Yanks Clinch American Flag by Trimming Red Sox in First-Inning Rally

NEW YORK FANS TO GET ANOTHER ALL-CITY SHOW

Browns Take Decision Over White Sox Clan in Fast Battle

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—New York won the American league pennant by defeating Boston, 4 to 1, today. The Yankees won their game in Washington (second game) and with New York losing, Boston could have tied for the flag by a victory today and yesterday the Red Sox, after having dropped the first two games of the series to the Red Sox.

Alex Ferguson started for the Yankees today and offered the Sox hitters a single to start with. Rice followed with a single to center, Ruth forced Rice at second, Meusel to Pratt, Ruth scored on a fast ball which Hoyt got away from Schang and was credited with a wild pitch. Meusel was caught napping and Schang ended the inning by throwing out Pratt at first. Bush opened the Boston half for the home team by hitting a fast ball. Wally Pipp misjudged Wally Schang's fly and Bush reached second. Schang was hit by a pitch ball and Bush scored when Pipp's throw to the plate was wild. Hoyt then fanned Ward and Schang was caught stealing second, Wood to Pipp. Ruth scored on a single by Stuffy McInnis, Wood to Pipp. Scott, Boston's shortstop, then ended the inning by flying out to Meusel.

Bush was hit by a pitched ball in the second inning and Ward was hit by a pitched ball in the third inning. Bush was caught stealing second, Schang to Pipp, in the third inning. Ward was caught stealing second, Schang to Pipp, in the fourth inning. Bush was hit by a pitched ball in the fifth inning. Ward was hit by a pitched ball in the sixth inning. Bush was hit by a pitched ball in the seventh inning. Ward was hit by a pitched ball in the eighth inning. Bush was hit by a pitched ball in the ninth inning.

Ferguson was hit by a pitched ball in the second inning. Meusel was hit by a pitched ball in the fourth inning. Pipp was hit by a pitched ball in the sixth inning. Schang was hit by a pitched ball in the seventh inning. Ruth was hit by a pitched ball in the eighth inning. Ferguson was hit by a pitched ball in the ninth inning.

Ferguson started for the visitors and was relieved by Pennock in the seventh inning. Hoyt started for the home team and was relieved by Ehmke in the ninth inning.

Boston scored its runs in the second inning off Ferguson. Singles by Schang and Johnny Mostil, a double by Stuffy McInnis and a single by Carl Mays were the hits that brought in the runs. Mays was the only Boston player to reach second base
