CITY PRIMARY.

MUCH INTEREST IS BEING TAKEN IN THE APPROACHING

Democratic Contest—The Friends of Both Men Claim That Victory Is Theirs—Speakings Begin Tuesday.

Local politics has reached the seething point in Democratic circles, and much money will change hands as a result of the city primary next Friday.

The Yeiser men started out to bet two to one on their candidate, but it is hard to get even bets. Davis men claim that they can get no takers.

The friends of the candidates are working hard, and some telling work will be done this week. Speakings begin Tuesday night, and will continue until Friday and lively times are anticipated.

The city hall clique seems with few exceptions to be for Yeiser, including nearly all of the police, both day and night forces. Considerable money is up in that quarter, about $300 having been bet in one day last week. If Davis is nominated the police will be a sick lot.

The mouthpiece of the Workingman's Political League, the "Voice of Labor," is for Davis, and yesterday afternoon there was talk of arresting the editor, Edward C. Clark, from Chicago, for publishing a paper without a license, but he was not warranted.

The Davis men claim that the abortive plan was spite work from the Yeiser hosts at the city hall. All kinds of stories are circulated and denied daily, and facts seem to be very uncertain in the campaign.

The Yeiser men are not idle, but count on their candidate coming out in the end. They count on the running proclivities of their man to beat his opponent out in the wind up, but the result is doubtful, as this is his first race in a Democratic primary, and all signs may fail.

The hosts are gathering, however, and the betting bids fair to greatly increase this week if the dead game sports have anything left to bet.

HANGED HIMSELF.

A PROMINENT BOYLE COUNTY FARMER COMMITS SUICIDE WHILE INSANE.

Danville, Ky., May 4.—Harvey Pope, a prominent Boyle county farmer, committed suicide this morning by hanging himself. He was insane when the deed was committed.

HUMOROUS LECTURE.

"TAFFY VERSUS EPITAFFY."

Rev. Dr. H. W. Sears, former pastor of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church at Jackson, Tennessee, will deliver a free lecture in the lecture room of the First Cumberland Presbyterian church Thursday evening, May 9. Subject, "Taffy Versus Epitaffy." The public is cordially invited to hear Dr. Sears, who has the reputation of being a charming speaker.

—The city hall is undergoing its regular spring cleaning, and the mayor's office and marshal's office are being prepared for the summer months.

ELKS PROGRAM.

TUESDAY IT WILL BE COMPLETE—THE BEST EVER GOTTEN UP.

Cairo Elks to Attend In Uniform—Some of the Details of the Two Big Parades.

The complete program for the Elks carnival will be ready Thursday, and will be the finest ever seen in Paducah.

The opening of the carnival gates will be at 7 p. m. Monday, following a magnificent parade. This will consist of 20 mounted Elks, mounted police officers, the mayor and city officials, officers of the Elks and the members of the Ladies' auxiliary in carriages, Dean's band, and the fire department, the Paducah Riding club, the Smithland band and the Midway attractions.

The procession will stop at the arch, and Mayor Lang will make an address of welcome and deliver the keys of the city to Director General L. A. Lagomarsino. The gates will then be thrown open.

The flower parade Thursday will begin at 10 a. m. and will be headed by the automobiles, followed by the band, queen's float, and mounted officers, then the various vehicles, the Riding club and the bicycle club.

Mr. H. P. Nunn went down the N., C. & St. L. yesterday to further advertise the carnival.

The booths are ready for the exhibitors, and have been arranged, the even numbers on the left side and the odd numbers on the right. They begin at the arch and extend around to Court. The decorations begin Monday.

The Elks caps are going rapidly and are very attractive. They are at headquarters for those who ordered them, all ready to be delivered.

Miss Maime Pettit, of Princeton, has written that she cannot be here to act as maid of honor, and another will be appointed next week for that city. The Cairo and Mayfield maids of honor are to be appointed Tuesday. Miss Jennie Wilson will be the maid of honor from Murray.

A watchman will be stationed on the carnival grounds today to remain until dark. One is deemed necessary in day time to prevent mischievous boys from punching holes in the roofs of the booths.

Mr. Henry Schroat, who is building the queen's float, is making good progress, and it will be one of the finest works of art ever seen in Paducah.

