KEEPING WATCH ON LAWMAKERS

E. H. Harriman Occupies Seat in Senators' Private Gallery in National Capital.

SNEERS AT RECENT INQUIRY

FACTS BROUGHT OUT ANCIENT HISTORY.

Washington, March 2.—E. H. Harriman, who is in Washington for a few days, in discussing the recent investigation by the interstate commerce commission in New York, today said:

"There was not a single new point brought out in the inquiry. It was simply a rehash of matter which has been given wide publicity several years ago. This continual reform agitation shows the animosity that exists today against men and corporations that have made a success. The interstate commerce commission could produce far better results if the members would co-operate with the financial interests of the country instead of antagonizing them. In view of the unfair methods of the administration, as carried out by the commission, there is no incentive for a man to be successful, but I am sure that in the end the American spirit will prevail. That is more to the purpose than a 'square deal.' We may have a square deal, but unfair play. There seems to be a tendency among all unsuccessful people to assail those who are successful.

Charges Seven Years Old.

"All the so-called charges made at the recent hearing in New York are fully covered in the application in October, 1900, for listing the Chicago & Alton railway securities in the New York exchange, and every point brought out by the interstate commission the other day was given publicity at that time. This circular to which I refer mentioned the fact that $31,988,000 in 3 per cent bonds were sold to the stockholders at 65, and that the amount, $22,144,177.66 that had formerly been charged to income, were properly charged to construction.

Branch Cost Millions.

"It was stated at that time that the charter provided for new construction, and that the line had been surveyed but had not yet been constructed. It cost the Chicago & Alton for the St. Louis, Peoria & Northern Railway company for fifty-seven miles about $42,000,000. There was expended upon the property about $22,000,000, the proceeds of the sale of $31,000,000 of refunding 3s, and the collateral trust bonds, against which $7,000,000 of the refunding 3s produced $26,000,000, making a total of $90,000,000. As against that there were issued of the Chicago & Alton Railroad company, the new company, $22,000,000 of 3½ per cent bonds, $20,000,000 of preferred stock, $20,000,000 of common stock and $45,000,000 of 3 per cent bonds of the Chicago & Alton Railroad company's refunding 3s, or a total of $107,000,000.

Not a Capital Offense.

"To this might be added $8,000,000 of equipment trust notes, but the latter are being paid out of the income so that the amounts are withheld from the security holders until the equipment trust notes and bonds are redeemed, and therefore it is not altogether a capital charge. So it would seem that of $107,000,000 of security issued $90,000,000 has been paid out. There may be between $2,000,000 and $2,500,000 obligations not included in the above. Including this, it would make the amount of obligations to date about $110,000,000, instead of $107,000,000. Our payment to security holders has not increased, taking into account $22,000,000 of new capital put in the property.

"The annual increase in the interest payment and dividends is $800,000 at the most, after spending $22,000,000 upon the property. This has been increased three-fold because of the increase in facilities."

Ancient History.

Then Harriman pointed out that the Chicago & Alton listing in the circular referred to the payment of the 30 per cent dividend upon the preferred and common stock.

"When this point was brought out at the New York hearing," he said, "the interstate commerce commissioners thought they were developing some new and startling facts, when as a matter of fact, the whole thing was ancient history."

Mr. Harriman with his wife and son occupied a front seat in the senators' private gallery in the senate for some time today. He gave close attention to the proceedings.

EDITOR BUYS FARM.

Arthur Brisbane Able to Put Up $125,000 in Real Money.

New York, March 2.—The deserted village of Allair, in Monmouth county, New Jersey, was bought yesterday by Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Journal, at a private sale, and is to be converted into a model farm. The place consists of 600 acres, and it is said that Mr. Brisbane paid $125,000 for the tract. For years he has been deeply interested in experimental and scientific agriculture, and he intends to make Allair one of the finest model farms in the eastern states.

INQUIRY BEGINS SOON.

