Kidney Disorder

(By Dr. V. M. Pierce.)

"The most simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system." The mere drinking a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little Anuric before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidney trouble. Death would occur if the kidneys did not work day and night in separating poisons and uric acid from the blood.

The danger signals are backache, depressions, aches, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints, gout.

Since it is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain Anuric, as every druggist dispenses it, anyone who earnestly desires to regain health and new life will waste no time in beginning this treatment.

WHY WOMEN CANNOT SLEEP.

The highly organized, finely strung nervous system of women subjects them to terrors of nervous apprehension which no man can ever appreciate.

If there be any derangement in this respect no remedy in the world so completely restores womanly health as the wonderful "Favorite Prescription" invented by Dr. Pierce.

Bowman, Mont.—"I was in poor health for some time and my nerves were in such a condition that I could scarcely do anything. Any little excitement would almost make me sick in bed. I took three bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and it not only relieved my nervousness but improved my general health."—Mrs. H. Haggerty, 204 N. Kent Ave.

MANY WITNESSES IN TRUSTEE CASE

Federal Court Trial Which Begins Monday Will Draw Scores to Helena.

With the city of Helena already pressed to accommodate the host of visitors incident to the legislative assembly, some 200 more will invade the capital next week during the trial of the officers and directors of the Northwestern Trustee company in the federal court on a charge of using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud, according to United States Marshal J. S. Ashmidov who stopped over in Butte this morning en route to St. Ignatius Mission, from Anaconda, where he has been subpenaing witnesses in the case.

According to Mr. Ashmidov a trial jury panel of 40 has been summoned to report at Helena on Monday morning, when the trial starts. In addition there are between 60 and 70 witnesses which the government has called and probably as many more will be subpenaed by the defendants. It is anticipated that the trial will consume two weeks.

Immediately upon conclusion of the Northwestern Trustee trial, the trial of Ben Phillips on a charge of conspiracy to defraud the government out of public land will be started. This case has been set for trial Jan. 29 and 40 or 50 witnesses will be called by the government for this. The Phillips case is an old one the indictment dating back to the time Judge William H. Hunt occupied the bench in this district. It involves a conspiracy to secure public land by use of dummy entrymen.

The Northwestern Trustee indictment includes 14 defendants among them former Secretary of State A. N. Allerdice, former State Treasurer William Rae, president and secretary of the company, Robert Sidebotham and J. G. Wilmot, Rae, agents and promoters, W. W. Spear, a former mayor of Great Falls and Dominick Sullivan, the Meaderville merchant. Defendants Allerdice and Rae secured separate trials, but their motions were denied. Sidebotham and Wilmot sought a change of venue in order to be tried in Great Falls as did Spear but the motions of all three were denied. The indictment against J. A. Sullivan in connection with the case was dismissed at Helena yesterday on motion of assistant United States District Attorney Edward C. Mangan because of insufficient evidence.

This conclusion of trial of the Northwestern Trustee and the Phillips cases, John Bourquin and other federal court officials will go to Great Falls for a term of court there which starts Feb. 5.

DISCUSS CONTROL OF NATURAL RESOURCES

Government's Policy of Conservation Theme of Liberal Culturists.

Government control of natural resources was the subject of an interesting discussion before the Liberal Culture club last night at the meeting of the monthly dinner held at the Public Auditorium. Frank Hamilton read the principal paper on the subject and it was discussed by Charles Steele and Prof. W. H. Clark of the high school.

Mr. Hamilton after a review of the history of homestead legislation characterized as extravagant and wasteful, the enlargement from time to time of homestead privileges until now, he said, legislation making it possible for an individual to enter upon an entire section of land is proposed.

In controlling mineral resources, Mr. Hamilton urged that the government should allow such individuals to acres of land and give him what lies under the earth's only eliminating the idea theory of ownership.

He described the policy of the government with regard to water power sites as one establishing the relation of landlord and tenant.

"We have been extravagant, wasteful and wicked in the administration and handling of our public lands and resources," said the speaker in conclusion. "Are we now going to embark upon a policy which will visit upon the heads of our children the punishment for our sins unto the third and fourth generations?"

Mr. Steele in his rebuttal urged that Mr. Hamilton had offered no ideas if what course should be pursued in disposition of natural resources. The homestead law, he said, should have been so framed as to limit its opportunities strictly to bona fide settlers, men who know now and would farm the land. Extension of credit to permit improvements and purchase of farming implements should have been provided, he asserted.

The speaker declared that some method of deriving a revenue from the mineral lands should be devised by the government.

Professor Clark agreed with Mr. Hamilton that the government should retain mineral and water rights notwithstanding the many difficulties incident to leasing. He urged government owned and operated paper mills, and tax on mineral lands and power sites.
