sick for many years; and after some days her pains were gone. She slept soundly, and did rejoice in eating her food. And Asa, from those which are called Quakers, in the great city of Philadelphia, wrote an epistle saying: "O, Doctor! accept thou this money which is called greenbacks, and hath the picture of Abraham, thy friend, on one end. For verily I was weak, exhausted and despondent; I ate but little, and suffered many pains, and thy PLANTATION BITTERS gave me health, likened only unto the vigor of youth. And upon such as are afflicted with liver complaint, with sour stomach, with general debility and dyspeptic pains, in all parts of the land did these Bitters produce astonishing cures.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR JULY.—A beautiful engraving, called "My Native Land, Farewell!" leads off the July number of this excellent magazine. Then we have the usual elegant Fashion plate, giving the late Parisian styles; and a fine illustration of the poem, "In an Attic," by Florence Percy; followed by a number of engravings of ladies' bonnets, dresses, jackets, &c. The music this month is the Spirited Polka. The literary contents as usual, are excellent. Published by Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut st., Philadelphia, at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large set engraving.) Four copies, $8. Five copies (and one gratis), $8. "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post" (and one engraving), $4.00. Specimen numbers sent for ten cents.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for July is before us. Its unrivalled circulation proves it the most popular of the ladies' magazines. The present issue is one of the best we have ever seen. A capital steel engraving, "The Romance of a Boarding School," with a laughable story by Eliza Rodman, leads off; then follows a mammoth colored steel fashion plate, with five full length figures; and then we have numerous wood cuts of new bonnets, bathing dresses, &c., &c. Now is a good time to subscribe for "Peterson's."—Terms, $2.00 a year. Specimen numbers sent gratis to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

GODEY.—The July number of this unrivalled ladies magazine is before us. The steel engraving is superb, and the fashion plate and patterns are all a lady could desire. The literary articles are such as Godey always lays before his readers. This periodical seen determined to keep ahead of all others. Address L. A. Godey, Philadelphia.

GALAXY.—The July number of this excellent magazine has been received. To say that this periodical is of the first class order would be superfluous, as its reputation is so well established that it needs no praise from the press. Its literary productions are unsurpassed.

A colony of Japanese has purchased a large tract of land in one of the counties of California, and preparations are being made for its immediate occupation and cultivation. At the rate at which the population of the Golden State has been increasing for a twelvemonth past, in consequence of the immense influx of Chinese and Japanese, it bids fair shortly to rival some of the leading Eastern States in the number of its people. Whether the Celestials are the kind of folks wanted by the Californians, is a matter in regard to which the public are not yet informed; but we presume not.

From Hayes City reports come of Indian outrages and murder in the vicinity of Minneapolis. Captain Weir left Fort Hayes yesterday with an escort, taking forty male and female Indian prisoners to be delivered to their respective tribes from Fort Supply. This course is resorted to for the purpose of making peace with the tribes on the war path.

It has been discovered that the grand fiddle-de-dee and rub-a-dub-dub at the hub of the Universe is gotten up as a money-making dodge, and not as a celebration for the restoration of peace and Union. Of course it will attract thousands, and the people and business men of the hub will be benefited in a great measure, and after the performance is concluded and the big drum and artillery laid away, the visitors will return to their homes singing, "Let us have peace."

The first of the new and improved greenback paper has been delivered from the Pennsylvania mills. The paper is what is known as the French silk variety, and through its fibers run threads of red and blue colors. The first issue of the new money will probably be ready on the first of July. All of the present issues of legal-tenders and fractional currency notes will be called in as rapidly as possible.

ELDER—James Elder, son of George and Margaret Elder, was born in Bedford co., Pa., May 4th, 1834, and died in Stephentown co., Ill., Jan. 31, 1869. He moved from Bedford county in 1864. Shortly after coming west, sickness invaded his health, and he died in the arms of his friends, after a long and painful illness. He was a man of high moral and religious principles, and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. Many hearts are saddened by this bereavement. Yet beloved friends your loss is his gain. While you weep over his tomb he reposes in the arms of his Father, and after several years of his infinite love. Although ravaged with the most excruciating physical suffering, yet his death-bed was placid and radiant with triumph and faith, trusting in his Redeemer's love. He was followed to the grave by a large concourse of people, and his funeral was held in his native town in hope of a future life at the resurrection, and that the trumpet may soon herald his resurrection. Long memory we will cherish his name, and his friends will be true to his last farewell shall not perish. But will send remembrance true. L. M. DEVORE.

WHAT A CONTRAST BETWEEN A LONG ONE and a SHORT ONE.—It is astonishing how fashion changes a man's appearance. When people are young, they cost us to think they looked so very nice. But time will change custom, and people wear short coats and breeches, and a pair of trousers to G. R. Oster & Co., for a handsome and fashionable suit of clothes. jun25ml

COLBURN'S PATENT. RED JACKET AXE. Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons: First—It cuts deeper. Second—It won't stick in the wood. Third—It does not get out of the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one-third more work than with regular Axes. Red jacket has nothing to do with the quality of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.