Washington, March 2.—In accordance with the house resolution providing for an investigation of the business methods of cotton exchanges dealing in futures, the bureau of corporations of the department of commerce and labor will begin an inquiry into cotton dealing immediately after congress adjourns. Representative Livingston of Georgia has supplied the department with the names of many witnesses.

WILL APPEAR MONDAY.

Chicago, March 2.—A warrant charging George W. Fitzgerald, the teller of the sub-treasury, from whose cage the $173,000 disappeared, with assault, was sworn out today. Fitzgerald yesterday attacked a newspaper man who he declared had threatened his wife, and the warrant was the result. Fitzgerald was later released on bonds, which call for his appearance in court on Monday.

PEOPLE WILL DECIDE.

Sacramento, Cal., March 2.—The assembly today passed by a vote of 59 to 19, the bill for the removal of the capitol. O'Brien of Sacramento changed his vote and gave notice of reconsideration. The bill already has passed the senate. It provides for the submission to a vote of the people on the proposition to remove the state capitol to Berkeley.

PENROSE COURT-MARTIAL.

San Antonio, Tex., March 2.—Little new testimony was taken today in the Penrose court martial. Major Blockson, under cross-examination, told of bullet holes in houses and the probable place from which they were fired. He was still on the stand when court adjourned until Monday morning.

HAS SLIGHT CHANCE.

New York, March 2.—The condition of Daniel J. Sully, who is critically ill with pneumonia, was reported today as unchanged with slight chance for his recovery.

ALL WILL RECOVER.

New York, March 2.—The sailors from the battleship Connecticut, who are down with typhoid fever, all are resting comfortably at the naval hospital at the Brooklyn navy yard. It is thought all of the men will recover.

GOES OUT WITH SHAW.

Washington, March 2.—A. F. Statter, who recently was appointed assistant secretary of the treasury to succeed Charles H. Keep, has tendered his resignation to the president and will leave the department with Secretary Shaw on March 4.

TAKE NOTICE.

Will L. Price, the grocer, has taken the store of J. E. Healy, 316 South State, where he will be glad to see all his old friends, and also new ones. He will keep a first-class store and stock. Give him a call.

PRESIDENT IS ALONE TO BLAME

Construction Company Was Prepared to Go Ahead and Dig Panama Canal.

NO REASON FOR REJECTION

RAILROADS BLAMED IN SOME QUARTERS.

Augusta, Ga., March 2.—"We are down and out," said J. B. McDonald, president of the Panama Construction company, in discussing the rejection of the bid of W. J. Oliver for the construction of the Panama canal. "They have taken the matter out of our hands, and it now rests with the president. The responsibility should be placed where it belongs.

"I do not see why our bid should have been rejected, except that it is due to the far-reaching machinations of the political influences that have worked against all bids that threaten actual construction of the big canal. It is hardly necessary to say that these interests are those of the transcontinental railroads.

Seduced by Higher Pay.

"It is generally recognized that this agency was working to defeat the project long before it ever took tangible shape. You will notice that one by one the practical men who have been identified with the canal have been picked off by big financial interests. It is not difficult to trace the relations. This is very poor business, however, for the canal is bound to come; if not during this administration, then during another. It is inevitable.

"I cannot see where the president and his associates are right, and do not see how they will be able to build the canal. Sooner or later the ditch will have to be dug under businesslike management of a constructor who has figured cost down to a minimum. Our company was willing to perform every item of the agreement required by the government. It was our understanding that when the conditions imposed by the government were met the contract went to our company. We have made every preparation, at considerable expense, and were prepared to begin shoveling dirt on or before the time limit of sixty days."

Suit Not Likely.

Mr. McDonald does not believe that there is anything in the report that W. J. Oliver will enter suit against the government for the preliminary expenses of $40,000 incurred in making the bid.

"I am certainly not going to Washington to confer with him further in the matter. I said our company will be dissolved as rapidly as possible, and that will end the matter. I have not heard a word from Mr. Oliver since the rejection of the bids."

