ECZEMA CAME FROM TEETHING

Watery Festers Dried in Scabs. Would Dig and Scratch Her Face. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and Was Cured.

"When my little girl was about eight months old, she was taken with a very irritating breaking out, which came on her face, neck and back. When she first came down with it, it came in little watery-like festers under her eyes, and on her chin, then after a few days it would dry down in scaly, white scabs. In the daytime she was quite worrysome and would dig and scratch her face nearly all the time.

"I consulted our physician and found she was suffering from eczema, which he said came from her teething. I used the ointment he gave me and without any relief at all. Then I wrote for a book on Cuticura, and purchased some Cuticura Soap and Ointment at the drugstore. I did as I found directions in the Cuticura Booklet, and when she was one year old, she was entirely cured. Now she is three years and four months, and she has never been troubled with eczema since she was cured by the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Freeman Craver, 311 Lewis St., Syracuse, N. Y., May 6, 1911.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are sold throughout the world, but to those who have tried the usual remedies and found them wanting, and who have lost faith in everything, a liberal sample of each, with 32-p. book on the skin, will be sent post-free, on application to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 2A, Boston, Mass.

MRS. HERN AWARDED MEDAL FOR BRAVERY

Mrs. Margaret King Hern, aged seventy-four years, bearer of a medal of honor from the United States government for bravery, spent Sunday in Bismarck and left yesterday for St. Paul where she will visit her daughters. Mrs. Hern has just made a five-year proof of a homestead at Glencoe

The deed for which the lady received the medal is recorded in history. It was way back in 1862 and Mrs. Hern was with her husband at Fort Ridgeley, Minn. The Indians had planned a massacre of the garrison. Indian women were sent into the fort as spies and Mrs. Hern suspecting treachery, kept the squaws prisoners for two days and nights. Overcome with fatigue the third night the brave woman slept and the Indians disappeared. A few hours an attack was made on the fort, but the delay secured by the squaws being held captive enabled the soldiers to muster their force and a slaughter of the whites was averted. The heroic deed will live in history. When the particulars reached Washington the brave woman was awarded a medal and it is one of her proudest posessions to day.

Mrs. Hern visited the state museum some time ago. In an interview with Curator Fish yesterday she agreed to write a history of her experience so that it may be preserved in the state historical society.

D., Sept. 12.—There is a move afoot among the business men of this city and of Nelson county to send the North Dakota state band east next fall, the plan being that it accompany the commission which is to present the silver service to the battleship North Dakota. WEALTHY INDIANS STOP OFF AT STATE CAPITAL

Tom Smith and Louis Baker, two full blood Indians were in the city yesterday and took in the sights under the chaperonage of Curator Fish, of the state historical society.

These Indians are educated and very gentlemanly in their department. They reside in the Fort Berthold reservation at Elbowoods, where they have large property interests. Mr. Smith had been down to St. Paul, accompanied by Mr. Baker, where they marketed 1,000 head of cattle. It took a train of forty-eight care to haul the beef animals and the amount of cash received for them ran above the $50,000 mark.

While in the Twin Cities Messrs. Smith and Baker purchased a large stock of merchandise and will open a general store at Elbowoods. The opening of the reservation to settlers it is expected will bring many people to Elbowoods, and that will be an important traveling point. Louis Baker is a dealer in fine horses and he has several hundred head on his range. Messrs. Smith and Baker can give their white brothers lessons in money getting. Both are wealthy.

They showed great interest in the Indian relics and history at the state museum and volunteered much information concerning the Mandans. Among the points of interest visited was the state penitentiary.

M'DONALD SENTENCED TO TEN YEARS IN PEN

Tuesday morning in the district court Judge Winchester pronounced sentence upon William McDonald, found guilty of sodomy. McDonald must serve ten years at hard labor at the state penitentiary. Before passing sentence the court lectured the defendant severely.

The jury in the case of the State versus Eva Wilson, who was charged with violation of the prohibition law, found the defendant not guilty.

The next case to be taken up was that of the State versus Harry Lively, alias George Thomas, alias Oscar Peterson. Thomas, as he is called here, was the man who blew open the safe at the Goodrich-Call office, following it up on the succeeding night with a robbery of the Bismarck Implement company.

The jury in the Thomas case we secured just before dinner, and the testimony was heard immediately after court convened in the afternoon. At 3 o'clock the state rested, and the attorneys began their addresses to the jury at 3:30 o'clock. It is though that the case will go to the jury this evening and that the verdict will be rendered before midnight.

An interesting feature of the Thomas trial centers in the exhibits used during the hearing. There is on exhibition a kit of burglar's tools, dynamite caps, nytroglycerine caps, as well as other equipment of a cracksman.

McDONALD IS FOUND GUILTY OF SODOMY

When the case of the state vs. J. Riley was called in district court this morning the defendant was absent. His attorney was present, however, with an affidavit from his physician stating that Riley is ill in a hospital and his life would be endangered by an appearance in court at this time. The case against Riley is an old one and the court records disclose that the same kind of a showing was made a year ago. The state's attorney made a motion that the trial proceed in the absence of the defendant, and the attorney for Riley held that such a procedure is illegal. After some argument the court announced that he would take the matter under advisement. Riley is charged with pigging.

After remaining out all night the jury in the Walter McDonald sodomy case returned a verdict at 9 o'clock yesterday morning finding the defendant guilty. Sentence will be pronounced later.

Eva Wilson and Ray Sheeley, charged with illegal liquor selling, were to be tried this morning. When the case was called neither appeared and the sheriff was sent after them. The woman was brought into court, but Sheeley could not be found. It was announced that he is over the river working with a threshing outfit, and that he would be on hand for trial in a few days. A jury was then selected to try the case of Eva Wilson.
