Notice.

WE extended indulgence to some of our customers during the Summer and Fall, with the assurance of being paid when the crop was gathered and sold. The crop having been gathered and prepared for market, we would now most earnestly request our friends to come forward and discharge their indebtedness, so as to enable us to meet our engagements.

In all kindness we make this appeal, believing that our friends will respond promptly.

CHEAP!

"HE that provides not for his own family is worse than an infidel." I will give a policy in a perfectly reliable Company on the life of any healthy man, on the following terms: One-half the amount of the Premium to be paid in Cash, or at three months credit, if not convenient to pay the cash at once—the other half, note, at 6 per cent interest; the principal of which will probably never be called for. The party insuring will pay the following sums:

At 25 years of age, annually, $10.00 cash, and note for $10.00 at 6 per cent.

At 30 years of age, annually, $11 50 cash, and note for $11 50 at 6 per cent.

At 35 years of age, annually, $12.85 in cash, and note for $12.85 at 6 per cent.

At 40 years of age, annually, $13.85 cash, and note for $15 85 at 6 per cent.

At 50 years of age, annually, $22.40 cash, and note for $22 40 at 6 per cent.

Intermediate ages, and over and under ages, pro rata.

These premiums will secure $1000 at death, and larger sums in proportion. The cash rates will be paid in a few years, by dividends, as the party becomes a stockholder, and is entitled to dividends. Call and get further instruction.
