URGE EARLY VOTE ON FRANCHISE

Give Them 60 Days to Prepare Document, Patton Suggests

The early submission to voters of Tulsa of a new franchise for the Tulsa Street Railway company was advocated at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at Hotel Tulsa, Friday noon by Dan W. Patton, county engineer. Patton suggested that the city give the street railway company 60 days in which to prepare such a document for examination, and if this request were not complied with, that a committee appointed by city officials undertake the task.

"Tulsa needs a most careful solution of its transportation problems," Patton advised. "In this respect if the present street railway company wants to handle the traffic of this city, let it arrive at a conclusion with a body of delegated men in this city and reduce their agreements to the written terms of a franchise which will be equitable to all, put up the proposed franchise to the voters and show to us what lines are to be constructed now or later.

"Let this franchise be favorable to the owner to the extent that fair values will be earned on the investment. In my opinion, the street railway company has made little effort to get at the crux of this matter in the right way."

Not less than three years would elapse before any comprehensive system of extensions could be made, Patton pointed out, and this would leave an interim in which a temporary solution must be provided. He proposed that transportation districts be created and that operating privileges be let to the lowest responsible bidder for bus lines or other motor transportation, and the revenue therefrom be used for street maintenance.

"Certainly," he added, "this would bring competition, and increase the city's revenue." It also would eliminate "the charge of favoritism as is now from some quarters flaunted at the city commission, and the plan is certainly equitable." These bus systems could be continued even after street railway extensions were made, serving patrons not within reach of street car lines.

"Jane Eyre" Famous Story at Rialto Today

Charlotte Bronte's famous novel "JANE EYRE" has been made into pictures and will be shown at the Rialto for today only. Mabel Ballin plays the name part, and is said to rise to new dramatic heights in this portrayal.

"No "best seller" of modern times has ever enjoyed such a tremendous vogue with the great American public as has "Jane Eyre."

Originally published in England, in 1847, under the pseudonym of Currer Bell, the story took London by storm, and although Thackeray's book, "Vanity Fair," was then running as a serial publication, "Jane Eyre," the first novel of an unknown author, temporarily diverted attention from the popular Thackeray and his writings.

The story soon found its way into American libraries, and since that time, down to the present day, hundreds of thousands of readers have mingled tears and smiles in following the career of the little orphan, Jane Eyre, who fought her way through poverty, through the cruelest treatment at the hands of a selfish aunt, through the heart-breaking experiences of the English charity school of seventy years ago, to the position as wife of an English squire. "Jane Eyre" is a classic, and a story that will live forever.

Fashion's Forecast

by Annabel Worthington

The Popular Long-Waisted Dress.

Fashion designers have done their best to keep the waistline long and well they have succeeded for most of the new fall frocks exploit this feature. The frock illustrated would take about a day and a half to make and if a printed and plain silk were used, it would cost about $6 figuring material at $1.50 per yard. The new materials and crepes of all kinds would adapt themselves very well to this style.

The pattern No. 1462 cuts in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 2 1-4 yards 36-inch dark material with 1 3-4 yards 36-inch light material. Price 15c, stamps or coin (coin preferred.)

Our Fall and Winter Fashion Magazine is ready. Contains over three hundred styles in addition to four pages of embroidery designs, three pages of styles worn by "movie" stars, and a six-lesson course in dressmaking. Price 19 cents per copy.

WRIT OBTAINED DELAYS TRIAL ON BRIBERY CHARGE

there is only one district courtroom here.

This, it would appear, will preclude any possibility that Governor Robertson will be brought to trial on a charge of accepting a bribe before his term of office expires on January 8, 1923.

Judge Bolen did not indicate whether it was within the provinces of Judge Thomas A. Edwards, assigned by the state supreme court to try the case to improvise a courtroom and proceed with the trial when the special term begins on January 3. Neither did he explain whether it would be necessary to hold the governor's case, which is a felony action, until such time as the criminal docket is taken up. Inasmuch as the case originated at Okmulgee and was transferred here on a change of venue, some observers are inclined to regard it as a "special" action and have expressed the belief that it can be tried at any time during the special session, even though the regular court be engaged in the trial of civil or criminal cases and despite the fact that the case is entered on the regular criminal docket here. These opinions, however, are entirely speculative and without authority.

OKMULGEE, Dec. 8.—"I have no intentions of resigning as district judge when I qualify the first of the year to participate in the bribery trial of Gov. J. B. A. Robertson," said County Attorney James Hepburn today, when informed of the action of the state supreme court which meant that the governor would not go to trial December 12, and that in all probability the trial would not be held until after the first of the year.

"Fixed," Says Hepburn.

"I will be glad to assist the county attorney of Okmulgee county if he so desires, providing it is not contrary to law for a district judge to leave the bench to assist in the prosecution of a case which arose during his own term as prosecutor," added Mr. Hepburn. He added that in his opinion, the law would permit of him leaving the district judge's bench to participate in the trial of the governor.

"In the trial of Governor Robertson, District Judge Lucien B. Wright of Sapulpa, was brought into Okmulgee for the purpose of granting a change of venue in the governor's case. He granted such a change of venue without going into the record, and the papers were all ready for a transfer of the case to Pontotoc county.

"I am satisfied within my own mind that a part of that conspiracy was to have Judge J. W. Bolen sustain the motion to quash the indictment when it was taken up at Ada, notice having been served on me that it would be taken up.

"The action of the supreme court in granting a writ of prohibition against Judge Bolen prevented it, and when Special Judge Thomas A. Edwards took his seat on the bench at Ada, the governor's attorneys very promptly withdrew the motion to quash, and presented a demurrer," said Mr. Hepburn.

No effort will be made by County Attorney Hepburn to have Judge Bolen call a special term of the Pontotoc county court, he said, remarking that he didn't intend to "recognize Judge Bolen in the case at all."

"I am not prepared to say whether I will ask Mr. Hepburn to assist me in the prosecution of Governor Robertson's case or not, I will cross that bridge when I come to it."

This was Assistant County Attorney Grant Gillespie's statement this afternoon when asked as to whether he would request Mr. Hepburn to assist.

"I have been tendered legal assistance from other sources," added Mr. Gillespie, who will become county attorney of Okmulgee county January 1.

CHRISTMAS—

¶for men is becoming more and more like the 4th of ¶July—safe and sane. The things they want are us¶ually what they need. Not a collar for the dog, but

¶a shirt for himself. Not candy but neckties. Not a ¶bottle of perfume, but good sox. Not nickle cigars, but

¶a nice pair of gloves, and of the more expensive presents

¶a nice bathrobe will prove one of "his warmest friends"

¶these frosty mornings. Our shirts are from Manhattan,

¶Ties from Cheney and our hose from Allen A, which
