LICENSE FEES ARE REDUCED

City Council Lowers Tax For All Brokers.

MORE CROSSINGS ASKED FOR

ALICE KIRK MAKES DEMAND FOR $5,000 DAMAGES.

An ordinance was passed by the city council last evening raising the license of junk dealers from $50 to $100, and reducing the fee of ticket brokers from $100 to $50, and of merchandise brokers from $100 to $25. The resolution has been before the council for several weeks.

A proposition to build ninety stone crosswalks caused considerable debate. Some of the councilmen thought the city could not afford them. Others said it was useless to construct sidewalk crossings as it would compel pedestrians to walk through muddy streets in getting from one sidewalk to another. The matter was referred to the committee on streets and the city engineer.

Alice J. Kirk presented a claim against the city for $5,000 because she was injured by falling into an excavation on Eighth South between Second and Third West streets Oct. 15.

Grade to Protect in Floods.

A number of residents along McClellan avenue were granted an appropriation of $250 to have the street graded so that a rain will not cause damage by reason of the fact that sidewalks have been graded down. In case of a storm the water would run from the road and cover the walks.

W. A. Holman and others complained that the Oregon Short Line Railroad company had obstructed Goodwin street in North Salt Lake with a fence and switch engines.

J. C. Snow offered to sell the city four asphalt claims of 160 acres each located near Scofield, a mile and a half from the Rio Grande railroad. The bed is twenty feet thick, and $2,000 is asked for it.

Joseph F. Smith sent a communication thanking the council for several lots in the city cemetery for the burial of the poor of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. The plat was donated last week.

Ask Extension of Franchise.

Charles B. Stewart and the residents living in the vicinity of Third South and Thirteenth East streets asked that the Utah Light & Railway company be granted an extension of its franchise for another three years. The company promised to extend its line from its present terminus on Second South to Third South street along Thirteenth East street. The extension will benefit the students of the university.

Christian Neilson of Halliday petitioned the council for permission to haul wood down City Creek canyon, and was turned down. He offered $50 for the privilege. Councilman Wells informed his colleagues that Neilson knew he had been cutting the wood on city property, although he said in his petition that he thought he was on government land. He had acted uncivilly to the land and water commissioner, claiming he would haul the wood whether or no.

The Salt Lake Electric & Supply company asked permission to hang an electric sign on First South and Commercial streets. The company has already erected the sign contrary to the provisions of the ordinance without the consent of the chief of police.

Reports of City Officers.

The city treasurer reported that $257 had been collected during October for dog licenses. Half of this sum goes to the collector.

The clerk of the city court reported that during October 298 criminal cases had been disposed of. The fines and forfeitures amounted to $3,311.05. The fees collected in the civil division amounted to $209.

The street superintendent asked for an appropriation of $940 for a rock crusher.

W. D. Bowring submitted a claim of $50 for services rendered in the city auditor's office Aug. 15 to Aug. 31. Mr. Bowring sent in his resignation last summer, to take effect Aug. 15. Auditor Felt accepted it and appointed Miss Sarah Eddington, his clerk, to succeed Mr. Bowring. The council accepted the resignation, to take effect Aug. 31, but Auditor Felt stated that Bowring did not work for the city after the middle of the month.
