DAY DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, N. Y., November 15.—The Seventeenth Assembly District complete at 11:15 A. M. The count of first district of the Eighteenth Assembly District was objected to on grounds that the total number of votes as read was shown to be 198, whereas, it was claimed that 226 votes were really cast in the district and that the Republican Electoral ticket read 81 votes, instead of 54 as recorded. The vote of the first election district therefore, was referred to the Committee on Corrected Returns. The Twenty first Election District, of the Eighteenth Assembly District has been reached without discovery of other errors.

The canvass of the Eighteenth Assembly District was finished at noon. No other errors were found than one in the First Election District. The Nineteenth Assembly District was completed without an incident. It was resolved to request the committee on corrected returns to give preferences to the electoral tickets. The canvass of returns for the Twentieth Assembly District was complete at 12:20 without any objection being made. In the Twenty First Assembly District no objections or changes were made. Five defective ballots and four blanks were found.

The Board of Canvassers' count on the Presidential ticket in the First Assembly District, complete, gives Blaine 2275, Cleveland 4263, Butler 96, St. John 15. Fifteenth Assembly District complete, gives Blaine 4172, Cleveland 6446, Butler 215, St. John 44. Sixteenth Assembly District, complete, gives Blaine 2718, Cleveland 5319, Butler 167, St. John 15. The returns of the Twenty second Assembly District were canvassed without change. There were 10 defective and 7 blank votes. Returns for the Twenty third Assembly District were canvassed without change.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The 17th Assembly district complete gives Blaine 3265, Cleveland, 6395; Butler, 214; St. John 37. Eighteenth Assembly district complete gives Blaine 6785; Cleveland, 6253; Butler, 209; St. John, 25. Nineteenth Assembly district complete gives Blaine 4580; Cleveland, 6080; Butler, 162; St. John, 56.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15, 2 P. M.—Hasty computation by the clerk in charge of the city returns, of which the canvass has just been completed, leads him to state that the plurality for Cleveland in the entire State will be 1147. He figures that Blaine made a net gain in the city by the canvass of 130 votes. 20th Assembly District complete, Blaine 2436, Cleveland 6016, Butler 155, St. John 8; 21st Assembly District complete, Blaine 4080; Cleveland 4640, Butler 55, St. John 59; 22nd Assembly District complete, Blaine 5341, Cleveland 9104, Butler 284, St. John 64. 23d Assembly District complete, Blaine 7231, Cleveland 8842, Butler 253, St. John 152; 24th Assembly District complete, Blaine 3613, Cleveland 5359, Butler 142, St. John 98. The 7th, 8th and 11th Assembly Districts are yet incomplete.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Monroe county official count gives Cleveland 13,249, and Blaine 18,325.

General Swaim's Trial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The court martial convened by direction of the President to try the charges preferred against Judge Advocate General Swaim met this morning. The following officers composed the detail of the court: Generals Scofield, Terry, Miles, Rochester, Hollbird and Newton; Colonels S. C. Smith, Andrews, Brooke, Bradley, Ayers and Black, with Major Gardner, Judge Advocate General Swaim appeared before the court, accompanied by Judge Shellabarger of this city, whom he introduced as one of his counsel, stating he would be assisted by Jere Wilson and General Charles H. Grosvenor of Ohio. On the opening of the court General Swaim raised the question of jurisdiction. He presented the motion, stating in substance that he appeared before the court not assenting to its jurisdiction, but solely for the purpose of excepting to such jurisdiction, and praying the court to dismiss the charges and prosecution thereof for want of jurisdiction. It was also stated as a ground of objection that the accused, being an officer of the army of the United States, and Judge Advocate General of such army, was of the rank of Brigadier-General, his commander being the Lieutenant-General of the army, the President is not empowered to appoint a court martial to try the charges preferred against him, unless the charges are preferred by his commander, and that it appears from the orders convening the court, that it was appointed by the President, by special order, to try the charges by General Swaim's commander. Following the presentation of this motion Judge Shellabarger addressed the court in support of the motion, and claimed that the court was illegally constituted.

Conkling's Views.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A Post Washington special says: President Arthur's friends are satisfied he can succeed Lapham in the Senate should he so desire. Conkling had no expectation of securing the Senatorship. Conkling, it is further stated, could confidently say that Arthur would be a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination in 1888.

New York Disinfecting.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A special says the Sun publishes the following: The health officers expect the arrival of cholera in New York early next summer, and will not be surprised if sporadic cases appear sooner. They are making preparations by removing the causes of infection, including cleanliness among the tenement population, closing wells which are found to be impregnated with sewerage, and reducing as far as possible the number of vaults, of which there are 20,000 in the city.

Mormons Going to Colorado.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 15.—A large number of Mormons were at the Union depot this morning, who had arrived from Chattanooga, Tennessee, and were on their way to Colorado. The crowd was a promiscuous one, in which the fashionably dressed mixed freely with those who were clad in clothes which were shabby. Nearly all the women of the party carried babies in their arms, and numerous other young ones hung to their mother's apron strings. Elder Roberts, one of the party, said the reason why the Mormons were changing their settlement, was because Colorado and Utah offered more advantages to people of their sect. The Mormons have established a permanent settlement in Colorado, and no doubt a great number of those who belong to that sect will follow the present emigrants. In fact, from Elder Roberts' conversation, it looked as if there was going to be a general influx of Mormons into Colorado.

More Losers by January.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 15.—Included in the amount of money stolen by Deputy State Treasurer January from various counties were $6485.52 from Y. Yudart, of Santa Barbara county, and $3799.92 from William Jorris of San Diego county.

Adjudication of Insolvency, Stay of Proceedings and Order of Publication of Notice to Creditors.

In the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

In the matter of Jean Marie Vignes, an Insolvent Debtor.

Jean Marie Vignes having filed in this Court his petition, schedule and inventory in insolvency, which petition it appears that he is an insolvent debtor, the said Jean Marie Vignes is hereby declared to be insolvent. The Sheriff of the county of Los Angeles is hereby directed to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the said Jean Marie Vignes, debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee of his estate. All persons are forbidden to pay any debts to the said insolvent, or to deliver any property belonging to him, or to any person, firm, or corporation or association for his use. And the said debtor is hereby forbidden to transfer or deliver any property, until the further order of this Court, except as herein ordered.

It is further ordered, that all the creditors of said debtor be and appear before the Honorable M. P. Smith, a Judge of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, in open Court, at the Court Room of said Court, in the city and County of Los Angeles, on the 10th Day of November, 1884,

At 10 o'clock A. M., of that day, to prove their debts and choose one or more assignees of the estate of said debtor.

It is further ordered, that the order be published in the LOS ANGELES DAILY HERALD, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the City and County of Los Angeles, as often as the said paper is published, before the said day set for the meeting of creditors.

And it is further ordered, that, in the meantime, all proceedings against the said insolvent be stayed.

Dated October 1st, 1884.

HENRY M. SMITH, Judge of the Superior Court.
