Many pretty little dinner parties were given on Thursday evening previous to the dance at the Outrigger Club. H. W. Walker was the host at a prettily appointed table where covers were laid for Miss Isel and Mrs. Lawrence Rees, Major and Mrs. Samuel Dunning, Mrs. Bonner, Miss Ellen Rhodes, Miss Annie Greenwell, Mr. Walker, Bruce Cartwright and Mr. Banning. Doctor and Mrs. Charles Bryant Cooper had as their guests Mrs. Gray and Miss Eva Gray of Los Angeles, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Stockman. Lt. Governor Cleghorn presided at a stag dinner party at which covers were laid for Colonel A. G. Hawes, Samuel Damon and F. A. Schaefer. L. M. Vannesse had as his guests Doctor and Mrs. George Herbert, Doctor and Mrs. Johnstone of Fort Shafter and the houseguest Miss Allan and Lieutenant Clifton at Fort Shafter. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Damon were the honored guests of Gustav Schaefer. Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Spalding gave a large dinner in honor of their three daughters, Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Bowen and Miss Spalding.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Edith Mist gave a swimming party in compliment to Miss Meier at the Davies home at Waikiki on Friday afternoon. After a delightful swim the guests were served with refreshments on the lanai. Those present were Miss Meier, Miss Mist, Miss Kepke, Miss Gras, Miss Spalding, Miss Blanche Soper, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Beatrice Holsworth, Miss Marjorie Freeth, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Ellinger and Miss Wickstrum.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Irene Young of Salt Lake City and Miss Louise McCarthy were the guests of honor at a Stanford dinner given by Miss Thelma Murphy on Wednesday.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Daisy Gras presided at a charming luncheon at the British Consulate on Friday at which covers were laid for Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Meier, Miss Beatrice Holsworth, Miss Katharine Stephens, Miss Ethel Spalding, Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Dorothy Wood and the hostess.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. E. R. Day and Miss Jessica Irwin are the houseguests for several weeks of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey at their mountain home.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Ada Rhodes was the hostess on Thursday afternoon at a bridge whist party given in honor of Miss Helen Kimball. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. Arthur Davidson. Those present were Mrs. Arthur Wilder, Mrs. Harvey Murray, Mrs. Arthur Davidson, Mrs. Frederick Damon, Mrs. James Dougherty, Miss Irene Dickson and Miss Helen Kimball.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Herbert and their daughter, Mrs. English, are receiving a warm welcome home after their long absence.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. T. Clive Davies will entertain tomorrow afternoon with a tea in honor of Mrs. Edward Simpson, the wife of Canon Simpson of St. Andrews.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Alice Roth will leave on the Mauna Kea on Tuesday morning for an outing of three weeks at the Volcano House.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. F. O. Hall and Miss Charlotte Hall are spending the hot days at their summer home at the peninsula.

❧ ❧ ❧

The Princess Kawananakoa received a royal welcome from her legion of friends upon her arrival on the Sierra on Friday morning. Several parties went out in launches to meet the steamer and took a Hawaiian quintet along. The Princess has opened her house and will spend the few weeks she is here at home, but she is not planning to do any elaborate entertaining as her visit is to be a very short one, probably not over two or three weeks. This is a cause of deep regret to her friends who had planned many little affairs in her honor.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. Hugh Redman, wife of Captain Redman, U. S. N., of the cruiser Cleveland, arrived yesterday on the Siberia from the Far East and will remain here about ten days or during the time her husband remains in this port. She will move aboard after the cruisers depart for Mare Island and will await her husband in San Francisco.

"Arcadia," the beautiful home of Chancellor and Mrs. Walter F. Frear, was the scene of a brilliant community affair Friday evening when the guests of the College Club assembled to witness the play given by the members of the club in honor of the graduating class. The department of this year's Theatricals was most ambitious, the college scenes being reproduced in the open before a crowded audience. The girls were at their best and the play was pronounced by all who were fortunate enough to secure invitations, one of the most successful productions ever given by the College Club. For this performance could have so enhanced the scene as the broad green lawns, rising by long low steps onto the pillared veranda, with its groups of palms and creeping vines. No drop curtain was needed, soft rich rugs, a statuary throne chair set between the white classic columns, a few statues and tapestries formed the college hall where the Princess Ida and her attendants waited. Low stools, scrolls and a scene in learned maidens in blue, violet and daffodil caps and gowns covered the left terrace into Lady Psyche's lecture room, the entire terrace with vine covered seats, was a pretty setting for the picnic, and the large balcony lent itself most effectively as the battlements where the princess gathered all her followers after the victory. The lighting was excellent, and when the lights were turned off between acts the soft moonlight flooded the lawn and put the guests in a mood for the spirit of poetry and romance of Tennyson's lines, as they were interpreted by the reader, who stood a bright spot of color, clad in a scarlet cape and gown, with a background of Old English heraldic designs, hung against the dark branches of trees.

