HON. A. K. MCCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having through the Hon. Anson Burlingame conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

Population.

Canton.....1,900,000

Macao.....50,000

Hong-Kong.....250,000

Swatow.....200,000

Amyot.....250,000

Foo-Chow.....1,250,000

Wan-Cha.....300,000

Ningpo.....400,000

Heng-Kow.....1,200,000

Shanghai.....1,000,000

Total.....5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the commendations of the Government, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrates make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it then transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. In fact, the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter.

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree remunerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

The stock of this Company has been unanimously recommended to all capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph. Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1869, on application to DREXEL & CO., 34 South Third Street, PHILADELPHIA.

Shares can be obtained in Bedford by application to Jones & Schell, Bankers, who are authorized to receive subscriptions, and can give all the necessary information on the subject. sept29yl

The Bedford Gazette.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

1. That the federal government is limited in power to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the government and the safety of the people, and the democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

2. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the radical members of the last legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty and an outrage upon every citizen of the State, and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed and the amendment submitted to the people at the polls for acceptance or rejection.

3. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

4. That reform in the administration of the federal and State governments, and in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

5. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the condition of the laboring man has our most cordial co-operation.

6. That the legislation of the late republican Congress "outside of the Constitution," the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and sanctity of the ballot box, in the exclusion from their seats in Congress of representatives clearly elected, the establishment of military governments in States in the Union and the overthrow of all civil governments therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

7. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example an encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights.

9. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the general government is grossly unjust, and means ought at once to be adopted to cause a modification thereof.

The report was accepted and unanimously adopted.

The Gettysburg heresumused themselves the other day in designating the positions of the extreme left of the Army of the Potomac on the 24 of July. The examination of the entire field, with the noble work of pig-driving, is now almost complete. Veterans, who had expected a grand affair, have been deserting since the failure of the show became apparent on the first day, and the pig-drivers are pretty nearly left alone in their glory.

Prof. Jenkins made his promised trip over the Niagara, Wednesday of last week on a tight rope, and mounted on a bicycle. His machine was arranged so as to throw the weight under and place him virtually astride of the rope. It was a queer sight, a poor feat, but a sharp trick. Several thousand persons witnessed it.

The Governor of Colorado has called on the citizens of that country to arm and assist in the annihilation of the Indian tribes who are committing all sorts of violence and depredations there. Scouting parties sent out from Denver a few days ago, however, have returned without having seen any Indians.

The Utes and Apaches, it is feared, are visiting other tribes, now friendly to urge consolidated resistance to the Government's design of placing them upon reservations in the San Juan country. The settlers in New Mexico are very much unsettled about it.

Two miles of snow-shed on the Central Railroad, between Cisco and Summit stations, were burned on Wednesday night of last week. Considerable damage was done to the track, but was repaired in time to permit the passage of trains on Saturday.

The Spanish Government, it is announced, will send six thousand additional troops to Cuba within the next two weeks.

Ab, an American, who was recently arrested in Cuba by the Spanish authorities, has been released and is on his way home.

The Spaniards are enlisting more volunteers, black and white, in Cuba, to put down the rebellion.

They have improved upon the "square meal" in Montana. A saloon in Helena gives "cube meals" at a low price.

A Kansas reader of the Declaration of Independence on July 5th, began with, "Know all men by these presents."

The Janesville (Wis.) Gazette suspended publication for two days, "as the printers celebrate the 31 and the editors the 5th of July."

Notice.—I hereby give notice to all persons not to harbor or trust my wife SARAH, on my account, as I will not be responsible for any debts she may contract—she having left my bed and board without just cause or provocation. ANDREW POTE, Union pt. Aug 12 69*

A LIVELY APPEAL.

We find the following stirring appeal to the people in the last Carbon Democrat. As it suits in every locality, and may perhaps be of use in awakening some of the sleepy-headed Democrats in this region, we publish it entire. We trust the Democracy will heed its advice:

FORM IN LINE!

Democrats of Pennsylvania, Honest yeomanry of our grand old Commonwealth, Laboring men, Mechanics, Tradesmen, Artisans, All who pay taxes, vote, and are amenable to the laws and have an interest in their construction and faithful execution.