WATER EVERYWHERE.

Escalante Desert Being Visited by Floods—Ferry Boats Used as Conveyances.

Modena, March 1.—The excessive precipitation during the past winter in the higher altitudes has resulted in heavy floods during the past week on the southern portion of the Escalante desert and across the line in Nevada.

Fortunately, all the snow on the desert, owing to some two weeks of balmy weather, had melted before the deep snows in the mountains released their aqueous burden, and less damage has consequently resulted.

The San Pedro railroad is making herculean efforts to bridge the numerous washouts occasioned by the floods south of Modena. Shoal creek, twenty miles east of Modena, normally an insignificant stream, has been swelled during the past week to a raging torrent 200 feet in width and five to six feet in depth. Passengers conveyed over the Hebron and St. George stage lines, have been ferried across on an improvised ferry boat, made of ordinary boards and attached to traveling pulleys, on a slender guiding wire. Several who have made the passage across claimed it surpassed in fearsome thrills the maneuvers of an erratic, lubberly land auto.

The mining camp of Stateline is going to be considerably handicapped owing to the unusual amount of water. It is reported that every prospect shaft in the camp has been filled with water, and as no credit on annual work would obtain in bailing the shafts out, they will doubtless be left to gradually dry up, and this will require three months or more, it is said.

It is reported that nearly all the small points between Cedar City and St. George are opposed to the new service the postoffice department intends to establish between Modena and St. George, and have petitioned the department to abandon their intention, fearing that they will after the inauguration of the new service, have to put up with a semi or tri-weekly service. As the population of St. George is far in excess of the combined population of the complaining points the action of the department is awaited with curiosity and interest.

RICHFIELD HAPPENINGS.

Richfield, March 1.—The little seven-year-old daughter of I. J. Stewart died Thursday of spinal meningitis. She was taken ill Tuesday evening with a chill and gradually grew worse until death relieved her. Her condition corresponded with other cases of this terrible disease which is now so bad throughout the state. The funeral will be held tomorrow at the family residence.

The city of Richfield has made an offer to all the property owners of this city to pay half the expense of the loading of sand if the property owners will haul it upon the sidewalks, and a great many are taking advantage of the offer. Great improvement can already be seen all over the city.

Mrs. P. S. Nielson was taken very ill on her return from Salt Lake this week, and her condition has veen very serious since then.

A committee of citizens of Sigurd waited upon County Attorney John G. Jorgenson Monday and asked that steps be taken to have the Rocky Ford reservoir declared a nuisance and condemned. The citizens of Sigurd claimed that stagnant water in the reservoir breeds insects and causes disease in and around that town. The matter has been referred to the state board of health.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Patrick Flood.

Patrick Flood, an old resident of Colton, died in this city Friday, aged 83 years. The funeral will ltake place Monday morning at 8:45 from O'Donnell's chapel to St. Mary's cathedral. Interment in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

William Henry Timms.

William Henry Timms, the son of John W. A. and Sarah Lohmer Timms, died Friday in this city of heart failure. The young man was born February 3, 1890. The funeral was held Saturday at 2 o'clock from the family residence, No. 255 Sixth street.

Mrs. Jennie Edgar.

Mrs. Jennie Edgar died Saturday at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. M. Boardman, at Provo. Mrs. Edgar was the widow of the late George Edgar, jr., who was killed by a train in July, 1905, on the Park City branch. She was 50 years of age and was for many years a resident of Salt Lake. She leaves a family of six children, who are now with relatives in the city. The body will be brought to Salt Lake for interment. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Mrs. Jennie Homer.

The body of Mrs. Jennie Homer, who died at Wanship, Summit county, last Wednesday night, was buried at the Mill Creek cemetery in this county, yesterday afternoon. Her relatives, most of whom were present at the time of death and the funeral, are H. O. Young, Mrs. William C. Wallace and Mrs. Frank Bird of this city; Mrs. L. M. Earl of St. Anthony, Ida.; Andrew Homer of Big Piney, Wyo.; Mrs. McEnery of San Francisco, and Hyrum Homer of Park City. Mrs. Homer was a most lovable woman and will be missed and mourned by a large circle of acquaintances.