The color scheme and the grouping of the players, whether they sat in "silken folded idleness" or paced "stately and stately along the college cloisters" was charming. All the parts were well taken, and each word could be distinctly heard. The songs, which added much to the program, consisted of the lovely lyrics which occur in the Princess, set to appropriate music.

The program follows:

The Princess, the head of the College ..... Miss Anna Tucker
Lady Psyche, Tutor ..... Mrs. Harmon Hendrick
Aglaia, Lady Psyche's child ..... Alexa Gignoux
Melissa, Lady Blanche's daughter ..... Miss Margaret Peterson
The Prince ..... Miss Edna Arthur
Florian and Cyril, friends of the Prince ..... Misses Stevens and Sheldon
Herald ..... Miss Alice Roth
Messenger ..... Miss Ruth Shaw
Proctors ..... Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Alexander
Students, Musicians.
Reader ..... Mrs. Isaac Cox

Glee Club—Misses Hind, Austin, Atwater (2), Vincent, Taylor, Churchill, Turner, Seyde, Bond, Bycroft, McClean, Wadman.
Miss Gertrude Brown, accompanist.

Much of the success of this artistic performance is due Mrs. Frank R. Day, who had entire charge of the stage direction, and to the following committees:

Dramatization and Stage Setting—Mrs. Isaac Cox, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mrs. W. A. Bryan.
Costumes—Mrs. Harmon Hendrick, chairman; Miss Church.
Refreshments—Mrs. George Waterhouse, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Alexander, Mrs. Hobdy.
Music—Mrs. Bicknell, Miss Ruth Shaw.

And to the Oahu College Glee Club, Mrs. Robo, Miss Lathrop and little Miss Gignoux, who gracefully assisted in the program. At the conclusion of the program a reception was held on the lawn and terrace and delicious refreshments served. In the absence of Mrs. Frear, Mrs. John Erdman acted as hostess for the College Club and their guests. Receiving with Mrs. Erdman were Mrs. Harmon Hendrick, president of the club; Mrs. Isaac Cox and Mrs. Philip Weaver.

Dr. and Mrs. C. B. High and F. E. Thompson leave Tuesday for Hamakua, to remain a short time. Mrs. High will remain at the Volcano House for a few months, and Doctor High and Mr. Thompson will return in about two weeks.

Lieut. Joseph A. Bowers, Twentieth Infantry, who met with a slight accident while playing polo on the Moanalua polo fields early in the week, has about recovered from the bruises and strain received on account of the breaking of his polo pony's bit. Lieutenant Rogers, nothing daunted, true to his military training to do or die, was among the polo players on the fields of contest scoring fresh laurels.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. Charles C. Walcutt, Jr., wife of Captain Walcutt, Jr., Fifth Cavalry, of Schofield Barracks, has not yet recovered her suitcase, which was lost en route from Fort Shafter to her home at Leilehua reservation some weeks ago.

❧ ❧ ❧

Capt. Harry O. Willard, Fifth Cavalry, commanding Troop K, Third Squadron, of his regiment at Schofield Barracks, will be a passenger on the July ship for the mainland. Captain Willard will become an officer student at the military school at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

With the arrival of the secretary of war and Mrs. Dickinson and party at this port early in next week, an opportunity will be given to meet and know members of the "inner circle" of the present administrative party at Washington, D. C. For, next to Capt. Archibald W. Butt, quartermaster, army, and chief military aid to the President, no one in the official family stands closer or in a more friendly, confidential relation to President Taft than does Brig. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs of the war department. The friendship of the chief executive and General Edwards dates back to the early days of the Philippines civil government inauguration. It was General Edwards, then colonel in the department of which he is now the head, who accompanied the President, who was then secretary of war, to the Philippines to open the Philippine assembly for the first time under American rule at Manila in 1907. General Edwards carries into his official life the same cheerful courtesy and kindliness of manner that marks his social life as a most charming one.

Mrs. and Miss Edwards are favorites wherever they go. Other members of the party are Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson, old residents of Washington, D. C., who for years have enjoyed the close friendship of the members of the powers that be. Mr. Anderson is a financial success, Mrs. Anderson being a queenly, charming woman of fine manners and talent. The local society will greatly enjoy this stop here of the secretary of war and his party of travelers, en route to the Philippines and home again via the Atlantic.

Cards have been issued announcing that "Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beerman request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Sophia Frances, to Edward James Phillips, on Thursday evening, June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and ten, at eight o'clock, Central Union Church, Honolulu." The bride-elect is an accomplished teacher in the city public schools, having won the admiration and respect of a large number of friends by whom she is held in the highest esteem for her intellectuality and charm of manner. Mr. Phillips is a young man of fine business capacity, who has many friends to join in wishing him all success and happiness in his anticipated promotion to the ranks of the benedicts.

❧ ❧ ❧

Lieut. Alexander W. Chilton, Twentieth Infantry, who is battalion quartermaster and commissary at Fort Shafter, left his post on Friday afternoon for a short week-end trip and visit into the country.