A great contest is upon us. A battle to be fought and we must win it!

Are you ready for the fight? Look along your line and survey the field.

Are your forces thoroughly organized? Have you your townships and sub-district clubs in active working order? Do you not know of at least one voter whom you can influence to cast his vote for Packer and a pure State administration?

Stop and think. Then appeal to the man's conscience, his ideas of honesty and rectitude; his State pride and his duty to himself and family.

The argument is all with you. Radicalism has no argument now and it never had.

It came into power in its incipient stage during a period of temporary national demerment.

It has only maintained that power by bayonets at the throats of the people in one section and by fraud and corruption in another.

As fast as the mailed hand is removed from the control of the States of the South, Radicalism dies, strangled by its own monstrous crimes.

In the northern States it has achieved temporary success through the medium of a wanton expenditure for party purposes of the people's money, and by the most outrageous and infamous system of corruption and ballot-box stuffing ever known and scarcely credible.

Can no longer scatter vast sums of money in lavish profusion to carry an election.

It has robbed the public coffers until nothing is left to steal, and the vast burden of taxation beneath which the people are now groaning is insufficient to keep up the expenses of a spendthrift administration.

Let it be hurled from power! Workingmen of Pennsylvania, be it your duty and your pride to achieve the victory.

From the mines of the mountains, From the farms of the valley, rally for Packer and Pershing! Peace and Prosperity!

A TOUCHING SCENE.

[From the Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette, July 23.]

The Jacksonville Herald and Batesville Times have lengthy accounts of the capture and imprisonment for six years, of Mr. H. H. Lee, a cousin of Gen. R. E. Lee, and formerly a citizen of Madison, in this State. In November, 1862, he was arrested in Memphis, on a charge of speculating in Confederate money, put in the Irving Block for one night, and then shipped for Camp Douglas, Illinois.—Arriving there, the officer refused to receive him, because there was no law forbidding speculation in money of any kind. The lieutenant having him in charge, then started with him to Rock Island, accompanied by seven guards. They went to Milwaukee, Wis., and were going to put Lee in jail for safe keeping until they could have a spree. About this time Lee and one of his guards, who accompanied him, escaped, but were soon recaptured. Mr. Lee was then imprisoned in Milwaukee jail, and kept in close confinement for two and a half years without a trial. At the end of that time he was taken out and sentenced (without a trial) to four years' imprisonment in the state Prison, at Madison, Wis. During these four years he was not allowed to write to his friends, or read a book or newspaper of any kind, but was effectively excluded from the world. During this time his health was good. The time for release came. He went to Cincinnati, where he heard that his wife was dead, and he could hear nothing of his child. From there he went to Memphis, where he was received by his friends as one risen from the dead, and learned the joyful news that his wife and child, the latter a grown young lady, were both living, and at Batesville. The telegraph was used in announcing to his wife his safety, and stating that he would meet her at Jacksonport on the 13th. Says the Herald:

"They met, and such a meeting as it was never occurred within our knowledge. The joy of the wife at the sight of her restored husband was too great, and swoon after swoon followed in rapid succession." From here they went to Batesville, their future home, where we leave them, trusting that a long and happy life may be vouchsafed to the happy family, and trusting that this is the last Confederate prisoner.

"Do you think, doctor," asked an anxious mother, "that it would improve little Johnny's health to take him to the springs, and let him try the water?"

"I haven't a doubt of it, madam."

"What springs would you recommend, doctor?"

"Any springs, madam, where you can find plenty of soap."

AGRICULTURAL EXPERIENCE.

1. All soils are benefitted by being under drained, but the benefit is most apparent and lasting in those of a clayey nature, or having a subsoil retentive of moisture.

2. After drainage, subsoiling and good cultivation are necessary to insure good crops on heavy soils.

3. Lime is the best manure to apply to strong clay soils. It renders them more pliable to light and heat, and also corrects their acidity, by combining with some of the chemical salts in the soil, making plant food of poison.

4. Summer fallowing is the most efficient and profitable means of preparing
