"NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T!"

Wall Street's Game Over the Seigniorage Bill.

IT IS USED TO CUT AS A TWO-EDGED SWORD.

Belief in a Veto Caused a Buying Movement.

Reports Circulated That the Tariff Bill as Passed Is Sure to Make Sugar Free, and the Bears Hammered Down Prices—Bond Market Strong—Lead and Silver Both Quiet and Steady—Wheat, Coffee, Live Stock and Other Markets of the World.

New York, March 21.—Although not altogether a controlling influence of the speculation on the stock exchange, the fate of the seigniorage bill is full of interest to the street, and operators, both on long and short accounts, trade on their respective theories as to the probable action of the president.

The dispatch received from the executive chamber last evening by the chamber of commerce committee appointed to present the memorial adopted against the signing of the measure advising that they should not go to Washington, was taken by one section of the operators to mean in that, inasmuch as the resolution had been reached to veto the measure, it was unnecessary for the committee to make the journey.

On the other hand, it was suggested that the president, having decided to sign the bill, did not desire to speak to the committee.

Both sides of the session agreed that either Mr. Cleveland had made up his mind to the course to pursue, or wished to arrive at a conclusion without the assistance of the New York financiers.

A belief in the veto caused a buying movement during the morning, while in the afternoon the early purchasers became sellers. There were other factors besides the seigniorage bill which affected special stocks and sympathetically the entire market.

The Sugar interests profess to regard the sugar schedule on the Senate tariff bill with only less favor than they accepted the House bill, and assert that it does not give any material protection to refiners. As a consequence, the bears in the Sugar shares are assisted by this argument in hammering down prices. Reports today were circulated to the effect that several prominent senators have stated that the tariff bill as it will pass, is certain to make sugar free, but, withal, the common stock, after another break, recovered all but a fraction of the loss, while the preferred made a slight gain.

Pending the conclusion of negotiations in progress between representatives of the distilling and the distributing companies, the speculations in Distilling are contracted. The feeling which prevailed as to the outcome of the conference naturally restricts the buying, and the bear traders are not anxious to put out long lines of the stock lest they be swamped in a boom manufactured out of a possible agreement between the rival interests.

A covering movement in Burlington was the moving power in the speculation on this stock, but despite early purchases of St. Paul for the London account, the later selling reduced the advance in the common to ⅛, but the preferred made an advance of 1 per cent. The volume of business was lighter than for some time.

The bond market was strong until 2 o'clock in the afternoon when a reaction occurred, but in the final dealings the speculation became firm again and closed with prices in the main ¼ to ⅞ per cent. higher than the last quotations of yesterday for the active list.

WINTER WHEAT.

Favorable Reports from a Number of States.

Chicago, March 21.—The Farmers Review in today's issue says: Winter wheat in Illinois is variously reported, but mostly as fair and good. The reports show a good yield, though in many counties the acreage is less than last year. There are a few counties where the outlook is poor. Almost no winter killing is reported.

In Indiana, the growing crop promises to be good as a general thing. Very little damage has been done by thawing and freezing.

In Ohio, the crop is generally much better than it was last fall. A few reports are received of damage from freezing and thawing. In many places the prospect is better than it has been for years.

Michigan gives various reports, some of the northern counties reporting lots of snow. A number of counties report crops damaged considerably. As a whole, the condition is from fair to good.

In Kentucky, the crop generally is first-class.

In Missouri, the condition is fair, the early snow being in good shape but the late snow is still thin on the ground and backward.

Kansas reports improvement in condition since the big snow storm, though there was some freezing afterward.

In Wisconsin, the general condition is good.

SWIFT'S GREAT SUIT.

It Involves Claims for One Hundred Thousand.

Chicago, March 21.—Swift & Co.'s celebrated common carrier suit against the Chicago & Grand Trunk began four years ago, is again on hearing before Judge Burke. An enormous mass of evidence is on hand for introduction and the hearing is expected to consume several weeks. The litigants are represented by a number of the best railway lawyers in the country.

The suit involves claims filed by the packers for $100,000 as rebates on consignments of meats, and it bears upon the legal ability of the railroads to charge whatever prices they choose as common carriers, the plaintiff contending exorbitant freight charges have been made by the defendants.

The first witness called was David Hartwell, secretary for Swift & Co. He was called to show the capacity of the plaintiff's business. He said his company pays on an average $3,000,000 a year in freight charges and that it employes between 4,000 and 5,000 men in its business. About 150 cars of meat are shipped over the different railroads each day.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, March 21.

A frost scare was the Alpha and Omega of the day's influences on the wheat pit. It advanced the price of wheat ½c. per bushel for a time, but there was a bare ¼c. gain at the close.

Corn made a ¼c. advance and lost again.

Provisions were firm and scored the largest portion of the day's advance.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 37 cars; corn, 165 cars; hogs, 26,000 head.

SOCIAL AMUSEMENTS.

TWENTY-FIRST WARD REUNION AND BALL LAST EVENING.

Social Given by the Fifteenth Ward Choir—Series of Lectures at the Plymouth Church.

The regular annual reunion, under the auspices of the Young Ladies Mutual Improvement Association, assisted by the Y. M. M. I. A., and teachers of the Sunday school, was held in the Twenty-first ward meeting house last evening. The house was packed, back to the doors, there being fully 600 persons present. On the platform, which was tastefully decorated with flags, plants, flowers, etc., were seated Bishop M. S. Woolley and counselors, also Presidents Angus M. Cannon, Joseph E. Taylor, C. R. Savage, George Goddard, W. C. Dunbar and others. Thomas Goodman was master of ceremonies. A bounteous supply of good things to eat were provided by the ladies of the ward, and there were cash and other donations galore. The cash, amounting to $55, will be divided equally and sent to the boys of the ward who are now on foreign missions. The provisions, etc., will be turned over to the bishop for distribution to the poor. The following programme was rendered:

Opening Glee, Twenty-first ward Glee club.
Prayer, Bishop Woolley.
Song, "Hard Times," congregation.
Recitation, Sister McFarlane.
Character song, C. E. Clissold.
Recitation, Alice Calder.
Character song, Mattie Read.
Song, W. C. Dunbar.
Glee, Twenty-first ward Glee club.

