FURNITURE

McKENZIE'S
137 South Third Street.

When you buy at this store it means that you get goods that you can depend on to be full value for what you pay for them.

It means giving our best knowledge, experience, our time and thought, to supplying your needs, according to your wishes; not what we want, but what you want. It means being glad to see you, and show you what you want to look at as cheerfully when you don't buy as when you do.

Every day we offer goods at a lower price than you expect to pay, and we often hear people say: "I wish that I had looked here when I first came to the city."

This week we offer special bargains in everything in our store, as we are overstocked with goods.

A large assortment of Steel Ranges with and without Water fronts at from Ten Dollars up.

Heaters at all prices, beds, steel couches, new and used rockers, dining chairs, and a great assortment of articles for the home.
