

Mr. Henry M. Lewis, Montgomery, Alabama, is our general...

SENATOR CLAY, OF ALABAMA.

An esteemed correspondent in Alabama, and an old contributor of the Union, takes occasion, in a private letter just received from him, to speak of the talents and services of Senator Clay in the warmest language of commendation.

REPUBLICAN PAPERS PERPETUATING THEIR OWN INFAMY IN ABUSE OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

If there is a man living without guile in his heart, or free from cause of personal reproach, it is Chief Justice Taney. A gentler or kinder heart does not beat.

THEIR OWN INFAMY IN ABUSE OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

It is difficult at this day to realize the state of public opinion in relation to that unfortunate race which prevailed in the civilized and enlightened portions of the world at the time of the Declaration of Independence.

THEIR OWN INFAMY IN ABUSE OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE.

The republican papers, without exception, have omitted to publish the opinion of the Chief Justice, or that of any one of the judges concurring with him.

COMMERCE OF NEW ORLEANS.

The export and shipments from New Orleans of domestic products during the last quarter were $23,567,036, and for the year $91,514,286.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND REVIVING THE SLAVE TRADE.

It has for a long time been apparent to close observers of events that England, to retrieve the disastrous effects of West Indian emancipation, was assiduously engaged in introducing slavery into her many southern colonies, under new forms and appellations.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND REVIVING THE SLAVE TRADE.

France, we find, is about to follow the example of England, and import to Algeria some ten thousand African immigrants. She and England are adding hypocrisy to crime.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND REVIVING THE SLAVE TRADE.

All this is a gross violation of the spirit, intent, and common-sense construction, if not of the letter, of the treaty of those nations with America to suppress the slave trade.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND REVIVING THE SLAVE TRADE.

Some of the Fremont editors out West appear to be as unfortunate as the Fremont preachers in the way of getting into ugly scrapes.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND REVIVING THE SLAVE TRADE.

The New York Times having given publicity to a rumor that the actual incumbent of the Archbishopric of New York, having incurred the serious displeasure of the head of his church, is on the point of being subjected to ecclesiastical discipline, a reply appears from Archbishop Hughes, in which he ridicules the whole story.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

This distinguished gentleman returned to his residence in Clearfield, Pennsylvania, last week, from a visit to the West. During his absence, he journeyed for several weeks in Kansas, and the result of his observations in that Territory is thus given in an editorial article which we find in the Clearfield Republican of the 21st instant.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Senator Bigler returned to his home a few days since, after a tour through several of the western States and Territories, in the health and spirits. Mr. B. spent some weeks in Kansas, visiting all the principal towns and settlements, and came away highly delighted with the general appearance of the country.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

He speaks in terms of the highest commendation of the sober, industrious, and enterprising people who met in this Territory, and of their reasonable and conservative views on the political questions which have constantly agitated the popular mind in that region.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

It may not be improper at this point to notice several resolutions which were passed by the pensioned correspondents of the black-republican press; one of which is that found in a letter giving an account of the "Wea land sales," in which it is stated that Governor Walker, Mr. Stanton, and Senator Bigler made speeches abusive of the free-State party, and that they were driven from the stand by the pro-slavery ruffians from Leocompton.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The utmost good feeling prevailed during the remarks of the other speakers, and each retired amidst the hearty plaudits of the audience. But Mr. F. unhappily commenced to review the pro-slavery resolutions, and to denounce the principles; and, finally, commenced to name prominent citizens who were present, and attribute to them the commission of grave offenses.

SENATOR BIGLER, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Another story is found in a letter from Leavenworth of the 10th of July, in which it is stated that it is rumored that Gov. Walker and Senator Bigler, of Pennsylvania, had purchased some 20,000 acres of timber land in Indiana, subject to the approval of the government.

THE CANVAAS IN GEORGIA.

The editor of the Savannah Georgian, who has just returned from a visit to southwestern and Cherokee Georgia, says: "We have never before, at the same season during a political campaign, noticed so little of what is termed political excitement. The people seem to be fully settled in their convictions, and not to desire to renew the excitement attendant on the two last campaigns in Georgia."

KANSAS.

The Louisiana Courier closes an article on Kansas affairs as follows: "If an active emigration from the North, though impeded more by financial than by political difficulties, is a pre-requisite in Kansas over the emigration from the slaveholding States—if the emigrants from the latter are divided in sentiment, as they were at home in Missouri and other States whence they came—if the numerous land speculators from Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri favor the free State movement, and the balance of the profits from the purchase of lands—if all these influences make Kansas a non-slaveholding State, as the more recent news from that Territory indicates, we cannot see any reason of justice in blaming the democratic party for that result. Our opponents will make vigorous efforts thus to impale the blame, but they will find the game a losing one."

KANSAS.

The Kansas Herald of Freedom of July 18 says that a very large majority of the people are opposed to any further action under the Topeka constitution. The Herald used to be, if it is not now, an organ of the "shriekers."

NAVAL COURTS.

