DON'T LIKE THE PEN.

Cass Hite's Attorney Makes Another Effort.

Charles Smith Must Pay the Alimony Awarded by the Colorado Court—The Alexander Case Again.

Colonel Montgomery of Denver, associate counsel for Cass Hite, appeared before Judge Zane yesterday in the Third district court and made application for a certificate that in his honor's opinion there was probable cause for appeal in the case.

Judge Zane took the application under advisement and will render a decision this morning.

Colonel Montgomery's object in asking for the certificate is to keep Hite out of the penitentiary, the law providing that in case of the issuance of such a certificate the prisoner may be confined in the county jail until the question of granting an appeal is settled.

Smith Must Pay.

In the case of Emma Smith vs. Charles Smith, to enforce a judgment for $1,000 alimony obtained in Denver, the jury, yesterday morning, brought in a sealed verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $800.

Short and Crisp.

Martha Proctor vs. Ella E. Hennesy; thirty days stay allowed to file statement for new trial on part of plaintiff.

American Oak Leather company vs. Standard Gig Saddle company; argued and submitted.

Sarah Houghton et al. vs. John Byron; plaintiff submitted statement for settlement.

William Robinson, a native of England, was admitted to citizenship.

Another Kink in the Alexander Case.

Jennie Alexander has sued her father, D. Alexander, for $1,612.50, balance due on salary as clerk, from July 1, 1887, to the date of failure of D. Alexander.

Suing For Her Salary.

Emily C. Clowes has brought suit against E. H. Dyer & Co., of Lehi, to recover $175.25 for services rendered as a typewriter. An attachment was issued in the suit setting forth that Dyer and his partners were about to leave the territory to escape their creditors.

Other Suits Filed.

The National Bank of the Republic yesterday filed suit against A. L. and Emma S. Williams and George Goss upon three promissory notes aggregating $6,000. The plaintiff asks for the foreclosure of a mortgage given to secure the payment of three notes.

F. T. Hintt has sued N. H. Groesbeck, William and John A. Groesbeck and Joseph A. Morton upon a past due note for $3,500.

John H. Miller yesterday brought suit against the Tintic Milling Company for $2,211.35 a balance due upon an account for goods sold.

THE MARKS-WILLIS CASE.

It Will Probably Be Decided by Commissioner Norrell Today.

Before Commissioner Norrell yesterday afternoon a hearing was begun of the complicated Marks-Willis trespass case. The affair grows out of the failure of S. R. Marks & Co., the furniture dealers of South Temple street.

George Willis was made the assignee, and after selling a portion of the goods at retail he made a bill of sale for the remainder to T. G. M. Smith for $1,700. The bill of sale was handed over to Willis' lawyers to be held until the cash was paid thereon. On Monday last the $1,700 was paid down, and Smith got his bill of sale. Accompanied by S. R. Marks, William Lee and George McNeill, he went to the store at 17 West South Temple, but Willis refused to turn over the store and goods to him.

After consultation the four gentlemen took forcible possession of the place and for this were arrested on warrants sworn out by Willis.

A decision will be reached in the case today.

Another Trespass Case.

John Callaghan, a building contractor, was arrested on a warrant yesterday afternoon, on a charge of trespass. Callaghan tore down a fence in the rear of Kelley's saloon to which objection was made by Mrs. Lillian Turner, the owner of the premises.

A CANAL REOPENED.

Health is largely dependent upon a regular habit of body. The bowels act as an important canal for the carrying of waste matter of the system. They, together with the kidneys and pores, are outlets for deaths whose presence is fatal to the body's well-being. Hostetter's stomach bitters is no violent purgative, but a gentle laxative admirably adapted to the wants of the constipated. It never gripes and wrenches the intestines as all drastic cathartics do, but produces an action akin to that of an effort of nature. Biliousness, indigestion, with their associate manifestation, costiveness, are speedily and completely remedied by this fine corrective, which also conquers malaria, sick headache, kidney and rheumatic trouble, and checks premature decay.