❧ ❧ ❧

The many associates and friends of Capt. Arthur M. Shipp of Company H, Twentieth Infantry, of Fort Shafter, were grieved to learn of his accident at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, recently. Captain Shipp is expected to join his battalion on the Kahuku reservation next month. Now it is not known whether he will be well enough to take the July transport or delay for a few months. Lieut. Austin M. Pardee, Twentieth Infantry, has been detached from Company E and has been in command of Company H for Captain Shipp during the captain's absence at the military school.

❧ ❧ ❧

Lieut. Philip H. Sheridan, commanding the machine gun platoon of the Fifth Cavalry, Lieut. Arthur W. Hanson, Fifth Cavalry, and Lieut. Homer M. Gerringer of the Fifth Horse, all residents of the Leilehua reservation, were welcome callers on Friday on friends at Fort Shafter.

❧ ❧ ❧

Among the arriving passengers on the Manoa on Friday were Mrs. Roderick D. Matheson and her two sons, who come from Canada to join Mr. Matheson. They have taken the Pease cottage on Alexander street.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mrs. George Cleveland Bower was the complimented guest at an elaborate tea given by Miss Harriet Young on Wednesday from four until six. The lanai had been converted into a regular fernery and here the tea was served. Over the table was suspended baskets of beautiful pink roses and the tea was served by a bevy of small children. Amongst those present to greet the young bride of Lieutenant Bowen were Miss Constance Restarick, Miss Violet Makee, Miss Agnes Wickstrum, Miss Ethel Spalding, Miss Edith Meyer, Miss Cordelia Gilman, Miss Irma Ballentyne, Miss Dorothy Wood, Miss Julia Peabody, Miss Sarah Lucas, Miss Hazel Hoffmann, Miss Florence Hoffmann, Miss Eleanor Waterhouse, Miss Margaret Waterhouse, Mademoiselle Daisy Gras, Miss Alice Cooper, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Genevieve Langton, Miss Beatrice Holdsworth, Miss Edith Fitzgerald, Miss Blair, Miss Lucas, Mrs. Manuel Garrett, Mrs. Kenyon and Mrs. Harold Berry.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Alice Roth was a luncheon hostess on Friday in honor of Miss Blanche Wenner of Seattle. In compliment to the honored guest who is a Wellesley graduate the decorations were all carried out in the colors of that college.

❧ ❧ ❧

Judge Hartwell and his two daughters are the houseguest of Judge and Mrs. Cooke at their home in Buffalo, N. Y. Judge and Mrs. Cooke visited with the Hartwells some years ago here.

❧ ❧ ❧

The many friends here of Miss Mary Krout will sympathize with her in the loss of her father who died recently at the family home in Indiana.

❧ ❧ ❧

❧ ❧ ❧

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jewett Lowrey are spending the summer at their mountain home, "Luakaha."

❧ ❧ ❧

The historic old mansion of Colonel Z. S. Spalding of Kealia, Kauai, was the scene of a brilliant assemblage last Saturday evening when Rufus P. Spalding who has taken his father's place as President of the Makee Sugar Company, gave a reception and ball in honor of Miss Genevieve Stehman of Pasadena, California.

❧ ❧ ❧

Floyd Emmons and Mrs. Mary Green, the eldest son and mother of Mrs. Luella Emmons of Waikiki left on the Wilhelmina for a trip to the East. Mrs. Green will spend the summer with relatives at her old home in Minneapolis and Floyd Emmons will attend to the settling up of a lot of property interests for his mother. Mrs. Emmons and her younger son, Merlon, will spend the summer at their home at Waikiki where Mrs. Green and Floyd Emmons will rejoin them in November. Mrs. Emmons received a wireless from the Wilhelmina on Friday reporting a delightful trip.

❧ ❧ ❧

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bryan have taken apartments at the Maux hotel in San Francisco.

❧ ❧ ❧

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hoopes of Philadelphia announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marian Hoopes to Ensign Frederick Tomlinson Stevenson of the United States Navy.

❧ ❧ ❧

The Princess was one of a party who accepted the hospitality of the U. S. S. Maryland on Sunday. Captain G. Campbell of the Marine Corps was the host at this jolly luncheon, the other guests being Mrs. K. Voorhies Henry Mr. and Mrs. Henry Afong, Lieutenant Commander Parker, Lieutenant Calhoun, Mr. Snyder, Lieutenant Farlow and Lieutenant Harry Newton.

❧ ❧ ❧

Miss Maud Madden, cousin of Governor Curry of New Mexico, accompanied by her chaperon, Miss Dalton of Oakland, has arrived and will spend a month in the Islands.

❧ ❧ ❧

The Wonderful Ruud

A gas water heater with a brain connects with every hot water faucet in the house. You do not have to touch the heater at all. Merely turn on the faucet, night or day, and the water comes scadding hot: turn off the faucet and gas is extinguished.

Making it, by far, the most economical method known of heating water.