Erick G. Johnson.

The funeral of Erick G. Johnson will be held at 2:15 o'clock today at the Third ward chapel. Friends may view the body at 1135 East Eighth South, from 12 to 2 o'clock.

George J. Brown.

The funeral of George J. Brown will be held Monday at 2 o'clock instead of today as has been previously announced. Services will be conducted in the Fifteenth ward meeting-house. Members of Woodbine circle No. 41, Woodmen of the World, are especially invited to attend. Interment will be in the City cemetery.

Provo, March 1.—The case of Jesse W. Fox vs. the Beck Tunnel Consolidated Mining company is before Judge Booth on a demurrer to the answer on the ground that it does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defence. The suit is for 4,000 shares of the capital stock of the Beck Tunnel Consolidated Mining company and $1,269 in dividends paid on the stock, or for $5,460 if the stock cannot be delivered. The defense is that the stock in question, which was in the Bullion-Beck Tunnel company before that company was consolidated with the La Reine Mining company, and appeared on the books of the Bullion-Beck Tunnel company in other names than that of the plaintiff, has been sold for delinquent assessments, after being duly advertised. The demurrer has been taken under advisement.

FUNERAL OF S. J. KEELER.

Eureka, March 2.—The remains of Solomon Joseph Keeler, who died last Tuesday morning at the Tintic hospital of pneumonia, were laid to rest this afternoon in the Eureka City cemetery. Deceased was born in Provo in 1868 and was the oldest son of the late Sol. J. Keeler, a veteran of the civil war, and leaves behind a great many sorrowing friends. He was a member of Tintic lodge No. 9, F. and A. M., and his funeral services were conducted under their direction, and a large number of carriages followed his remains from Odd Fellows' hall, where the services were conducted, to the grave yard. His mother, Mrs. Richens of Vernal, and his brother-in-law, A. L. Pickup of the same place, were the only relatives at the funeral. Besides those already mentioned he leaves behind a sister, Mrs. Edith Pickup, and a brother, Edwin Keeler, who is in Colorado, and also a little son, Frank, who is but 8 years old.

IDAHO LEGISLATURE.

Bill Providing for a Statue of the Late Senator Shoup Passed.

(Special to The Herald.)

Boise, Ida., March 1.—The senate today by unanimous vote passed the bill providing for a statue of the late George L. Shoup in statuary hall in the national capitol. The bill carries an appropriation of $6,000, the senate having raised the amount $5,000. The house fish and game bill was also passed, as was the house bill amending the dental law.

In the house the Sunday rest bill was passed. Its author, Johnston of Bingham, has introduced a substitute much less stringent in its provisions, but the house liked the original bill and killed the other. After making some amendments excluding some forms of amusement from the prohibited list, it passed the measure by a vote of 33 to 14.

Tonight the sheepmen are very active in seeking help to get the bill through the senate amending the two-mile limit law for grazing sheep, which was passed by the house some days ago. They seem somewhat dubious about getting it through and many of them have apparently given up the fight, but others are laboring zealously to accomplish the purpose.

PARK CITY NEWS NOTES.

Park City, March 1.—In the preliminary hearing of Robert J. Nelson, charged with adultery committed with Emma J. Larsen who, for some time has been an inmate of the state insane asylum, the defendant was discharged upon a technicality which was altogether no one's fault but was promptly rearrested and pleaded not guilty. His bond was then fixed at $1,000, just twice what it was in the first instance. The preliminary hearing will be held next Friday before P. H. Tallon, city justice of the peace.

Tomorrow the semi-annual election of officers of local branch No. 144, Western Federation of Miners, will be held at the union hall, where the ballot box will be open for ballots from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m. There are several candidates in the field for the various offices and the election promises to be a pretty contest.
