WILL SOLDIERS LOSE MONEY?

The Ninth Infantry May Forfeit Extra Pay in China.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The impression prevails in the paymaster general's office, War Department, that the Ninth Infantry, which is to proceed from Manila to China, will incur substantial money loss in doing so. By the act of May 26 last, Congress provided that the United States troops on duty in the Philippines, Porto Rico and Cuba should be allowed 20 per cent additional for the officers and 20 per cent additional pay for the privates. Up to that time the pay department has been paying the men some bonus, under the act of April 26, 1898, which permitted war pay to soldiers serving outside of the United States. The pay officers regarded the latter act as taking the place competely of the former, as China is not one of the places specified where additional pay may be given, the Ninth Infantry will lose a very substantial sum of money by being called into extra hazardous service. As it is evident, however, that this was not the intent of Congress, the Comptroller of the Treasury today was called upon by the War Department for a formal construction of the law in this case, in the hope that he may find some means of preventing injustice from being worked.

WILL IMPROVE

Great Changes in the Hawaiian.

Two More Stories and Several New Cottages Will be Added at Once.

The Hawaiian Hotel is to become a modern hostelry. It is the purpose of the proprietor, Col. G. W. Macfarlane, and those interested with him, to commence alterations in the old structure that will make it as commodious and comfortable as any hotel on the Coast.

Architect Traphagen is getting out the plans and specifications of the changes and additions and is rushing work on them so that the builders can transform the old building at once. Col. Macfarlane on his recent trip made a study of the needs of guests who are skirting the globe, and concluded that the old Hawaiian Hotel had to be altered. Since his arrival here he has been in consultation with the architect and the changes which he desires made are as follows:

Two new stories will be added to the main building, making it four stories in height. The outside will be made to correspond with the modern lanais, and every hotel convenience will be added. An elevator will also be put in.

Between the main hotel building and Alakea street are a number of old cottages which will be torn down, and in their place will be erected commodious structures much like the two new ones which were put up at the rear of the hotel. It is the intention to make all the outer structures similar in appearance. Hitherto there has been no attempt to preserve any order of architecture.

Between the kitchen and Alakea St. a driveway of about fifteen feet will be opened up, and the rest of the space will be devoted to additional buildings with an arch connecting with the buildings on the makai side of the present drive way. A corridor will connect with the hotel lanai on the Ewa side, so that the guests will not be required to go through the grounds, as at present.

Expected competition in the hotel business has made it imperative that the old Hawaiian Hotel should increase its accommodations and conveniences. It has a central location, and its old associations are such that it will always be sought by travelers. Just as soon as the plans and specifications are ready the bids will be called for and operations commenced as early as possible.

THE VERY LATEST.

A Georgia Scheme to Encourage Matrimony.

NEW YORK, June 26.—W. S. Witham of Georgia is here with a party of 117. It is one of the most curious aggregations in make-up that ever landed in the metropolis. It consists of the cashiers of thirty-two Georgia banks of which Witham is president; superintendents of nine Georgia cotton mills which he owns, and enough other employes of his, with the assistance of five bankers' brides and maidens to whom Mr. Witham is anxious to marry his bachelor cashiers, to make up the total mentioned.

The trip is one of the kind Witham gives annually for the purpose of encouraging matrimony among his employes. Each year he takes on a trip with the party the most beautiful young women he can find in the South. A minister accompanies the party and performs marriage ceremonies whenever Cupid shoots his dart during the trip. Witham pays all expenses. Now there are only five bridal couples, but Witham thinks he discerned at Asbury Park indications which pointed to an increase in the tally, and Rev. Dr. Heidt of the party is ready and willing to perform the ceremony at a moment's notice. Witham is an earnest believer in early matrimony, and hopes to get rid of all his bachelor cashiers without losing a man.

CIVIL SERVICE.

Many Custom Men's Names Sent to Washington.

The Custom Bureau is now under civil service rules. The names of the officers of the local department have been forwarded to the treasury department at Washington, there to be entered on the civil service list as qualified without examination. All this is an important matter with the local customs men. The positions are permanent according to the rules and there can be no dismissals without good cause. Those put on the list have life appointments.

In addition to the names of the collector and deputies, the following have been sent to Washington:

Inspectors George W. Keister, E. A. Jacobsen, M. J. Scanlan, E. E. Muller, H. M. Tucker, R. Henderson, C. A. de Cew, R. J. Taylor, Herman Dinklage, L. L. La Pierre, L. N. Gay, R. M. Macaulay, C. E. Carter, J. T. Wirud, R. H. Bemrose, J. Hodson, F. L. Beringer, T. A. Winston, J. E. Sheehan, A. E. Mitchell, J. W. Doyle, C. . . Neal, T. C. White, C. H. Dinfer, Clerks Kelley Brown, James Gibson, R. L. Barnes, A. G. Dickens, E. Stratemeyer, E. H. Boyen, M. G. Johnson, B. R. Rice, E. S. McGrew, J. H. Kakuell; Examiners R. Weedon, E. R. Folson, J. J. Kelly; Gauger A. B. Ingalls, Weigher John W. Short.

From Inhaling Coal Dust.

NEW YORK, June 23.—A curious case of appendicitis is reported from Hazleton, Pa. Surgeons operating on Dennis Gallagher, a miner, in the State Hospital there, found his trouble was caused by two lumps of coal the size of peas. It is not known whether the lumps were swallowed whole or formed in the appendix from coal dust which Gallagher inhaled.

Smooth as oil, exquisitely flavored; absolutely pure; never a headache in it, equally valuable as a beverage or a medicine—such is the famous old Jesse Moore "AA" Whiskey.
