MANY SOLDIERS BOUND FOR HOME

The Sheridan Arrives With Casuals: Will Leave at Five o'Clock.

The U. S. army transport Sheridan, homeward bound, arrived at the Oceanic wharf at nine o'clock last night with about all the passengers she could carry. She had a smooth and uneventful voyage all the way from Manila. Captain Hutchinson was in command from Manila to Nagasaki, and Captain Wilson Burtt from Nagasaki to Honolulu. Major Samuel W. Dunning, who is booked to go from Honolulu to San Francisco, has been appointed commandant for the rest of the Sheridan's voyage.

The Sheridan will sail this afternoon taking as passengers from here Major Dunning, Mrs. Dunning, Capt. and Mrs. George Moore, Capt. C. W. Exton, Lieut. H. M. Groninger, Miss Ethel F. Moperson, Mrs. Carl J. De Roo, Miss Louise De Roo and Marshall De Roo. There is no room for additional passengers. The Sheridan will carry the mail to San Francisco.

Among the passengers from Manila and other American army posts and naval stations are: Capt. Wilson B. Burtt, 20th Infantry; Lieut. J. D. Elliott, 15th Infantry; Capt. H. Goran, of the Medical Corps; Lieut. W. J. McNaughney, 4th Infantry; R. M. Warfield, civil engineer, U. S. N.; Mrs. Burtt, Mrs. A. D. de Balaine, Mrs. J. O. Elliott, Mrs. H. Goran, Miss E. Johnston, Mrs. W. J. McNaughney, Mrs. R. M. Warfield, Mrs. W. E. Bates, R. W. Meyers, F. J. Jackson, Serg. John Ognek, Lieut. F. H. Bagby of 20th Infantry, Lieut. A. W. Barry of the Philippine Scouts, Capt. S. W. Brewster of the U. S. Marine Corps, Mrs. Brewster, E. T. Brink, Mrs. Brink, Miss Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Correll, Mrs. G. H. Cooke, Capt. O. F. Cooper, Second Lieut. R. E. Cummins, Mrs. Cummins, W. H. Donavan, Mrs. L. A. Dorrington, Capt. Henry R. Drake of the Philippine Scouts, Mrs. A. French and daughter, Robert Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Fox, Lieut. and Mrs. R. E. Grinstead, Misses H. and I. Guittard, Mrs. A. S. Guthrie, Lieut. W. E. Hall, Miss M. Harvey, Capt. and Mrs. L. M. Hathaway, H. Hencke, H. J. Hoekin, F. M. Holmes, Sister Edna Hoelzer, Comdr. H. P. Jones, Capt. and Mrs. P. L. Jones, Capt. and Mrs. J. B. Hutchinson, Lieut. Earl McFarland, Lieut.-Comdr. W. J. Manlon, Lieut. A. B. Owens, Capt. Charles A. Ragan and Mrs. Ragan, Lieut. R. W. Walker, Mrs. Walker, Dr. F. H. Wall, Chief Gunner and Mrs. F. D. Messenger, and Lieut. and Mrs. J. B. Passoe.

There were 261 second-class passengers, including principally privates and noncommissioned officers.

Siberia This Morning.

The Pacific Mail liner Siberia is expected to arrive at the Aloha wharf at seven o'clock this morning, bringing a large number of passengers back to Honolulu from the mainland, among whom will be Secretary of War Dickinson and a party of a half-dozen relatives and friends of his.

It is not known just how long the Siberia will remain here, but it has been planned for her to stay in port twenty-four hours, leaving at seven o'clock Tuesday morning.

The Siberia has about 1000 tons of freight for Honolulu. The cargo will, it is said, consist of general merchandise for the Territory.

Lurline Heard From.

The Matson liner Lurline will arrive off quarantine at daybreak Wednesday morning. Captain Weeden has sent a wireless message to Castle & Cooke, agents of the line, stating that the Lurline has twenty-three passengers for Honolulu, 2800 tons of cargo for this city and 84 tons for Kahului, and seventy-seven sacks of mail for the local postoffice.

Prometheus Sails Again.

The U. S. cruiser Prometheus, which started for Honolulu several days ago for the purpose of towing to Mare Island the disabled cruiser Chattanooga and had to put back with two engines disabled, she was towing, started on her journey the second time Saturday afternoon, and, barring mishaps, she will get to this port in about twelve days. The Prometheus is towing two lighters loaded with coal for the naval station. The Chattanooga will depart for Mare Island and Chattanooga will depart for the Coast. That fact will be determined by the navy department at Washington.

Shipping Notes.

The steamer Nihau, from Ahukini, brought 6850 bags of sugar. Fair weather during trip.

The W. G. Hall, arriving yesterday morning from Makaweli, brought 1 horse, 20 bags coconuts, 38 packages sundries.

The steamer Mikahala, from Molokai, arrived yesterday with a cargo consisting of 4 bags charcoal, 55 hogs and 83 packages sundries. Purser Pieper reported fair weather during the round trip.

The barkentine S. C. Wilder sailed Saturday from San Francisco for Mahukona with a cargo of sugar from Hilo. The schooner Borealis arrived at Aberdeen Saturday, having sailed from Kahului June 8.

The Matson steamer Hilonian will arrive Tuesday with mail from Seattle. She will bring a cargo of general merchandise from eastern and Puget Sound cities and on her return to the mainland she will take a cargo of sugar.

The Inter-Island steamer Kinau will return from Kahului tomorrow morning with a big crowd of excursionists who went to the Maui port to attend the Independence Day races. The Mauna Kea will arrive the same day from Hilo with a big crowd of people who took advantage of reduced rates to the volcano on Friday.

Apartment House in Honolulu

There is room
for a good Apartment House in this city. An investment in such a business as this should bring handsome returns from the very beginning. It would be patronized by residents and the growing throng of tourists from the mainland.

The Place
The location of such a place should be cool and tropical with extensive grounds and near to the center of town.
We have such a property near to Central Union Church, the Hawaiian Hotel and Washington Place where an Apartment House could be erected. It is an ideal spot for such a building to be placed. It contains 61 of an acre and lies on two streets.
