Salt Lake Democrat.

OGDEN CITY.

WEDNESDAY. - - FEBRUARY 2, 1887.

JUNIUS JUNIOR.

He speculates on the Selection of Ogden's New Officers.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: The political pot is boiling. It is the only pot that is boiling with most in some poor Saints' families who are, nevertheless, subjected to the degrading drudgery of doing the behests and executing the will of the sanctified priesthood.

A mass meeting of all the Liberal voters will be held next Friday evening in Union Opera House, when fifty delegates will be chosen, to whom the framing of a platform and the selection of a ticket will be entrusted.

Allow me to say, right here, that that platform will contain no Mormon one, neither will it tolerate any of the class known as mugwumps in the East and jack Mormons in Utah. That means, as yours is candid and unpretentious correspondent understands, that it is to be a convention of honest and straight-out Liberals, who, not having had their say and argued for their personal preferences, will loyally and honestly abide by the decision of the majority, although their individual views may not have been in accord with the majority. Only such who are willing, if in the minority of choices, to follow the lead of the majority are fairly entitled to take part in the deliberations.

Again, Ogden City has at least 1,500 or 2,000 Liberal voters, without counting the half-courageous stragglers on the fence and scratchers of the so-called people's party. Among these, of course, there are hundreds of astute business men, wide-awake residents and others who will furnish abundant timber from which to build a construction of a first-class ticket. There are only fourteen public municipal officers to be elected: Mayor, four Aldermen, five Councilmen, Recorder, Treasurer, Assessor and Collector and Marshal. Now, I venture to say that in less than a five minutes' survey of the directory I could pick out six men deserving and perfectly eligible candidates for every one of these offices. Moreover, there are in the non-Mormon population of Ogden certain distinct classes, certain circumscribed society sections, certain family tribes, certain trade associations, and other formations that limited gregarious instinct of the human kind which proves the prevalence of affinity and attraction among some and the powers of repulsion and disassociation among others. Therefore, there will be any number of candidates of various parts and portions of the multitude espousing the Liberal party, and favorites A, B, C and D will be confronted by preferences E, F, G and H, and so forth, and so on.

The same thing of course, exists among the members of the People's party in a certain milk-and-water sense; but as they are all subject to the priesthood's orders, they have to sacrifice their personal preferences and emulate their individual inclinations on the absurd altar of hierarchical domination. Hence, then follows, that the Liberals must make the honest, disinterested, purely patriotic selection of the fifty nominating delegates, that all the anti-priesthood voters with scyes will rally round the standard, burying all private predilections in common current of loyalty, conscious only union gives strength, when imbued and buoyed by just sense and good judgment.

OGDEN, Feb. 2, 1887.

General Notes.

Messrs. Josiah McClaine and S. E. Rockwell left for the north on Tuesday morning. This reminds me that the great clerical gentleman has an excellent article on the Mormon question in the last issue of the Cincinnati Herald of Freedom, a well-edited religious journal.

Al Herrick has returned from the Corey silver railroad camp in Colorado with a little money in his hand. Not that he caught the escaped polygamist—it is a felon on the fingers.

Complaints about non-delivery of the DEMOCRAT will be duly and promptly attended to by our authorized agents, Messrs. Spargo.

T. J. Kiesel, Esq., is in the North, looking after his numerous business interests.

Already business operations for the coming season are opening up with good in-lookings for a lively time, and carpenters and painters, painters and plasterers, contractors and builders are all assuming the cheerful countenance.

The City Council will hold the last meeting before election on Friday afternoon. They will then agree on a plan for the nomination of the People's party's ticket in Ogden. C. P. Lambert is willing to divide the work, as soon as the contract is duly countersigned by the new and municipal solons. It will be an expensive monument.

There will be prayer meeting at the Baptist Church Thursday evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

On account of the numerous other attractions on Friday evening, the regular concert has been postponed till Saturday evening, to be held in the old place, Knights of Pythias Hall.

The important change in certain commercial operations announced in the DEMOCRAT last week has taken place. Mr. H. Snyder has sold out his interest in the well-known dress goods firm of Snyder & Son, one of the leading firms in Utah, to Messrs. Thomas G. and William Burt, brothers of Mr. Sam J. Burt, his partner for business for several years past. The firm has acquired a more than ordinary reputation for his excellent management of the retail department and prescription desk at Wm. Driver & Co.'s drug store, and his younger brother, "Will," has long been a popular favorite in and through his connection with Clarke, Goldsmith & Co.'s clothing house. The brothers will form a solid and successful trio. Look out for their advertisement.

Deserving to meeting with many drawbacks on account of the vicissitudes of the weather.

Today again the fleece-browed collector will call on the warpath with grim determination to collect his dues or his scalps.

We have not heard much lately of pinochle, euchre. Has that interesting game sank the fate of the fifteen balls or the nine and thirteen?