Interspersed by short speeches by Presidents Cannon and Taylor, Bishop Woolley, C. R. Savage, George Goddard and others. At the close of the programme refreshments were served, after which the hall was cleared for dancing, which was kept up until a goodly hour. Music was furnished by the Twenty-first ward orchestra. The reunion will be continued this afternoon, all those under 15 having been ruled out last evening will have their good time today. The young ladies of the ward deserve great credit for the success of the entertainment, and Bishop Woolley has cause to feel proud of the large attendance, as an evidence of the esteem in which he is held by members of the ward.

Fifteenth Ward Choir Social.

They have an organization called the "Choir Fund Association" in the Fifteenth ward, whose custom is to have a yearly sociable in the Improvement Association Hall. Last night about 150 assembled and made merry with songs, speeches and dancing. This is the twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the association, although the choir was organized long before that date. T. C. Griggs was conductor of the choir for twenty-two years and is now succeeded by Mr. J. W. Ashton, an efficient leader.

They had a good old-fashioned time where the "Sicilienne Circle" and "Roger de Coverly" were the prominent dances. Maggie Hull sang "Bonnie Sweet Bessie," which was the gem of song for the evening. The hall was tastefully decorated and provided with chairs and tables in the ante rooms.

Plymouth Church Lectures.

Tonight, the first lecture of the course to be given at he Plymouth church will be delivered by Professor Matthews, who speaks on "Hypnotism." On March 30, Rev. W. S. Hawkes will speak on "The Mummy King," on April 6, Professor Marshall will lecture on "Glimpses of English History," on April 13, D. E. V. Silver will be heard on "How to Have Good Health," on April 20, Professor Augsberg will give a "Chalk Talk," on April 27, Judge Goodwin will speak, and on May 4, the series will close with a lecture on "Life In Ancient Rome," by Professor Cumming.

Twentieth Ward Reunion.

The people of the Twentieth ward will have a reunion and ball at the Eighteenth ward hall on Friday evening. Music will be furnished by the Christenson Bros. Orchestra.

Wonderland.

And still another change in programme occurs at this house today. Mr. Huber, the artist, has been engaged to stay another week and will paint another souvenir in the curio hall for the ladies.

On the bijou stage the popular Fred Gottlob will produce another of his laughible sketches, and in the theatorium, besides an excellent specialty show, Professor Hart and Mlle. Bessie will give their great pillory test and Davenport spirit cabinet.

WHITE VERSUS BLACK.

The Darkey Respondent Again Walks Away "Wid de Dough."

"Nigger" Richards went against "white" Miller, an article from the northwest, in an alleged prize fight that drew some fifty misguided sports to Nelson's road house last night. The affair had been quietly heralded among inner circles as one that would produce more blood than ever flowed at Appomattox and this having leaked out the police were soon on the qui vive. Meanwhile the fight had been called at 9:30 with a well known sporting man as referee. From the call of time it became evident to the spectators that Miller was going against a wall of sinew almost as invulnerable as stone. His rushes were met by Richards who simply ducked fowl-like under his antagonists distended wings and then wheeled to rain a shower of blows upon him. In the third round, Miller, who had punched the air full of stupendous holes became disperate, and grasping his antagonist around the trunk began to sink his molars into the dusky meat.

"Break 'way there," shrieked Referee Doe. "No biting goes in Utah—the laws are opposed to it."

At this admonition Miller withdrew his fangs and with the blood dripping from them made another rush against the dark wall that confronted him. Richards came back with several swings that sawed the circumambient like a Mohommedan's sword and having landed once or twice while his opponent had landed but once and then with his devouring jaws he was declared the winner. Not a knock down. The only blood visible was that which Miller sucked from his gums and spit on the floor and the black man sucked from his shoulder. And fifty disgusted sports who gave to witness the Thermopolae, walked two miles to catch an incoming car on the Rapid Transit. Richards who had been recently notified by the police to quit the town in twenty-four hours pocketed the small change that had been tipped by the squad of sports and will now proceed to new fields to seek new buckets of gore. Marriage having proved a failure with the modern Madeline what about pugilism at Nelson's road house?

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN.

A Committee Organized to Take Charge of Educational Work.

The campaign of Democratic evangelization moves on apace and in a few weeks its seed will have been sown in every portion of the territory.

A most important caucus of the leaders took place in the governor's office on Tuesday evening, at which time there were present H. P. Henderson, representing the territorial Democratic society; Orlando W. Powers, the Tuscaroras; J. R. Letcher, the Pioneer society; J. H. Moyle, the Democratic club; C. M. Nelson, the Scandinavian Democratic club; and F. S. Richards, delegate at large. The conditions of the party as they at present exist and the best way of promoting them were exhaustively discussed, after which it was decided to prosecute a campaign of education with greater activity than ever before. To this end Mr. Richards was made chairman of a committee consisting of O. W. Powers, J. R. Letcher, J. H. Moyle and C. M. Nelson, who will meet again during the week to determine upon a programme and post a schedule of meetings that are shortly to be commenced.

People who give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial realize its merits and are glad to say a good word for it. Have you tried it? 64
