HOLD A JOINT SESSION

Executive Committees of Labor Men Get Together.

ADDRESS TO BE ISSUED

BOYCE AND M'DONALD WILL PREPARE A STATEMENT.

Gompers Denies That His Mission Here Was to Induce Westerners to Return to the American Federation Fold—Has Made No Formal Effort to Secure Such Action.

The executive committees of the Western Federation of Miners of America and the Western Labor Union held a joint session yesterday morning. The principal matter discussed was the issuance of an interchangeable card which would entitle the holder to admission into any of the subordinate branches of either organization. It is likely that such cards will be issued.

It was also decided that President Boyce of the miners, and President McDonald of the laborers, would issue a joint address, to be prepared some time in the near future. This address, it is stated, will embody an appeal to all labor organizations to side with the striking miners in the Coeur d'Alenes.

Another agreement reached was that hereafter, when they take the field for organization purposes, President Boyce is to work just as hard for the Labor Union as for the miners, and President McDonald is to return the compliment.

Both presidents carefully avoided any discussion of the mission here of President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation, which is said to be to induce the western bodies to affiliate once more with the larger one. Mr. McDonald said he had met Mr. Gompers, but the matter had not been formally discussed. Mr. Boyce had also seen Mr. Gompers.

Mr. Gompers denied that he came here for the purpose outlined above. He declared that he didn't even know the labor people were meeting in Salt Lake until a day or two before his arrival. "I hope they will come back into the Federation," he concluded, "but I have made no formal attempt to induce them to take such action."

Mr. Gompers leaves for Colorado this evening.

Nearly all of the members of both organizations have gone home. A few will remain during today, seeing the sights, but all business, either general or committee, has been concluded.

SUFFERINGS OF MINERS.

Imprisoned Miner Describes Experience In Bull-pen.

President Edward Boyce of the Western Federation of Miners has received a letter from a friend who was among the miners rounded up after the Wardner (Ida.) riots, and penned up for several days on suspicion of participation in those riots. The letter gives a graphic description of the treatment received by the miners at the hands of the Twenty-fourth infantry during the days of their imprisonment, and is, perhaps, the first authentic description by one of the miners themselves.

It describes the arrival of the regulars at Burke, and how the miners were made prisoners as they came up out of the mines off shift. Without being given the privilege of changing their clothes or of getting anything to eat, they were herded into box cars and taken down the canyon to Wardner Junction. There they were kept standing in their wet clothes until midnight, and then driven to a big barn, called the "bull pen." Between 350 and 400 men were here confined in a space about 40 by 80 feet, all without food, and some with wet clothes. Not until noon did the prisoners get anything to eat. Then they were divided into squads of twenty-five, and each squad was given a pail of what the author of the letter describes as "swill," and told to eat it. Some had not had anything to eat for nearly thirty-six hours, and even then could hardly down the food.

"We asked for soap and towels to clean ourselves a little," the letter goes on, "but the authorities did not seem to think the Canyon creek people needed such luxuries, for they would not give them to us, so, with grease and dirt sticking to us, we were driven back to our sty."

The dire plight the imprisoned miners were in was, after two days, relieved through the good offices of the women of Burke, who sent down to Wardner a quantity of soap, towels, blankets, food, tobacco and dry clothing.

After three days of life in the "bull pen," the writer of the letter was released, but there were hundreds who were not freed for many more days. While the miners were imprisoned, he says, the deputies from the Burke Hill had terrorized the camp. "Insults were offered to wives and sisters, furniture destroyed, jewelry stolen, children abused, young girls threatened with arrest, and the lockers and paraphernalia rooms of fraternal societies smashed and broken open.

"There is no use of the state authorities or the Spokesman-Review trying to make out that the men arrested are in any way connected with the blowing up of the Bunker Hill & Sullivan mill, for you know as well as I do that the men that planned and performed that work were out of the country long before the soldiers ever got into it. The authorities themselves have acknowledged that most of the men held were innocent men."

The writer severely criticises the conduct of the negro soldiers, and says that their treatment of the miners was cruel and inhuman in the extreme. Dysentery broke out among the prisoners one of the first nights of their incarceration, and when their guards were appealed to, they simply swore at the miners and refused to anything for them.

