RIGHT ON JAW WON THE FIGHT

"Wild Bill" Hanrahan Lasts But Five Round.

CHOYNSKI RETAINS PUNCH

SHOWS UP HIS OLD TIME FORM LAST NIGHT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 7.—Joe Choynski of Chicago defeated "Wild Bill" Hanrahan in the fifth round of what was scheduled as a twenty-five-round match, before the Empire Athletic club at Music hall in this city tonight. The knockout blow came after a hot mix-up, which ended in Choynski putting a stiff left to Wild Bill's jaw and followed it up with a right to the jaw, which put Hanrahan out of the fight. Choynski had the better of the fight all the way through and his feinting and dodging were too much for the New York man, whose vicious swings failed to land.

In the first round the men kept away from each other and seemed to be trying each other out. Hanrahan, at the opening of the round, however, landed a hard swing on Choynski neck, knocking him down. Choynski was up in an instant and did not seem to be troubled.

The second and third round were Choynski's and in the latter round Choynski landed on Hanrahan's jaw four times without a return. In the fourth round, however, the men mixed it up and both landed some stiff punches, Hanrahan reached Choynski's jaw three times without return. Both men seemed tired when the gong sounded.

At the beginning of the fifth round a swift exchange of blows followed a clinch, but Choynski had the better of the fighting and sent in two rights to Hanrahan's jaw. The latter then became wild and Choynski whipped in a left to Hanrahan's jaw, following it with a right to the jaw, which put the New Yorker down and out.

Before the Choynski-Hanrahan fight it was announced that Tom Sharkey would meet the winner Derby night in this city.

WADE ACCEPTS.

Will Meet Kid Opie of Butte at Any Time.

Jack Wade stated yesterday that he would take up the challenge issued by the Butte sport in yesterday's Herald for a match between himself and Kid Opie of Butte. Wade said that his backers in Butte would post the money as soon as Opie's backers desired and intimated that the latter knew this full well when they issued their challenge.

Wade has already had three battles with the Butte man, the first of which was won by Opie in five rounds, Wade winning the last two in nine rounds and sixteen rounds respectively. The Salt Lake man says he is not averse to meeting any man in his class and as soon as the match between himself and Clifford is over he will meet them as fast as they come.

DOWN TO WEIGHT.

Wade Under the Limit, But Clifford Still Too Heavy.

The Wade training quarters at the Warm Springs are the center of attraction for all the local sports these days. The Montana lightweight champion is doing good work and will enter the ring in the best of condition. He weighed 131 yesterday, which is two pounds under the weight in the articles of agreement.

Clifford is working daily with Lew Williams as a sparring partner, but it is claimed he is having hard work to get down to the necessary 133 pounds. He will do extra heavy work within the next few days in hope of pulling off a few extra pounds.

The Death of Carter.

Sporting Editor Herald:

What was the date of the killing of James Carter by Bob Thompson?

READER.

Salt Lake, March 7.

The fight occurred on the night of July 28, 1896, and Carter died a day later, on July 29. It was brought out at the inquest that Carter died from the effects of the fall received after the blow was struck. The floor of the ring was not padded and when Carter fell his head struck the hard board floor. Modern rings are constructed as the one in Salt Lake, that is, the floor is covered with saw dust over which is stretched a piece of heavy ducking. There has never been a death reported from the effects of a fall on a floor of this kind.

GO TO LOGAN.

L. D. S. U. Team Will Again Play the B. Y. C.

The L. D. S. U. basket ball team leaves for Logan this morning to again meet the speedy basket ball players of the B. Y. C. A great amount of interest is centered in the game among the local basket ball fans, nearly all of whom are confident that the local team will win.

The players that will leave here for Logan are: Stanton and Hamlin, forwards; Taylor, center; Bassett and Christy, guards. Manager Hicks stated yesterday that the local team would take Stewart and Sheppard along as two of the officials and the other would be Langton of the A. C. of Logan.

Miscellaneous.

Word From Augustus.

Secretary John T. Axton of the Y. M. C. A. received a letter from former Physical Director J. A. Augustus, now in charge of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium at Topeka, Kan. Augustus writes that he has over 700 active members of the "gym," which manages to keep him very busy. He also says he would like very much to come back to Salt Lake to live as he likes this country much better than the east. Among the callers at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday was Alonzo Dykeman, the star tackle on the Y. M. C. A. football team of '99. Dykeman was considered one of the best tackles that ever played the game in this state and belonged to the Christians' team when they defeated everything they went up against. He lives at Mercur at the present time.

JOSEPHS TALKS ABOUT BALL CLUB

Gives Outline For the Coming Season.