There have been many interesting episodes, and many exhibitions of eloquence and ability, both on the part of those who are defending their rights and their honor before these courts, and those who are placed by law as the representatives of the government.

NAVAL COURTS.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Court: My fitness for the naval service under the act of Congress of the 15th of February, 1857, is the question which is to be referred to you. It involves the investigation of four attributes. Three of these are the mental, professional, and moral character of the officer; the fourth his physical condition.

NAVAL COURTS.

It is far from me to charge it to any improper motives. I have no reason to doubt, and do not therefore doubt that they thought it their duty to pronounce it. The wrong they have in fact done me was but the result of the mode of proceeding which they thought proper to adopt. Had an opportunity been afforded to justify my conduct, I should not have been so unjustly treated.

NAVAL COURTS.

It is my case the possession of moral character in all respects but in a single one is conceded. I am a comrade, friend, son, and brother, and am not only not questioned, but positively proved by witnesses of high character having every opportunity of knowledge. The solitary exception is, that on three or four occasions, each of duty, on shore, and convivial in the whole period of my service, I have been guilty of drinking wine, more or less, under the influence of intoxicating drink.

NAVAL COURTS.

A NATIONAL DISUNION CONVENTION. A call has been issued by Garrison and his party for a "national disunion convention." Of course, (says the Philadelphia Journal) the body will be composed of those frothy elements which are perceptible in the anti-slavery convocations of Massachusetts.

THE BOSTON COURIER.

The Boston Courier, which has been doing good service in citing the folly and dangers of those who adhere to modern ideas of spiritual developments, now says, in explanation of some peculiar phenomenon, that— "There are men and women, doubtless, who write this communication from the dead, honestly believing that the spirits of the departed are able to guide their hands. It is not difficult to acquire this faculty. The experiment was tried by a philosophical thinker with remarkable results. Scribbling incoherently for a few days, while his mind was at the same time occupying itself with a train of connected thoughts, he arrived at a point when his hand moved rapidly over the paper, writing sentences, paragraphs, and whole pages of which he had no recollection after the writing was completed. It is not very surprising that persons who fall into this habit, and who are ignorant of the abnormal action of the mind, should fancy themselves under the influence of spirits external to themselves. But when they find the utter fallacy of these supposed communications, it is surprising that they do not begin to suspect the fallacy of their belief."

THE BOSTON COURIER.

The talk now is, that Mr. Robert C. Winthrop is to be the democratic candidate for governor, and that he will be supported by the few whigs who are yet on earth, and by those Americans who still follow the fortunes of Gov. Gardner. We hope the report is true, and that there will be a coalition in support of the democratic candidates for State officers of all the pro-slavery opposition.

THE BOSTON COURIER.

The Traveller is not the most reliable source of information in regard to the prospective movements of conservative men; yet it may be correct in the above announcement, and we hope it is. Mr. Winthrop would do honor to Massachusetts, or any other State, as its chief magistrate; and although nominally an old-line whig, he cannot be far from the position now held by the democrats.—Journal of Commerce.

THE BOSTON COURIER.

THE FOURTH IN CANADA.—The Woodstock (Canada) Sentinel refers to the unfurling of an American flag in that town on the 4th, and says: "It is with feelings of unmingled pleasure that we see the bonds of friendship between Canada and our neighbors in the United States becoming daily more strongly cemented, and we heartily welcome the return of those happy seasons as the 24th of May and the 4th of July as times peculiarly adapted for an interchange of friendly feelings and sentiments."

THE BOSTON COURIER.

A CURIOUS DEED.—A Lawrence (K. T.) letter of the 13th inst. furnishes the following: "A very novel incident has occurred to-day. This morning Richard Raef, of your city, but formerly from England, who has been an occasional correspondent for the Boston Herald, and who has been very liberally rewarded for his services as a retraction of his wholesale charges upon letter-writers in Lawrence. Brown did not retract. Raef set him a challenge, and it was accepted under the strictest pledge of secrecy. Brown chose for the weapons cut-throats; the place he wanted should be one of his office rooms. Raef accepted the challenge, but not the place. He would have been privately arranging the affair nearly all day, and just before sunset Brown was seen crossing the river into the timber opposite, and Raef but a short distance behind. Here their second found another difficulty. They were both stripped naked to their waists, when Brown insisted that Raef should not strike his head nor below his waist, but Raef refused any such condition, saying he would strike wherever he could. Further details I will omit, only they were unable to agree about the manner, and did not fight; but the matter is not settled, and Raef is intending to have either more 'fun or feasters' to-morrow."

Frank.—Information has been received, under date of July 7, from W. S. H. Newman, United States consul at St. John, Newfoundland, of the arrival at that place of a part of the crew of the ship Thos. M. Rogers, of Bath, Maine, which vessel sank at sea on the 21st of June last. The following individuals were lost: Nath. Thompson, master, of Bath; John Sawyer, first officer, of Portland; — Cross, second officer; the cook and steward, (both Chihuans); and Henry Smith, a boy of Windsor, England.
