Circular No. 1.

AGREEABLE to orders Head Quarters Assistant Commissioner's Office, all contracts for the year 1868 must be in printed form owing to the many irregularities heretofore existing in the drawing of such papers.

Hours shall be approved vouchers drawn strictly in accordance with such forms.

Contracts are now being approved and blanks furnished at this Office.

It will be borne in mind, that under the order of the Commanding General of the 2d Military District, wages for labor performed in the production of the crop, are a lien upon the crop, and that such lien has a preference over other liens upon it.

Freedmen are advised to work only for those who have settled fairly with their hands for past services, and who will be able to supply them with such food as they may need while raising the crop.

AN APPEAL

IS made to the debtors of the Estate of D. Lidlowe to pay the interest due on their bonds to said Estate. Let debtors remember that a large number of indigent and orphan children of this our own District, are supported and educated at Lethe, and depend at on the funds, and that the institution may fail if the interest be longer withheld. If such considerations do not weigh with law abiding debtors, it is hoped they will be regarded by the reflecting and humane.

MERCHANTS ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LOW PRICE OF COTTON!

WE beg leave to call the attention of our customers who are in arrears, to whom we sold Goods last year, upon promises "to pay as soon as they could sell some cotton," to the above fact. We have waited with them just as long as we possibly can do consistently with our own interest. The maintainance of our credit depends, in a great measure, upon the promptness of our customers to fulfill their engagements with us, and we do most respectfully and most earnestly call upon all who are indebted, to come forward and make immediate payment. Longer delay will be detrimental to us, and will very materially impair our ability to extend them indulgence during the year upon which we have just entered.
