FIRE HORSE SMELLS FLAMES AND DITCHES SLED IN WILD RACE

Anaconda, March 12.—One of J. B. Goose's delivery horses, a former member of the fire fighting staff, smelled smoke on Park avenue today and bolted to Oak street, up an alley, ditched his sled behind the Durston block and trotted to the Goose store where he whinnied for his driver. There was no damage done, but the fire horse created a little stir that made the winter day feel not so lengthy.

BEARS MAKE RAID ON STOCK MARKET

Unfounded Rumors Contribute in Large Part to Depress Prices.

Bears raided the market today on rumors that the president was ill with pneumonia, and the whole list dropped off from 1 to 2 points. Other rumors that gave the bears ammunition included one that Germany considered the arming of merchant ships the same as a declaration of war. United States Steel dropped to 110⅝; Utah Copper to 111; Anaconda to 83¾, and industrials and junior steel issues lost 2 points or more. Expectation of a decision on the Adamson law curbed activity in rails.

Anaconda opened today at 86½, was low at 83⅝, high at 86½, and closed at 83¾. Butte & Superior opened at 48⅛, was high at that figure and low at the close, 46½. North Butte was quoted at 22½. East Butte at 15; Davis-Daly at 8 and Tuolumne at 1⅝.

The morning Paine Stock Letter received over wires of Paine, Webber & Co. says: "Developments in the war zone are becoming such as to likely demand close attention. Sentiment in the east is inclined to be bullish and further demonstrations on the long side of the metals are not impossible."

Stock opinions received over wires of the Hellbronner company say, in part:

J. S. Bache & Co.: "Stocks as a rule are cheap and securely held. The market is in a strong technical position."

Josephthal & Co.: "Olive preference to the leaders, notably United States Steel, and other good steel and copper shares."

WINS HIS ARGUMENT WHEN HE SHOWS GUN

Anaconda, March 12.—Roy Moore, colored, was arrested by Sheriff Hartsell's staff for carrying concealed weapons. It is alleged that there was a disagreement between him and another man of his race as to their rights in a cabin in which there lives a woman. It is charged that Moore exhibited a revolver though he made no attempt to use it, but his argument won the cabin without delay.

DOWNWARD MOVE IN GRAIN PITS

Wheat Prices Drop Sharply. Uneasiness Over Shipping Situation.

Chicago, March 12.—Misgivings over chances of a railroad strike tended today to depress the wheat market but were offset to some extent by bullish crop reports from the southwest. Later, however, word of rain in Kansas caused the market to give way in a more decisive manner. Pit traders sold freely. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as Saturday's finish to 1¼c lower, with May at $1.85½ to $1.86¼ and July at $1.56⅝ to $1.56¾, were followed by numerous irregular changes and then a sharp downturn all around.

Snow in Nebraska added to bearish sentiment as also did absence of export demand. There was also much uneasiness over developments which emphasized the seriousness of dangers to shipping, from submarines. The close was semi-demoralized at 2⅝c to 6½c net lower, with May at $1.80⅛ to $1.80⅝ and July at $1.52⅝ to $1.53.

Lightness of offerings kept corn relatively firm. The market, though, showed some sympathy with the weakness of wheat. After opening ⅝ off to ¼ up prices scored slight general gains and then receded to just below Saturday's finish.

Signs of a falling off in the crop movement from the country failed to check substantial declines that accompanied severe breaks in the value of wheat. The close was nervous at losses of 1¼c to ⅝c net.

Oats sagged with wheat. There was no aggressive selling. Lower quotations on hogs pulled down provisions. The chief weakness was in pork.

RAILS FEATURE OF TODAY'S MARKET

Other Departments of Active List Are Heavy in the Trading.

New York, March 12.—The strength of rails and heaviness of most other active stocks were the contrasting features of today's active market. Sales approximated 850,000 shares.

Advances of 1 to 4 points were made by active stocks on the resumption of trading today, industrials being most prominent, with a further inquiry for motors, Central Leather, Westinghouse and some of the more obscure specialties. United States Steel was slightly irregular on large offerings and coppers were uneven, with further heaviness in Industrial Alcohol. Shippings were moderately reactionary and dealings in rails were again light, except for advances of a point or more in Union Pacific, Reading, Erie, New Haven and Southern Railway.

Interest in rails increased later. Coalers led the rise at an extreme advance of 3¼ points for Reading, with 1 to 2½ for Erie, Norfolk & Western, Baltimore & Ohio, Western Maryland, Chesapeake & Ohio and Wheeling & Lake Erie. Union Pacific extended its gain to 2 points and New York Central and Grangers also improved. Meanwhile shippings, coppers, oils and munitions became more uneven with United States Steel, the latter making an extreme decline of a point. Motors also reversed their early course, and Bethlehem Steel, new stock, lost 2½. Mixed changes in international issues created some irregularity in bonds.

Activity in rails halted during the early afternoon, but quoted values in that group were well maintained. Coppers made further regression, with some leading industrials, and tobaccos featured the specialties at gains of 1½ to 4 points.

On professional selling prominent industrials, shippings and specialties showed extreme declines of 2 to 4 points in the final hour. The closing was heavy.