The Chinamen made a big racket on the Fourth street last night, but all our interpreters could elicit from the Mongolian lodgers in question was, "Me no salee. Me no talkee." Possibly they were getting in the People's ticket.

By some miscalculation, yesterday morning's budget of Sunday night's happenings failed to connect with the railway mail service. Nobody is particular to be estimated. The most important items of interest appear in this issue, special copies of which will be for sale at Spargo's.

Important innovations and improvements are under way in the kitchen department of the Broom Hotel.

The frequency of railroad accidents all around and about us is almost a portent of the judgments of the wrath to be poured out upon "this wicked and unregenerate generation."

Dr. Perkins has his hands full at the Union Pacific hospital with the number of maimed and other injured clients, mostly victims of sad railroad accidents.

It is reported that Mr. Mercer, proprietor of Agnostic hall on Main street, is contemplating making arrangements for a series of free-thought lectures in his place. With the large number of free-thinkers in Ogden and vicinity, such a move is as legitimate and desirable as the daily gospel meetings and Sunday services in our various churches.

A Sunday child was born into the respected family of Mr. E. H. Anderson, superintendent of the district schools of Weber county, on the 30th. It was a boy. May he live long and prosper.

The tax collector for the county publishes for public sale two tracts of valuable property for the sake of recovery of $3.60 in each case of delinquent taxes.

The liberal-minded people of Lynne, our northern suburb, are in negotiation with the New West Association, who have already established a number of beneficial educational institutions in this Territory (which needs good school facilities so badly) to further the erection of a $6,000 school house, about 75x25 feet, which would furnish accommodations for the tuition of at least 150 children. No less that fifty wide awake residents of that burg have already signed their pledges of financial assistance in the project. The quincuncial crossing of roads near what is called "Five Points" is the prospective point of location for the new temple of learning, which is expected to be non-sectarian. Work is to be commenced early this season.

The funeral services over the remains of Mark Murphy, the unfortunate victim of the late fatality on the U. P. at Almy, will take place at 1 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, from the desolated family residence on the corner of Eighth and Spring streets. The obsequies will be such as to give evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The DEMOCRAT wishes to remind its numerous readers who belong to the staff of home missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Weber county, that they are to meet next Thursday at the usual place and time, to receive instructions from the superior priesthood regarding the People's party ticket for the coming election. This, as has been wisely said, is not "Church and State," it is all Church and no State.

Moses H. Wakeman and Leon Lefevre, stockmen from Denver, are at the Chapman.

Rough wind blowing this forenoon. Looks as if stirring up another snow storm.

Adam H. Patterson, the well-known stenographer, returned this morning from a pleasant two months' sojourn in California.

Superintendent Dickinson's car came up from Salt Lake City this morning.

This morning's C. P. train from the west brought in twenty-seven first-class and twenty-four second-class passengers.

James Morrell of Logan, arrived at the Broom last night, having come down with the late U. & N. train, which did not arrive until 7:30 o'clock.

John Brown of West Weber had been run down by Deputies Steele and Whetstone on the usual charge, but they let him go again, being a decrepit old fellow.

Mrs. Lizzie Guthrie Heywood, registered at the Broom last evening.

The remains of E. Roth, who died at the Depot hotel last week, were sent East this morning.

There are many complaints in town over neglects of the sanitary regulations, which may result in harm to the health of the people as soon as a warm breath wakes the malarial germs to the development of disease. The interior of the business center (included by Main, Fourth, Young and Fifth streets) is especially susceptible to the dreadful inroads of deadly dangers. It requires the strict attention of the Sanitary Committee.

A "black meeting" will be held in a certain ex-bishop's and ex-convict's residence on Thursday night by the adjoining members of the church. The lady of the house objected to the preaching of what she had heard enough of, but she had to yield.

J. W. McNutt has sold out his business, the Broom Hotel billiard hall and bar, to Mr. Harry Clayton, of Evanston.

A lot of Norman horses are being shown on the streets, exhibited evidently for sale by a Mr. Harry. They are pretty fine animals, but better have been seen.

E. P. Saxe has sold a fine thoroughbred Holstein bull to Messrs. S. and L. Neilson, of Sanpete county. The price of the animal was $275.

Speaking of the numerous combinations of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, one belonging to the institution spoke of the "Young Men's Mucilage Improvement Association." It's sticky, we hope.

Hon. E. D. Steele, Government Land Agent at Evanston, under President Cleveland's appointment, is at the Broom Hotel with his wife.

This morning's C. P. from the west is one hour late.

A. E. Snow, of the Brigham City Co-op., was in town over night. He returned north this forenoon.

A special train came down from Evanston about noon to-day, bringing in railroad people and others to attend the funeral of the late U. P. engineer, Mark Murphy, who perished in Saturday night's accident at Almy.

Snow fell over night and is still falling at the writing, 9:30 a. m.