"Now, all friends of labor and labor organizations," the letter concludes, "in the name of our birthright, let us stand together to fight the principle now being pursued by the governor of Idaho and the Bunker Hill company, that if they cannot find the guilty, they will make the innocent suffer, as they must be revenged."

UTAH CROP BULLETIN.

Favorable Weather For the Growth of All Crops.

Following is a summary of Director Murdoch's weekly climate and crop bulletin, issued yesterday:

The weather the past week has been favorable for the growth of all crops. The temperature was nearly up to normal. Good showers were general over the state on the 9th, except in the southern tier of counties. The sowing of wheat and oats is practically completed. Potato planting is still in progress, and corn planting has been started. Sugar beets are still being planted. Those first put in are up, and in some places are being thinned.

SALT PALACE BENEFIT.

Will Cost Twenty-five Cents to See the Brokers Play Ball.

It was the intention of the management of the baseball game between the teams of the two mining exchanges of the city to play an open game on Saturday, at which the public would be invited to attend free of charge, but sober second thought has resulted in the same being made private, with an admission fee, the proceeds to go to the Salt Palace fund. It is thought the university grounds can be secured for the game, and an application will be filed this morning.

The lineup of the teams will be printed tomorrow morning. Judge Timmony and Doc King will be umpires, and an ambulance from each hospital will be on hand to carry away the injured.

Tickets are 25 and 15 cents, and will be on sale today. People should buy early and avoid the rush, and the number of visitors has been limited by request to 8,000.

In the event the university grounds cannot be secured, other arrangements will be made. Other teams having games scheduled for that date will please cancel and avoid financial disaster, as this contest will take all the ready money in sight.

MISUNDERSTANDING IN COURT

JUDGE HOWAT CALLED MR. SMITH A FALSIFIER.

Tropical Exchange of Compliments Due to a Mistake On the Part of One of the Attorneys.

Just at the close of the trial of Snell vs. Salt Lake Amusement company in Judge Cherry's court yesterday, Attorney H. A. Smith and Judge Andrew Howat indulged in a brief little spat, which raised the temperature in the courtroom many degrees while it lasted.

Judge Howat was questioning a witness about another case similar to the one on trial, when Mr. Smith interjected the statement, "That case has been tried, and we won it, too."

Judge Howat had misunderstood the title of the case mentioned by the witness, and he turned on Mr. Smith sharply.

"That's a falsehood," he cried, "and you know it is, well enough."

Smith rose excitedly in his place and retorted, angrily: "You wouldn't dare say a thing like that to me anywhere else. You're taking advantage of the fact that you're in court."

"I'll repeat what I said whenever and wherever you wish," Judge Howat began. But Judge Cherry interposed.

"Settle your differences out of court, gentlemen," he said, "and not in here. Go on with the case." That ended the incident.

The case over which the tilt arose was an appealed suit, involving $128.30, alleged to be due John W. Snell, jr., from the amusement company for salary as secretary. Wilson & Smith represented Snell, and Judge Howat appeared for the defendant company.

The case occupied all day long, and the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant, after being out something over half an hour.

OFFENDERS BEFORE TIMMONY.

Joe Wilson, John Beck, H. E. Knudsen and Benjamin Rose yesterday paid the customary $2 penalty for driving their steeds at too rapid a gait over crossings. The last named was averse to pleading, as he supposed he would "have to pay up, anyhow." Benjamin was inclined to think he was being falsely accused, as he didn't understand how the officer could see him when not looking in his direction.

"'E surely 'asn't heyes in 'is back, 'as 'e?" was the question which sent a titter around the room.

"Benjamin, it will cost you $2," said Judge Timmony.

Joe Henderson put up a pitiful tale of how his trip to Cheyenne had been suddenly interrupted by an officer of the law, and the judge kindly advised him to make tracks immediately for a Pullman office.

G. L. Trumley was the unfortunate who fell off an incoming Rio Grande Western train Monday night. Judge Timmony allowed him to go on a promise to leave the city.

