MILITARY BALL PLANS COMPLETE

State-Wide Aspect Will Characterize Social Function in Tulsa

NOTABLES TO ATTEND

Governor-Elect May Attend; Also Many Army Officers

State-wide aspects will characterize the military ball to be staged by Tulsa post No. 577, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Friday evening of this week in convention hall. Governor-elect J. C. Walton will either be present in person or represented by his secretary. Aldrich Blake, State Adjutant General Charles F. Barrett and his staff will attend and military men from a number of different points in the state are planning to be here. Governor Robertson in a long-distance conversation with Post Commander Cleveland Hilson late last week offered the post the assistance of national guard troops and bands in any manner desired.

Capt. A. Esterbrook, adjutant of the first field artillery at Fort Sill, will be one of a party of officers accompanying the first artillery band, which will play at the ball.

Band to Come.

The band, arriving here early Friday morning over the M., K. & T. in special accommodations arranged by the Tulsa post, will give a public concert Friday noon in Hotel Tulsa and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon will parade through the business section of Tulsa as the flags and colors of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, Spanish-American War Veterans, G. A. R. and state national guard are borne to convention hall under the guard of a detachment from the national guard. The flags of the different military organizations will fly from their individual boxes at convention hall.

Members of the First field artillery band, expected to number about 40, will be entertained at dinner Friday evening by the auxiliary to the Veterans o Foreign Wars. A meeting of the auxiliary women to complete plans for the dinner has been called for 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Ed Woods cafe by Mrs. J. S. Capps, president.

Not Formal Affair.

Replying generally to the many inquiries on the subject, Cleveland Hilson of the V. F. W. said yesterday that formal dress was not required but that ex-soldiers are urged to wear their uniforms if possible. Tickets for the ball will be put on sale Tuesday at Hotel Tulsa, the Smokewell, Eatwell, Quaker and Johnson drug stores.

A fifteen-piece local orchestra will alternate with the artillery band in furnishing dance music. Grouped around convention hall in a horseshoe shape will be 24 boxes, several of which will be occupied by the state officials and ranking officers of the national guard and the officers and guests of other veteran military organizations, and the remaining boxes by the public. The Veterans of Foreign Wars plan to make the affair annual.

On plain white paper dated at the White House, Washington, D. C., and hand-written, the message has just come to the post. "The president and Mrs. Harding regret their inability to accept the courteous invitation of Tulsa post No. 577, Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be present at the military ball December 1."

A machine invented in England to test the resiliency of golf balls registers variations to one thousandth of an inch.
