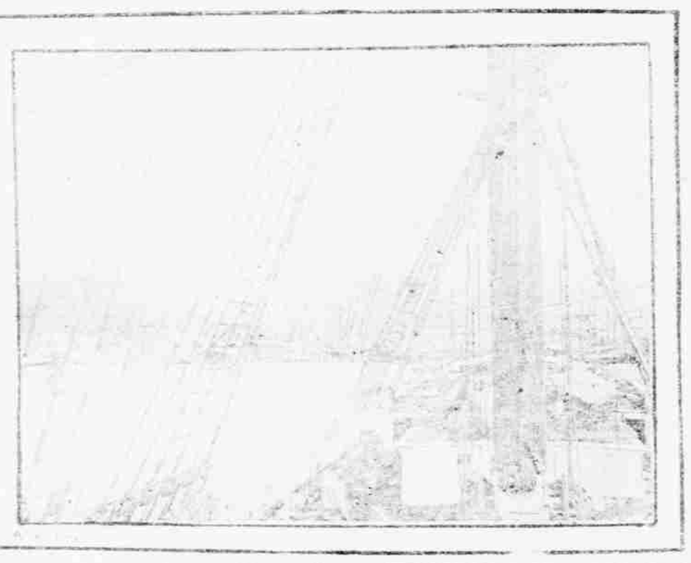
AMONG THE MASTS



MAITAI MAKES LAST APPEARANCE HERE

Had the Maitai been the Maranna or the Marama or the Maranna or the Marama she would have had full cabins from Vancouver and Victoria to Honolulu, but when inquiries passengers found that the steamer was only the off Mowera masquerading under a new and shorter name they balked and decided to wait a month for a better boat. They will get the Marama and although not the largest, she is one of the best of the Canadian-Australian line. Therefore, when the Maitai arrived in port yesterday afternoon and was brought neatly alongside the Alakea wharf by Pilot Macaulay, her decks were noticeably conspicuous by the absence of passengers. For Honolulu she had three cabin passengers, and the through list numbered about a baker's dozen. The entire saloon passenger list numbered only twenty-one persons.

Of the through passengers two are American naval officers—Lieutenant Little and Lieutenant McDowell, en route to Pago Pago, Tutuila, Samoa, to join their warship.

The Maitai is commanded by Captain Phillips who may succeed to the command of the Manuka. Purser Coxill does not know what is to become of him. He has had no intimation that his services will be drafted for the Manuka. He has had a long career with the Canadian Australian boats on this run and he is considered one of the most obliging pursers on the run.

The Maitai brought thirty tons of general cargo for Honolulu, and is taking away a small amount of freight, principally for the Greigs at Fanning Island. The Maitai experienced fine weather throughout. The Marama was passed two days ago. She was steaming along easily.

China In and Out.

The Pacific Mail steamship China arrived from Yokohama yesterday morning, moored alongside the Channel wharf, took on a lot of coal, and departed for San Francisco at 5 o'clock, taking about thirty nine cabin passengers here. The China had an uneventful voyage. She brought twenty two more Russians who were taken to the immigration station for observation. The China brought seventeen passengers for Honolulu, and she carries a small through list.

For an hour before the China sailed last evening her decks resembled an animated flower garden. The passengers leaving Honolulu for the Coast were laden with beautiful lei and a big reception was held. Surgeon Langhorne, who has been attached to the quarantine station for the past two years, and Mrs. Langhorne, left for Washington. A large number of friends among the service and civilians as well gave them a rousing send-off. Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Miss Alice Cooke and Theodore Cooke, were also the recipients of many floral attentions from a large number of friends. They go to Europe for an indefinite stay. Theodore Cooke returns to Boston in September to attend college. Mrs. Henry Waterhouse and Miss Nina Sturgeon were also seen off. D. W. Parker, who was on the way to the vessel when she stranded. When the captain realized his predicament he dropped over his rear anchors and took in the slack. There was a hole in the vessel's hull and her cargo disappeared soon after she struck.

Middleton Relieved.

Captain Middleton of the United States lighthouse tender Kukui has been relieved of command of the Kukui and will probably be given an assignment as first mate on a revenue cutter doing duty on one of the Great Lakes. Captain Middleton was practically only in temporary command of the Kukui since Captain Johnson was relieved of command. The vessel and officers are under the direct command of Lieutenant-Com. Victor Houston, United States navy, who is the assistant to the lighthouse inspector for the twelfth district. The matter has been under consideration for several weeks.

Shipping Notes.

The Japanese steamer Niigata Maru is being unloaded at the Alakea wharf.

The schooner Mary E. Foster was put on the marine railway yesterday for an overhauling.

In honor of the arrival of Captain Houdlette, now in command of the Oceanic steamship Sierra, the bark Colonsay was decked out with flags and bunting yesterday. Captain Houdlette was recently in command of the sailing vessel.

Hilo newspapers offer objections to the proposed change of sailing schedule for the steamer Mauna Kea, on the ground that the vessel will arrive at Hilo at a much earlier hour, and thus prevent passengers from remaining at the Hawaii metropolis, but on the other hand encourage them to proceed immediately to the volcano.

A. M. Culver, who arrived on the Sierra and is the accredited agent for the Oceanic Steamship Company at Los Angeles, speaking for Secretary Wiggins of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, states that the Los Angeles people still hope to put on a line of steamers between Los Angeles and Honolulu. The announcement is not new.

The following sugar awaits shipment on Hawaii: Olaa, 26,800; Waiakea, 2,000; Hawaii Mill, 1800; Waimanu, 11,500; Onomea, 10,000; Pepeekeo, 7300; Honomu, 16,300; Hakalau, 9500; Laupahoehoe, 3000; Ookala, 1300; Kukaiau (O.), 898; Kukaiau (H.), 1102; Hamakua, 900; Paauhau, 7400; Honokaa, 15,500; Kukaiolo, 11,034; Punaluu, 22,820; Honuapo, 3400.

The schooner Alaska, which is ready for sea again, has had an unings with a few Russians. Captain Weitkunat had two or three Russians aboard who were to act as sailors in the trip to Bellingham. Yesterday morning three Russians went aboard, and the captain, fearing trouble, ordered them off the vessel. They refused, and when he threatened to call the police they said they were not afraid of the police. The police officers were summoned, but first found the Russians on the wharf, where Sailors' Union Agent Sorenson had persuaded them to go before trouble arose.