GEORGE BORCHERS MANAGER

NEW BOARD OF DIRECTORS WILL BE SELECTED.

THE story published in yesterday's Herald about the reorganization of the Salt Lake baseball club under the management of Harry S. Josephs was certainly good news to the large number of fans in this city, and on every side they could be noticed congratulating each other on the outlook for the sport. Harry Josephs was the center of an admiring crowd of fans during the afternoon and expressed himself in the following manner:

"You see," said Josephs, "I read the account in the papers about Ogden coming down here and putting in a team this year. Well that made me mad to think that there was not enough pride in the town to oppose such a movement, which would be almost an insult to the Salt Lake fans. I thought the matter over and decided that if no other person in the city would make a move to put in a team in this city I would. So I quietly bought up a majority of the stock and called the meeting, which resulted in my getting control of the club."

Josephs then said that he was not going into the game as a money-making proposition, but that he thought that by proper management a team could be put in here that would pay its way through the season. He also stated that he would not appear in the management of the team at all and that he had engaged George Borchers to have full charge of all the players and the running of the team.

"I have instructed Secretary Whitney to issue a call for a meeting of all the stockholders as soon as possible under the law," said Josephs, "and at that time we will elect another board of directors. My ideas are to have only three on that board and give them the full power to transact all business."

Josephs said he had written a letter to Manager McCloskey of the Butte team, stating that he could give him the dates he asked for of Mr. Critchlow some time ago.

This means that the strong Butte aggregation will do their training in Salt Lake this year. The lease on the grounds for another year has already been secured and everything is now in shape to begin signing players.

George Borchers, the playing manager of the club, was seen yesterday, but said he had nothing to say at the present time. However, he intimated that he would have good news for the fans within the next week.

Indoor Baseball Tonight.

FAMOUS PITCHER DEAD AT PITTSBURG.

JAMES GALVIN, THE FAMOUS PITTSBURG PITCHER, WHO DIED LAST NIGHT.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 7.—James Galvin, a once famous baseball pitcher, is dead at his home in Allegheny, after an illness of four months of catarrh of the stomach. He was 48 years old.

James Galvin was one of the most famous characters in the history of baseball. For years he was one of the leading pitchers in the National league and perhaps had as many friends at the time of his death as any single individual who has followed the game as a profession.

His last hours were made as comfortable as possible by the many friends who constantly surrounded his bedside. As is the case with many of the public's idols in sporting life, Galvin was not well supplied with money at the time of his death. Realizing this, a number of his friends started a fund last week and soon raised a sum of money, which was turned over to the then sick man's family. Among the many telegrams received by Galvin before death from sympathizing friends were the following from well-known baseball fans:

Chicago, March 3.—Express to his wife and family my sincere sympathy. In many ways Galvin was a wonderful pitcher. In holding the base runner on a base he had no equal. Galvin could catch more men on the bases than any pitcher in the business.

A. C. ANSON.

Cleveland, O., March 3.—My sincere wish is that Jimmy Galvin will recover. His many admiring friends, both among his fellow players and the baseball public, I know, join in this sentiment. While there is life there is hope.

F. DE HAAS ROBINSON.

St. Louis, March 3.—Galvin was one of God's noblemen. It shocks me to hear of his condition. There never was nor ever will be a better pitcher known to the baseball public. Sympathy to his family. Put me down for $10.

PAT TEBEAU.

St. Louis, March 3.—Sorry to hear sad news of Galvin's condition. He was one of the greatest pitchers of the day and unexcelled as a gentleman.

A Number of Upsets Yesterday—Only Two Favorites Came in For First Money.

San Francisco, March 7.—There were a number of upsets at Oakland today, only two favorites winning. In the 2-year-old event, Little Margaret, the favorite, was knocked back to last position at the start, losing much ground. She closed rapidly but was beaten half a length by Guida, a 25 to 1 short.

OGDEN HORSEMAN HERE.

R. M. Runyon Discusses the Outlook For Turf Racing.

R. M. Runyon, a well known horseman of Ogden was in the city yesterday and while here spent a little time talking over horse interests with a number of local turf followers. Mr. Runyon says that in all probability they will have a meet or two at the Junction City this year. A number of the horsemen of that town are now working on the matter and hope to act in conjunction with the new county fair association that is rapidly being formed.

Ogden has a half-mile track that is considered one of the best in the state and there are a number of good animals owned in the city. Mr. Runyon said that the Ogden horsemen had taken a great amount of interest in the prospects of the new mile track for this city and thinking Ogden would send down a number of horses to take part in the races here if a track of this kind should be built.