Chris Larsen, who has a faculty now and then of acquiring jags of magnitude, was called upon to explain why he had again spent his money for spiritual intoxicants. Chris made a long talk, which would no doubt have been a very eloquent one had he been able to express himself in distinguishable English. "Vell, Meester Chudge, I vas oudt mit de poys, and tak' a drink, vich make me awful sick, and"——

"Well, the court happened to be at the station, Chris, when you were brought up in the wagon, and it strikes me it was indeed a very queer jag. So I'll"——

"Oh, chudge, let me go, ehust dees vonce, and see"——

"It's five this time, Chris," and Chris sat down with a woebegone expression on his brow.

The case of Charley Ong and Lee Hong, who were to be tried on the charge of selling liquor to an Indian, went over until today at 3 o'clock. There was a goodly gathering of Plum alleyites in court yesterday, who had come to see the outcome of the trial.

James Elwin, William Noble and John French, vags, who claimed to be on their way from California to various places east, were allowed to go, on promising to leave town at once.

Delia Jennings, who was arrested last Saturday for prostitution, was given a jury trial yesterday afternoon. The evidence went to show that the woman was a denizen of the Golden Gate lodging-house on East Second South, and that she had been seen associating with negroes. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, and Judge Timmony fined the woman $50, in lieu of the payment of which she will spend fifty days in jail.

EXPERTS IN ADULTERY CASE.

Alleged That the Simpson Letters Are Forgeries.

The trial of George Simpson, on a charge of adultery, was continued all day yesterday before Judge Norrell, and at adjournment time the defense had only begun to put in its case. Certain letters, which Simpson is alleged to have written to Mrs. Ferguson, and which tend to show the guilty relations of the pair, are claimed by the defense to be forgeries. A great deal of time yesterday was occupied by expert witnesses, some of whom said that the writing in the objectionable letters was that of Simpson, while others were of exactly the opposite opinion. It was shown that Simpson and Mrs. Ferguson had been quite intimate, and that she met him in Salt Lake a number of times and once at Sandy.

The case will probably last all day today.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes, 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at Z. C. M. I. drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

IN THE COURTS.

BACON BANK SUIT.

Dalton & Lark Stock Not Sufficient to Satisfy the Debt.

Arthur Hoyle brought suit yesterday against James H. Bacon on a note of $1,947.10, given on Dec. 31, 1896. As security for this note 1,874 shares of Dalton & Lark stock was deposited, and this stock was sold on April 24 last, bringing $314.17. A balance of $1,729.93 remains, for which judgment is demanded.

W. T. Gunter is attorney for Mr. Hoyle.

LOAN COMPANY SUIT.

Borrower Seeks to Recover Excess of Premiums.

The case of John P. Robinson vs. the Pacific States Savings, Loan & Building association was tried before Judge Hiles yesterday, and taken under advisement by the court. The case is the last of a half dozen or so suits against the company to recover back overpaid premiums. Robinson borrowed $900 from the company in 1892, and has paid in in premiums and interest, $834. The company demands $234 in premiums and interest before discharging the indebtedness. In the other similar cases judgment was granted in each for the difference between the amount borrowd with interest and the excess paid. All the cases will be taken to the supreme court.

The company has not been a successful one, owing to the hard times, and as all those who have sued have been shareholders, the company holds that they should share its losses.

N. V. Jones represented the plaintiff, and M. L. Ritchie the defendant.

Court Notes.

In the item published yesterday relating to the case of Kallstrom vs. Byers and Thomas, it was erroneously stated that Miss Kallstrom was granted a decree against W. A. Byers. The error was due to the court record, where it was shown that the plaintiff was granted a decree for an accounting. The action was dismissed as to Byers.

Trial of the case of Snyder vs. Daly was resumed yesterday in Judge Hiles' court and it was then continued until a day not settled upon, so as to admit of the procuring of further evidence for the defendant.

Today's Calendar.

In Judge Cherry's court the following cases will be called for trial today:

Smith vs. Draper Irrigation company.

Rislaton vs. Freeman.

But one case is on Judge Hiles' docket today, aside from probate matters. It is A. J. Swenson vs. J. J. Snell.

Supreme Court Cases.

The following cases were argued before the supreme court yesterday:

Edmund T. Hulaniski vs. Ogden City. J. N. Kimball represented the plaintiff, E. M. Allison, jr., the defendant.

James Thompson vs. M. B. Whitney; H. C. Edwards appeared for the plaintiff, and H. J. Dininny for the defendant.

Theodore Bassman vs. H. G. Button et al.; motion to reinstate appeal denied.