The Cairo Elks will probably attend the carnival in uniform, and bring a brass band with them.

SHORT CHANGED

BUT THE GRAFTER HAD STRUCK THE WRONG MAN HE DISCOVERED.

City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot came near being skinned by the man in the ticket office of Buckskin Bill's aggregation last night, and nothing but his courageous defiance of the bold would-be robber saved him. He had a pass himself, but bought a ticket for his boy and tendered a ten dollar bill in payment, and the ticket seller gave him back but 75 cents. He at once demanded the proper change, and the police were called and the remainder of his money was finally returned to him.

The short change grafters are often found with shows, and the one last night had a narrow escape from arrest. He tried a bold game, but struck the wrong man.

SCORES BECKHAM

DR. M'CORMICK'S CARD INDICATES THAT HE IS NO ANGEL.

Hopkinsville, Ky., May 4.—State Inspector Hines today produced the missing removal papers and Dr. E. B. McCormick was relieved of the duties of superintendent of the asylum. His card to the public today is very salty, and in it he scores Gov. Beckham, Inspector Hines and others, alleging that he is a victim of liars and slanderers.

NO STRIKE OF THE BUILDING TRADES AT LOUISVILLE YET.

Louisville, May 4.—The strike of building trades is at standstill. A mass meeting of the workmen will be held Monday, which may result in an amicable settlement.

STARTER BROWN

GIVES THE FAVORITE THE BEST OF IT AT LOUISVILLE.

Indignant Sports Call Him a Thief and Robber and the Police Had to Interfere.

Louisville, May 4.—Starter Brown had a tough time of it this afternoon and the police had to interfere to protect him after fifth race. St. Marions, the favorite, got the best of the start, and a world of money was burned on the others. Two were left standing. The angry people called Brown a robber and thief, and he resigned, but his resignation was not accepted.

A BROKEN NEEDLE.

STRANGE DISCOVERY MADE IN A LITTLE GIRL'S KNEE YESTERDAY.

The little daughter of Mr. Fred Long, of 1124 Madison street, fell down the door step yesterday and it was thought had broken her knee. Dr. Frank Boyd was summoned and when an examination was made it was found that three-fourths of a large size needle was imbedded in her knee. The needle had been there for some time, but had given the child no trouble until the fall forced it in farther. The bone had been pierced and it was necessary to use the knife to effect the removal of the obstacle.

THE JURY COULDN'T AGREE.

Danville, Ky., May 4.—The jury in the Pope murder case was unable to agree and was this afternoon discharged.

Ten Thousand People are Rendered Homeless By the Awful Conflagration—The Militia on Duty.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 4.—The fire has destroyed a district thirteen blocks wide and over two miles long, and has not yet been extinguished. The loss will go over $15,000,000, and seven lives are know to have been lost, and there are reports of other fatalities. Ten thousand people are homeless and the militia is on duty to prevent lawlessness.

INDIAN ARRESTED.

SHE WAS DRUNK AND DISORDERLY AND WHOOPED UNTIL SHE WAS TIRED.

Bernice Shelton, one of the Buckskin Bill Wild West Indians, was arrested last night by Officers Potter and Friant for being drunk and disorderly. She was arrested at Ninth and Court streets, and from time to time emitted the dreaded war whoop. She was locked up and threatened with all kinds of violence if she did not quiet down, but she shouted until she got tired.

London, May 6.—It is reported that matters are not as smooth as could be desired between the offices of the field marshal commanding the army and the secretary of war. I hear on very excellent authority that great friction exists between Lord Roberts and Sir William St. John Broderick, secretary for war. In fact, I am told, that the affair has reached such a crisis that Field Marshal Roberts' reign as commander-in-chief of the British army may terminate very suddenly.

DEPUTY MARSHAL LA RUE HERE

Deputy U. S. Marshal M. W. La Rue, of the Lebanon district, was in the city today as a witness in the $1,000 damage suit of Armstrong against Geo. Bernhard, for a garnishee, set for trial today in circuit court. He will return to Louisville today, and expects to be called to Springfield, Ill., on business in a day or two. Deputy La Rue resides in Louisville, but his headquarters are in Lebanon.
