BIKE RIDERS RETURN HOME

Downing, Agraz and Castro First to Reach Salt Lake.

SAY RACE WAS SUCCESS

LOCAL MEN ALL FARED WELL IN FINANCIAL WAY.

Hardy K. Downing, Emil Agraz and Fred Castro, the advance guard of the Salt Lake bike riders who took part in the six-day race, returned home yesterday, none the worse for their long grind for the edification of the New York cycle fans and the coin that accompanies such a feat. Agraz and Castro remained over long enough to see their friends in the city, and last evening boarded the train for the coast, going to San Jose, where the boys will spend the winter.

The race, according to the story told by the riders, was the most successful ever pulled off in New York, and all of the riders fared well when it came to the financial settlement.

When asked to explain the outcome of the race, Hardy Downing, who generally knows what is doing, said there was a combination out to win, and it was carried through with success. Downing says the Bedell boys got their lap on the square and then entered into a combination with McLean and Moran and Mad Downey to keep the rest of the bunch from making up the lost distance. In spite of this Root and Folger gained a lap after five hours of the hardest kind of sprinting. This team was then taken into the combination against the rest of the riders, and the deal was carried through successfully.

When it came to the final split up of the purse, Root, through his wife, gave McLean, Moran, Downey and the Bedell brothers the "double cross," and it was this incident that was dwelt upon in the dispatches.

Downing says Hopper went to the hospital the day after the race to nurse an injured knee, but was out again the next day, and is now as good as ever. He is expected home in a few days.

Nn speaking of the numerous wives incident of Hollister, Downing says the reports as published are true, but he does not know how Hollister fared after the race, as he left at once for home. Hardy confirms the story about the meeting of Hollister and his alleged first wife. Hardy says she was waiting for Cyrus, and as he entered the garden, in a tragic voice, with finger extended, she exclaimed:

"Hawficer, h-a-w-rest that man, in the name of the law." The "bull" turned around and said:

"Aw, keep still; you ought to join one of those 'ten, twent, thirt' dramatic shows."

The officer took Hollister in charge, and he was promptly released on bond.

Downing says Hollister will probably return to Salt Lake as soon as he gets matters settled.

WHY THE MATCH IS OFF

Billy Nolan Gives Reason for Declaring Nelson-McGovern Date Cancelled.

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—A real reason for calling off the Nelson-McGovern match, which was scheduled for Philadelphia on Jan. 26, appears in the fact that Terrible Terry failed to post his forfeit money. The champion's money was up, and he did not propose to waste opportunities for other profitable engagements by waiting for the four for McGovern's backers to come through.

Billy Nolan's explanation of the situation is conveyed by the following message from Toledo, O., to the Chronicle:

"McGovern's manager has been seeking a match with Nelson for the past eight weeks. Articles were signed in Buffalo over ten days ago. Nelson's forfeit was posted. I have been waiting for McGovern to do likewise, and he failed to make good, and I sent word to the club to call it off. McGovern has until Friday midnight to post the money. If he does not post it the match is off.

"BILLY NOLAN."

This was supplemented by the following dispatch from the Chronicle's correspondent:

"Upon receiving a telegram from M. G. Murphy, stakeholder, which stated that no money had been posted by McGovern, Battling Nelson said this afternoon that their fight was off, so far as he was concerned. Nolan, his manager, when seen, verified the statement, saying that he had given McGovern people all the opportunity in the world to get down with the money and that he did not intend letting Nelson lose any more valuable engagements.

"Money talks," Nolan said, "and ours is gone. If I had been covered the fight would have gone on, for we never break a promise. It is likely that Nelson will listen to a proposition from Sullivan at the close of the theatrical season."

O'BRIEN IS FAVORITE

'Frisco Sports Pick Him to Defeat Fitz at Odds of Ten to Seven.

San Francisco, Dec. 18.—Robert Fitzsimmons moved today from his training quarters in Alameda to this city, where he will remain until his glove contest with Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia on Wednesday night. He is declared to be in fine condition and is confident of success. The backers of his opponent, however, express equal confidence. The betting odds are at 10 to 7 in O'Brien's favor. Both men have trained carefully and neither underrates the other's ability. The indications are that there will be at least a $12,000 house on the occasion of the meeting between the men.

CITY LEAGUE BOWLING

Standing of the Teams.

Brilliants	9	21	.300

The Senators were away to the bad last evening and went down before the Brilliants in the league series of games. The Brilliants have not been doing much this season, and it may be over-confidence on the part of the lawmakers, or just plain everyday poor bowling, but their chances of getting up into second place are badly shattered, at least for a couple of weeks.

The Spitz family were the stars, David having two points more than his brother Samuel.