Joseph H. Haslam vs. James N. Haslam; petition for modification of judgment overruled.

Haddock Case Dismissed.

The case of Ben R. Haddock vs. the Salt Lake Lime & Cement company was dismissed yesterday by agreement between the parties. Haddock sued for personal injuries received in 1895, and on the trial lost his case. A motion for a new trial was pending, but a compromise was effected yesterday and the case will be stricken from the calendar of the district court.

PIONEER JUBILEE SUIT.

Anheuser Busch Company Stops Sale of Its Property.

Suit was begun yesterday in the Third district court by the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company against Sheriff Howells and the Pioneer Jubilee commission, to set aside a judgment rendered in Justice McMaster's court against the company in their $100 subscription to the Pioneer Jubilee fund. The complaint says that the judgment is null and void, because the summons was served upon J. R. Slater, who was not at that time the company's agent. It asks that the sheriff be restrained from selling certain premises which were advertised for sale under the execution issued by virtue of the judgment. The sale was to have been held at noon yesterday. Judge Hiles issued the restraining order prayed for, making it returnable May 27.

Pierce, Critchlow & Barrette represent the plaintiff.

LIGHT FOR PROVO.

Council Accepts Proposition From Lighting Company.

(Special Correspondence.)

Provo, May 16.—Last night the city council met in regular session and among other business considered and accepted the following proposition of the Provo Lighting company:

Monthly Schedule. First—32-candle power incandescent lights to Provo for lighting streets, all night service, 50 cents per light, operated without expense to the city.

Second—Sixteen candle power incandescent lamps to consumers, all night service, at the following rates: One lamp, 75 cents; two lamps, 90 cents; three lamps, $1.

Third—A meter rate of two-thirds of one cent for each sixteen candle power lamp per hour, that is, at the rate of two-thirds of one cent for a lamp consuming fifty-two watts, for residence only, with a minimum meter charge of $1.50.

Fourth—Sixteen candle power incandescent lamps, all night service, for business houses, 50 cents per light.

Fifth—Arc lamps for business houses, 2,000 candle power, 10 o'clock service, $3.00; 12 o'clock, $5; all night, $10.

The acceptance of this proposition practically solves the electric light problem which has been worrying the city fathers for some eight months or more. Footholes are being dug along J and Seventh street and it will be but a short time before the new company will have everything in readiness for furnishing lights to all who want them in the city.

The resignation of Judge Booth as president of the council was accepted last night. The names of A. L. Booth and Bishop W. J. Lewis were mentioned as his successors, but no action was taken and the council was adjourned to meet next Monday.

THOMAS BESTS M'HUGH.

He Won a Hot Eight-round Fight In Eureka.

(Special Correspondence.)

Eureka, May 16.—Eureka is fast getting a reputation for "square" sports, which was of material assistance in gathering together a good-sized crowd last night to witness a "mill" between young Thomas and Frank McHugh. The fight lasted eight rounds, and was fast from start to finish. McHugh did some good work in the first three rounds, and in the fourth survived some hard punishment. In the fifth Thomas got in two knockdown blows on the opponent, in direct contradiction to the declaration of McHugh's admirers that he could not hit hard enough to win a fight. In the sixth there was much clinching and little fighting, but in the seventh McHugh played pretty well with his opponent's ribs, and Thomas rushed him to the ropes, where he administered a vicious punch before time was called. In the eighth round Thomas started in to finish his man, which he accomplished by another rush, by which he got McHugh into the corner and with two rapid blows on chin and neck sent his opponent down for the last time. McHugh was game, and made two ineffectual attempts to "come to taw."

Thomas proved himself an agile, shifty fighter, and is quite the pride of the town. Both men were in training here, and considerable money changed hands on the result. Herbert Slade, the Maori, refereed the fight to the satisfaction of everyone.

RICHFIELD DISTRICT COURT.

James Johnson Sentenced to Pay $250—Other Decisions.

(Special Correspondence.)

Richfield, May 16.—The case of Lisonbio vs. the Monroe & South Bend Irrigation companies was on all day Saturday in the district court before Judge Higgins, and all day yesterday with the exception of a little time in passing a couple of sentences. The case is continued today.

