ANACONDA UNION RECONSIDERS VOTE

Accepts Offer of Company and Pledges Members to Return to Work.

mines, such as Georgetown, where mining was suspended because the smelting matter could not handle the ore. The company's coal mines will also increase production and in scores of communities the order to resume work in the three cities will be felt immediately.

Outlook is Good.

Company officials would not undertake to make an estimate today as to when mining could be resumed at full capacity. The fact that all the mines are to start up, however, indicates that they are confident that the company will not be long in reaching normal production. In Butte the strike inaugurated by the Butte Copper Mine Workers union has fallen by the way, all the crafts have taken action that put them in line for uninterrupted work, and so far as can now be foreseen operations should not be interrupted in the near future. Miners who want to work will have the opportunity of the increased wage and it is not believed in any union quarters that the Campbell organization of the I. W. W. leaders will be able to hamper the company materially.

Dates From Aug. 24.

The shutdown in Butte was made necessary by the strike of the smelters in Anaconda on Aug. 24. When it became necessary to close the smelter the mines had to shut down because there was no way to dispose of the ore. The smelter at Great Falls was closed a few days later after ore in transit had been disposed of by it. Preparations had been made for a long suspension of work, as Vice President C. F. Kelley of the Anaconda company announced that the company had made all the concessions it was possible for it to make.

When the shutdown was brought on by the I. W. W. and the Campbell union it was announced as a great victory for the radicals in the publications of the Haywood organization. Following the shutdown, the government sent W. H. Rodgers, federal mediator, to Butte with a view to bringing about a resumption if possible. Mr. Rodgers and other union men addressed a mass meeting of smeltermen in Anaconda on Monday night. That was the turning point, for it developed then that a great majority of the smeltermen were not in sympathy with the strike and desired to return to work.

Government Interested.

Today's developments are a source of much gratification to the government, and to the national council of defense, which had interested itself in the situation in Butte. The government is in need of copper and ores from the Butte district for war munitions and it should now receive an uninterrupted supply of these very necessary metals.

ANACONDA MEETING

Smelermen Enthusiastically Agree to Return to Work.

Anaconda, Sept. 13—At a mass meeting of the members of the Anaconda Mill and Smelermen's union held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Margaret theater, which was crowded to capacity, resolutions were adopted unanimously and enthusiastically favoring a return to work under the offer presented by the Anaconda Copper Mining company some time ago. The report of the conference committee representing the smelermen of Anaconda and Great Falls and the miners and engineers of Butte was adopted and the thanks of the assemblage were tendered to the committee for its work. Formal announcement was made that the smelers and mines would re-open on Monday. At the conclusion of the meeting it was agreed that the strike was over and there was no intention to commit the satisfaction of newspapers and another employer.

When the meeting opened this afternoon President Barney McCarthy of the local union came to the front of the stage, excused himself from presiding on account of illness and called W. T. Stoddart of the Engineers union of Butte, chairman of the conference committee, to the chair.

Mr. Stoddart explained that the purpose of the meeting was to give the men an opportunity of hearing the complete reports of the proceedings of the conference committee. He explained that the reason that the conference had been held in secret was that there might be some who had no right to be present and that these might form themselves on the meeting. He said that secrecy of the meetings had been for the benefit of the men of the community.

The report of the proceedings was then read by Secretary Maxwell. The report was comprehensive, going into the detail of every act and move of the general committee.

The report contained an instruction from the general committee to the officers of the local union not to receive dues from certain members who had proved disloyal. The report also showed that the officers had been instructed to sign an agreement with the Anaconda Copper Mines company for a settlement of the strike.

By a motion from the floor the officers of the union were instructed to sign up articles with the company.

The report showed that, according to the present price of copper, the wage scale for the men would be about $3.50 a day more than the former lowest scale.

A rising vote of thanks was passed to the president. Barney McCarthy, and insistent calls were made on him for a speech. He pleaded illness, however.

Mr. McMillen of Butte, a member of the engineers union, made a talk in which he told of a meeting with Manager Laist of the smelter. He said he was told that the smelters and mines would probably be opened on Monday. He explained that unions had done much good for the working men and exhorted all the men to be attentive to their duties in attending meetings. He said when he came to Butte in 1906 he received $4 a day for 12 hours' work and now he was receiving a scale that would be $5 a day for 12 hours.

Chairman E. E. Hess of the Metal Trades pledged the co-operation of the Metal Trades to the smelermen in the interest of harmony in their work.

C. A. Brouette of the electrical workers announced that the men had gone to work during the afternoon, having adjusted their differences.

The note of support to President Barney McCarthy concluded the meeting.

CANINE FOUND GUILTY CONDEMNED TO DEATH

Found guilty of biting Roy King, a small boy of the McQueen addition, a dog owned by Frank Tomson was condemned to death this afternoon after a hearing before Justice of the Peace Joseph Mirelli. The dog's master appeared in its behalf and pleaded for the canine, but the evidence was overwhelmingly to the effect that the dog was a nuisance in the neighborhood. Joseph King, father of the lad, was the complaining witness. Justice Mirelli ordered the dog shot. Immediate extermination was the order.

