The present population of Montana is estimated at 55,000.

There are at present over 1,000,000 cattle grazing in Montana.

Another twenty-five mile section of the Northern Pacific has been accepted.

Fargo has three grain elevators, with a combined capacity of 300,000 bushels.

Gen. A. L. Lovejoy, who founded Portland, Oregon, died in that city a few days ago.

The verdict against Crow Dog has been affirmed and the death penalty has again been ordered.

A fire at Red Bank, N. J., yesterday, destroyed an entire business block with large losses, which have not yet been ascertained.

The list of the killed and wounded by the fire of the militia on the mob at Ashland foot up thirty-six. A fund has been raised for the sufferers.

It is estimated that 3,000 clerks in the government employ are absent from Washington to vote. Business in the capital city is seriously affected.

Polo Bureard, of Deadwood, got drunk at Pierre and went to sleep in a wagon, which he set on fire, it being destroyed and he so badly burned that recovery is doubtful.

The city of Fargo is supplied with water by the Holly system, and the transparent fluid of the Red River is forced through seven miles of mains to every portion of the city.

A woman is under sentence of thirty-five years' imprisonment for selling liquor at Rutland, Vt., that period being composed of 200 different terms for a like number of offenses.

There will be a quiet wedding at Valley City in a few days, as soon as the mother is well enough to become a wife. The baby will have a father, although he has been somewhat delayed.

At a meeting of the board of health of Iowa City, Ia., it was developed that not a single death occurred in that city during the entire month of October. The city has a population of 10,000.

The notorious deperado and outlaw, Lon Williams, brother of Ed. Williams, who was lynched by a mob of citizens at Durand, Wis., has been captured by the authorities of Dodge City, Kansas.

Contractor Morrison says the Bismarck bridge is the best work of his life. His next work is to be the erection of a bridge for the Sioux City & Pacific road at the point where it crosses the Missouri.

C. J. Reitzel, a machine man at Valley City, was found dead in his wareroom last Thursday, from the effects of internal hemorrhage, caused by congestion of the liver. He leaves a family at Freeport, Ill.

Edwin E. Carpenter, the missing scrip conspirator, surrendered himself at Yankton, Saturday, and asked to be relieved of $15,000 bail to the Yankton court that he might give bonds for his appearance in St. Louis.

The corporation limits of Winnipeg, Manitoba, were recently extended from an area of twelve to twenty square miles, and the expenditure this season in street improvements, sewers and other public works, has been $25,000.

A religious editor, or rather the editor of a religious paper, wrote a rebuke to a NewYork belle on account of her "trousseau worth $25,000," but the compositor got it trousers, and the good man swore for the first time in his life.

Mrs. Annie Radford, of Bellevue, O., who had left her husband on account of his cruelty, was shot by him and killed yesterday. The deed was most cold blooded, and the murderer expressed lively satisfaction at the result.

Valley City Times: The telephone exchange has been in readiness for two weeks for a man to fit up the wires and and central office, but thus far it has been impossible to secure the services of one who understands the business.

Mrs. Edson's bill for services during Garfield's illness, is not accompanied by an instrument releasing the estate, and therefore it cannot be considered by the auditing committee. The nurse is having a hard time getting that $10,000.

Kingsbury is talking temperance a little, and a canvas has been made in the town of De Smet, which shows seventy-three votes, with nine in favor of license and forty-five who oppose; seventeen are undecided, and two are non-committal.

A nugget of gold entirely free from quartz and worth $1,330, was recently found in a Forest City mine, in California. It resembled in shape a bear's paw, and the lucky finders are now searching for the remaining parts of the golden bear.

The new government survey makes the distance from Sioux City to Ft. Pierre by the Missouri river only 366 miles, while the government has heretofore been compelled to pay for transportation for 469 miles—so the saving will be over twenty per cent.

The Sioux Falls penitentiary will be occupied as soon as the heating apparatus is perfected—in about two weeks--and a portion of the prisoners at Detroit will be moved to Dakota. The first squad will include enough to put the house in order for its occupants.

The total receipts of the postal service in Dakota has increased from $133,924 in 1881, to $205,634 in 1882. It can be safely estimated that the population of the territory has grown in the same proportion. The number of inhabitants in Dakota at this time is undoubtedly over 300,000.

The scales for weighing gold in the assay office at New York are so delicate that, when brought to a balance with two pieces of paper of equal size in the pans, the mere writing of a name on one of the pieces of paper will add enough weight in the paper to turn the scales in its favor.

Custer City, in the hills, had a narrow escape last week from a wholesale fire. Children set fire to a building next to the National hotel, and as the wind was blowing strongly and there was no water obtainable, the whole business part of the town would have burned had not the fire been checked.

As heroic as any deed of the Knights of olden times, was that noble act of two hunters who walked and carried a woman who had broken her leg, eighty miles, and stopping but twice on the road to eat, until she was brought to a place where a surgeon could attend her. She is now getting along nicely at the Commercial hotel in this city.--Yellowstone Journal.

The biggest blast ever undertaken on the Pacific coast was exploded on the Oregon & California railway track. Nearly 6,000 pounds of blasting powder were used, and the shock was so tremendous that an adjacent stream was thrown out of its bed for a distance of half a mile; the highway was badly injured and effectually blockaded for the same distance, and damage was inflicted to the workmen's camp 900 yards away.

The freight business of the Northern Pacific railroad for the month of October was as follows: Freight received, 47,238,588 pounds; freight receipts on same, $125,233.89; freight forwarded, 56,250,675 pounds; receipts on same, $136,673.91. Total of freight receipst, $261,907.80. During the month the company received 7,000 tons of railroad iron by way of the lakes, making a total of over 50,000 since the beginning of the season. Receipts of coal by lake in October, 5,453 tons; shipped by rail, 4,584 tons.

A western man has been telling some Philadelphians how western cities grow. He says he went off into the mountains hunting, and, night coming on, he went to sleep in a tree to be out of reach of the wolves. He was awakened next morning by some workmen, who told him to get down and finish his nap on the court house steps, as they wanted to turn that tree into a flag pole for the hotel across the way. He got down, and while rubbing his eyes, was nearly run over by a street car and got his feet entangled in an electric light wire.

The Mandan Pioneer tells of the misfortunes of one Jack Weith, who a year and a half ago married a girl named Mitchell, who in two months after the wedding went back to her mother simply because Jack kindly told her to "wash out your mouth or leave the shack." The baby is nine months old now, and Jack went up to the maternal residence to see the same and get his dog the other day, but the ferocious mother-in-law met him at the threshhold in true cow boy style, and emphasized her dislike for Jack by sending two bullets in his vicinity. Warrants are out for the arrest of the shooter.