James Johnson of Glenwood, convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, appeared yesterday for sentence. The court, after calling the defendant's attention to the serious character of his offense, imposed a sentence of a fine of $250.

Peter Hansen, convicted of having obstructed a public highway near Redmond, by causing water to flow thereon, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50, and all costs of the lower and district courts.

In the Bunker vs. Coons' case, Judge McCarty rendered judgment in favor of the plaintiff for 5 cents, and set aside the sheriff's sale of land belonging to the plaintiff, restoring it to him as a homestead and exempting it from execution. The court severely lectured the plaintiff for evident intention to defraud creditors.

STEWART FINED $60.

Lehi Man Found Guilty By Court at Provo.

(Special Correspondence.)

Provo, May 16.—The case against Paul Stewart of Lehi went to the jury this morning and the case against Mose Jones was immediately called for trial. Stewart was found guilty and fined $60 which he paid.

Jones is of Lehi, and the crime charged against him is alleged to have been committed in June of last year with one Katherine Barton of the same town.

The regular panel of jurors was exhausted in making up the requisite number to hear the case and a special venire of ten was drawn. These were John Saxey, Olaf Edenburg and George W. Gee, all of Provo; W. J. Shipley, American Fork; Isaac Allen, Goshen; Edward Kerns, Lehi; B. W. Driggs, Pleasant Grove; Andrew Holdaway, Vineyard; John G. Morgan, Spanish Fork; Charles Samuelson, Santaquin. The first three named were made returnable today; the others, tomorrow morning.

C. E. Loose, who failed to answer to his name yesterday when it was called as one of the jurors for this term, appeared in court this morning and stated that important mining business forced him to be absent. His excuse was accepted and he was excused till next Saturday.

P. Oscar Peterson has begun suit against Gustave Larsen to quiet title to 4.16 acres of land near Benjamin.

The case of Provo vs. W. B. Slick was continued to May 22.

In the estate of Sarah C. Lambson, deceased; MacDougall, Gomer Phillips and Frank Whitmore were appointed appraisers.

A reception was tendered the bride and groom after the ceremony, and a pleasant time was had by all. They will leave here at once for the coast, traveling leisurely. Dr. Andrews has succeeded to the doctor's practice here. Miss Robbins was born and raised in Gunnison, but of late years has made Salt Lake City her home.

This is the last week of the district schools. The closing exercises of the eighth grade took place last Friday, and that of the primary and intermediate grades will take place next Friday.

A change in management of the Robbins House will occur at a very early date. Swen Peterson, who has successfully conducted the place for some time, will retire and will be succeded by Hans C. Peterson.

WANT BETTER TEACHERS.

Eastern Utah Counties Decide On Rigid Examinations.

(Special Correspondence.)

Price, Utah, May 16.—The county superintendents of schools of eastern Utah counties will draw the line close on teachers to be employed next year and are acting in harmony in the matter of securing a better class of instructors. Institutes are to be held early in order that the best teachers may be secured and in Emery county, for instance, Superintendent B. F. Luke has given it out that no teacher not attending the institute to be held at Huntington soon will be allowed to teach in that county the coming year. Here in Carbon county a very rigid examination has been prepared that the twenty to twenty-five teachers to be employed next year must take. The examiners will be County Superintendent Webb and Miss Mary Leonard, principal of the Price public schools, and her assistant, Miss Sadie Kimball, all experienced and thorough instructors in the schoolroom.

UINTAH COUNTY PROSPEROUS.

Valuation This Year Approaches Million Dollar Mark.

(Special Correspondence.)

Vernal, May 13.—A look over the assessment roll for Uintah county this year reveals the fact that the million mark has almost been reached. The total valuations foot up to $978,562 as compared with $810,000 for last year, making a gain of nearly $160,000 which is not a bad showing for a county out in the wilderness.

Sheepmen are very much concerned over the forest reserve, from which sheep are to be excluded, as it cuts off all the summer range. A strict enforcement of the order will seriously cripple the industry, and will no doubt drive many large flocks from the state.

Next year the canal will be extended and more land brought under water. It is a local enterprise and all of the money necessary to carry on the work has already been pledged.

Tanner, who was down for a fifteen-minute address, occupied an hour and a quarter, and Miss Hoving also spoke. No allusion was made to the Rev.