The case of Ali Sali, who was charged with second degree assault, was continued until next Thursday at 10 o'clock. The complaining witness is Inez Zenon.

Following the presentation refreshments were served and everyone had a very delightful time.

northern front General Dragomirof will command on the western front and General Dietrichs will be quartermaster general. The army under General Kornilof selected for army control will not be pursued according to the new premier.

The government, K. Kerensoff declared, will be conducted on the autocratic basis as Kerensoff, seeking neither to the right nor left to the left. The government will not be a coalition now, he added, inasmuch as to organize will not depend upon an inter-party agreement. He said A. Tseretelli, the minister of food and supplies, will resign, as will M. Savinkoff, the assistant minister of war. He informed a council of the ministers of foreign affairs who was probable.

ALARMING REPORTS FROM SWEDEN

Stockholm, Wednesday, Sept. 12—(Delayed)—Conflicting reports of developments in Russia are received here tonight by way of Berlin. Travelers arriving at the Swedish capital from Petrograd report that an agreement has actually between the forces of General Kornilof and part of Premier Kerensky's troops near Luga. The government soldiers were defeated, according to the information, retiring on the capital and destroying a bridge near Petrograd to stop pursuit.

General Kornilof is said to have appointed Michael V. Rodzianko, former president of the duma, to form a government at Moscow.

Heading was heard in Petrograd while the train was enroute to Moscow. Part of Premier Kerensky's troops are said to have joined General Kornilof.

On the other hand, the conservative Rechtsmehrheitsblatt of Reichstag, Pirna, yesterday reported that Premier Kerensky was supreme in upper land and that the troops of the front were joining the government.

NOTED MINING MAN SAYS HE HAS FAITH IN RUSSIAN PEOPLE

London, Sept. 13—Leslie Urquhart, one of the most prominent mining and oil engineers in Russia, who has just arrived in London, in an interview in The Daily Mail, says:

"I have faith in Russia. I have known the country more than 25 years and she will pull through. * * * Whether General Kornilof will prove the savior of society I cannot tell. But of this I am sure, a military dictatorship has got to come."

After paying a tribute to General Kornilof as "at least a man of action," Mr. Urquhart asserts there are immense risks and a few commanding gains for the Germans in a further advance on Petrograd, when, if the time of the year and the character of the country permitted.

Russia, he says, is tired of the war, but like all the other belligerent peoples, but is not tired enough to make a separate peace. He added:

"I can say with absolute confidence that the whole Russian people would be fired against a separate peace and would make short work of any one who attempted to negotiate it."

MANY OF KORNILOFF'S MEN ARE DESERTING

Petrograd, Sept. 13—Numerous delegations from General Kornilof's army are arriving at the staff office of the Petrograd military district in a pitiful mood, the associated press has been informed by Premier Kerensky's secretary. The soldiers declare they have been deceived as to the aims of General Kornilof's rebellion.

General Polchinski, second in command to General Savinkoff, commander of the Petrograd district, believes the revolt may now be considered to be a final and irretrievable failure. He says the question of General Kornilof's surrender is now a matter of secondary importance.

Premier Kerensky's appointment as commander-in-chief of all the armies has been confirmed officially by the cabinet. General Alexieff has been confirmed as the chief of staff. Vice Premier Nekrasoff announces that General Alexieff has sent a telegram to General Kornilof demanding his immediate surrender.

SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT IS REPORTED TO SENATE

The Measure Will Come Up for Discussion at Next Session.

Washington, Sept. 13—The Susan B. Anthony resolution for nation-wide woman suffrage by constitutional amendment was favorably reported today by the senate suffrage committee and will take place in calendar for a vote at the session beginning in December.

Whether the suffrage resolution can command the necessary two-thirds vote in the senate and later in the house is a question. President Wilson so far has refused to put the influence of the administration behind it, although urged to adopt it as a war measure.

Suffrage supporters, however, expect getting it out of committee with a favorable report as a forward step and they welcome the opportunity to get a record vote on it in the open.

Without debate or objection the senate today passed Senator Shafroth's bill authorizing the Hawaiian legislature to give women who have property and other qualifications of men the right to vote in territorial elections. It also authorizes the legislature to submit to the territory the question of giving women unrestricted suffrage there.

ONLY 700 AMERICANS ARE LEFT IN GERMANY

They Are Unmolested—Receive Same Treatment as Neutrals.

Berlin, Sept. 13 (via London)—Since the breaking off of relations between the United States and Germany, 470 Americans have departed from Germany for home or neutral countries. The census recently compiled by the American Association of Commerce and Trade of Berlin indicated that there were approximately 1,200 Americans in Germany on March 1. The present number will, therefore, not greatly exceed 700, half of whom are living in Berlin.

Americans continue to be unmolested and are subjected to the same police rules and travel restrictions as nationals. Requests for permits to cross the frontiers are granted in the order filed. The routine, however, frequently necessitates a wait of three or four weeks.

Breadstuffs advanced from $251,215,-849 to $371,205,382; meat and dairy products from $157,542,561 to $235,-864,773, and mineral oils from $132,-924,815 to $232,626,120.
